Myttle Grove Nov. 14th 1828.

My dear Sir:

I take special pleasure in congratulating You on your late success in your district, for although not unexpected, it was considered somewhat doubtful, and if the account we hear of the success of Col Duval is true, the Q Stone presents a strong view to the politician of a great community steadfast to good principles.

I hope You will soon be rested from your labours and after You have had a little time to look around at home upon your own concerns, a visit to Talbot will give your friends how much pleasure, and to none more than to myself, and I must insist upon your spending a social day or two with me that we may look back upon the labours with cheerful reminiscence — I wish You w^d bring Mr Henry Wright down at the same time — I have taken a great fancy to him — his simplicity of style, his good [illegible] and his manlyful view attracted me much, and I th^k
