E. end base Dauphin Id
May 4th. 1847

Dear Sir

Please deliver the chronometer which I hand to you with the inclosed letter to Mr. Fauntleroy

While you have the chronometer carry it in your watch or waistcoat pocket. Wind it up on retiring at night, & put it on its back under your pillow.

Yours truly
A. D. Bache

Mr. F. Emory
U.S. Coast Survey

With pocket chr. J. Lukens, London, belonging to S. C. Walker Esq. of Washington.
