As soon as you have decided on what you conceive to be the worth of the third of the land – the third of the dwelling house &c I will esteem it a very great favour if you will write me your decision – or if any difficulty should occur. I fear it is taking an almost unwarrantable liberty in asking such favours – but Mr Geo Williams told me that he thought you would do me more justice than any one else