Dear Anna

I received your letter by Jam last week, which gave me much pleasure, I must beg the favour of you to have me made two Flannel shirts, as quick as possible, you will make them by Brother Philip's, which I hope will suit me — Since my last to you, I have had one day of pleasure, which was on Sunday, two Ladies and myself went to Teach=em Pale, A. Chambers was one, and the other was a stranger, ~~[illegible]~~, I will leave you to guess who it was, she was beautiful and all accomplished, you may be sure that I ~~[illegible]~~ passed my time not only agreeably, but with a great deal of pleasure, Augusta, one of
