Rockland Oct. 22nd 1828 —

My dear Sir —

Your favour came to hand by mail this Evening — I am pleased to perceive such favourable accounts of the health of your neighbourhood — In particular situations bad have sufficed in this County from bilious and intermitting fevers — My own family has not been exempt — We unfortunately contain under severe inflammatory symptoms generally with an bilious attacks, which induce me to wish more the pleasure of your with you —

With regard to your I feel anxious upon your accounting at of your Buckwheat and Rye of the fall blood to take your Grain old Rye and Rye at $30 — 15 each — The it is really principally to gratify some of my German Neighbours — you will oblige me by having them delivered, in Baltimore, to the care of Mr John F. Orndorff, at the Market Street above Baltimore near Zouaves, on the right hand side of the street — Mr Orndorff is a commission Merchant — You can apprize me of the time they shall be delivered, so as to afford me an opportunity to have my wagon ready to
