tomorrow and will write her the request.

I send ~~you~~ a letter from Thomas yesterday about seeing. Say to him I have at once taken steps as he desires & will write him as soon as anything is decided. He informs me he is to move to Ogletown on the first of April. This I respect accordingly. You will oblige me & at once landing off my corn from that place at once and I will be glad if you will give it your personal attention.

As corn is rising you had may be better hold on to yours, but have the corn from Ogletown sent at once and immediately, and with the — Less proceeds pay the first falling due.

I enclose a note for the renewal at the Easton Bank

My love to all
