Chester L.

My dear Aunt-

I hope you and Dr
hunt-yourselves laughe told you where we sp you may depend I felt as mad when I retired ~~that~~ but could not help laughing at myself when Miss Harriett left my room and bid good night to think where my bones were resting however they were very kind and we found every thing very nice - the Widower followed us on to Town where he took the S. Boat for Ba more - and spent the following Sunday evening with us Mr Colson who was with him said - I did not get the
