My Dear Wife, I wrote you by Charles Th learning that I had declined calling at farm having an opportunity to come on across in an open boat, and accordi I reached here very comfortably just at dark & found Wm & all here well.

There has been considerable gloom here among his friends in consequence of the death of poor Edelin & from what I can learn altho' nothing of the arrangements for the 22 were abotted things did not come up to anticipations — There is as far as I can learn a general belief that the Session will terminate on Saturday week next, if not before. You may there: me at home about that time unless I advise
