there is but one sentiment on the subject among the Democratic Party, they are unanimously for you. Some of the Federalists are for Goldsborough and some against him, for the reasons assigned by you, that it will weaken and finally break us down as a party. I am quite willing to give them three members of the Council, this is liberal enough, and all that ought to be required. do my dear Sir, spare yourself in the hands of your friends, and there no obstacles in our way. I know Sir you be as tender of your interests politically and personally as Shemedlie of a Brother. I caused an article to be inserted in the Balto Chronicle over the signature of Demosthenes, with the view of fixing the public attention on you, another will appear in the Intelligencer or Patriot having the same object. It is wise to get the first blow on such occasions. Have many of your ardent friends assisting me in this matter. Kent. Sommer. Bowie, Skinner
