Said Joshua Loney dec.d and which said part of tracts of Land is included within the lines, meles and Boun-daries following, that is to say — Beginning on the bank at the edge of Chester River, and where a Divi-sion fence now stands between a certain William Goutt (who intermarried with Juliana the young-est Daughter of Robert Hawkins dec.d) and the said Charles Emory and Frances his wife and Wm. Smith Bishop, and running from thence with the said Division fence and Bounded thereby, as follows, to wit: South fifty one Degrees and thirty minutes East two hun dred and thirty six perches and fourteen links to a road laid out formerly as a road to run down to the river to a place designed to be a town called Ogletown and then with the said road and bounded thereby the following courses to wit: North seventeen degrees and thirty minutes East, two hundred and twenty two perches, and North Eight degrees East, seventy seven -ches, to Chester River, then down the said River and bounded thereby, the following courses to wit: South forty six degrees West, thirty two perches, and South thirty five degrees and thirty minutes West, nineteen perches, and South Eighty seven degrees West, Eight perches, and South seventy three degrees and thirty mi -nutes West, sixteen perches, and North fifty one de-grees