NEXT GOVERNOR John Walter Smith is spending to-day at Rockville fair. Col. Smith is determined to know the people of the State and is adopting the best possible method to accomplish this end.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION met in Baltimore yesterday and named the following State ticket: For Governor, Lloyd Lowndes; Comptroller, Phillips Lee Goldsborough; Attorney General, John V. L. Findlay. A platform was passed endorsing the McKinley administration, and strongly upholding his policy in the Philippine Islands. The administration of Governor Lowndes was endorsed, and police re-organization for Baltimore city demanded. The delegates from Kent to the convention were: Wilbur Eliason, Charles T. Westcott, William J. Vannort, W. W. Chapman, Charles England, George R. Crew, Edward W. Emory, William R. Hodges, James A. Casey, T. A. M. Bramble, Frederick Nicols and William Riley.

THE Wilmington Every Evening says editorially:

"George E. McNeill, a prominent labor leader of New England, says:

"'From recent correspondence I have had I believe that to-day nearly all of the leading laboring men of the country are opposed to the policy of the administration, and that the great mass of wage-earners in all parts of the country stand with their leaders on this question. In fact, the anti-imperialist feeling is gaining every day.'

"No doubt of it. For the bulk of the burden of imperialism—and what a costly luxury it is the history of the world shows—is bound to fall upon labor in the end."

WHILE REPUBLICAN MISSIONARIES are at work in a vain endeavor to heal the breaches in the fifth district and other sections, the most encouraging reports are received from every section relative to political conditions among democrats. As an evidence of the desperation to which republican leaders are driven by the hopelessness of their fight, it may be mentioned that one of the chief stocks in trade for the campaign is the disfranchisement of the colored voter bugaboo in the event of democratic success. Every public school building and every church in the county will be made to ring with the most bitter denunciations of the democratic party in an effort to embitter an antagonism against the people who have by their money and moral support made it possible for colored children to have schools and churches dotted throughout the county. In spite of all this, should a democrat or democratic paper mention the subject of negro outrages or make reference to colored domination, up go ten thousand virtuous republican hands in holy horror against the introduction of the "race issue" into the campaign. It would be well for the colored voter to remember, that notwithstanding the fact that he constitutes ninety per cent. of the voting strength of his party in Kent, the rock upon which his party is now rent asunder is the question as to whether or not he should even be recognized by the empty honor of being allowed to come to Chestertown to indulge in the farce of naming a ticket, which, weeks in advance had been slated within the sacred precincts of a lawyer's office. The "colored brother" will also remember with what emphasis and bitter denunciation he was held chargable for the calamitous defeats of November, 1897. An old colored man of the third district, gave a striking object lesson some time ago as to where the Kent county colored people were accustomed to look for kindnesses in times of distress. This old fellow's property was within a few hours of being sold, when he applied to a democratic farmer for assistance in saving his little home. After receiving the needed help, the old man was asked why he had not gone to his republican friends in the hour of his distress, when he answered: "Pleas de Lawd sir, I'm ashamed to say it, but I called on 'em and didn't git a cent." Let the republican campaigner see to it that the race issue is not introduced into this campaign and that the mob violence and lawlessness of 1895 is not repeated as a result of their reprehensible and vicious campaign methods.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address,

APPRECIATED CONGRATULATIONS.

Of the TRANSCRIPT'S Industrial Edition the Kent News says editorially:

"The TRANSCRIPT'S 'Industrial Edition' was a credit to its editors and to country journalism. Every edition of a well-conducted paper is an industrial edition and helps to make a town or city, and the business man who patronizes them is aiding in the good work."

The Easton Ledger said:

"The Chestertown TRANSCRIPT issued an industrial edition last Thursday, consisting of a four-page supplement printed on fine book paper and embellished with half-tone portraits of the Democratic State nominees and of prominent Kent countians, and handsome reproductions of Chestertown's new public fountain, Washington College and other scenes of interest. The whole affair is a credit to the enterprise of one of Maryland's cleanest, neatest and best county journals.

INTERESTING ARTICLES.

The first and fourth pages of this issue of the TRANSCRIPT will be found of more than usual interest. In the first place Mrs. Rosalie Mitchel Schuyler, a daughter of Kent, contributes a dainty poetical romance in which Kitty Knight figures as the heroine. This poem has never before been given to the public. In addition to being an artist of great versatility and strength, Rosalie Mitchel Schuyler has contributed many articles to the press of great literary merit and interest. She is now a resident of Delaware, but loves the beautiful traditions of her native State, and has for years been a welcome contributor to the columns of the TRANSCRIPT.

Then, too, in this issue, Mrs. Harriett L. W. Hill, also a scion of one of the old families of Kent county, contributes an article interestingly referring to the prominent part taken by the Kent county beauty, Kitty Knight, in the burning of Georgetown. Mrs. Hill has spent a vast amount of time and money in investigating the great fund of hidden incident in Maryland history, and her store of historical information along the line of legend, romance and biography is unsurpassed by any one investigator in the State. The delightful series of articles contributed to the TRANSCRIPT alone by this talented writed and tireless worker in the musty tomes of the past, would make a most fascinating little volume.

In this issue will also be found an interesting account of a carriage drive from Hanover Court House, Va., to Maryland, by Rev. S. S. Hepbron, who, with his estimable wife spent the summer near Hepbron Station, this county. Mr. Hepbron has not contributed largely to the press of his native county, but his article will be found none the less interesting.

WATER CONTAMINATION.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., SEPT. 2, 1899.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It occurs to me that the increase of typhoid fever among the citizens of Chestertown may be largely accounted for by the fact that most of the cellars on Washington avenue are damp and wet, in a number of them wells have been dug in corners of the cellars so that the cellar floors themselves may be dry; the wells receive the drainage of the surface water. These wells are, some of them, twelve or fifteen feet deep, and thus easily touch the streams supplying the water of the Old Free School Spring which bubbles out and furnishes the town supply at the water works. Is not here the chief cause of contamination, and if this be so, will it not be necessary to go to some high point of land like the reservoir and bore an artesian well for the purpose of securing a purer flow of water? An examination of the houses on Washington avenue, of their cellars and of their wells, will, I think, demonstrate how easily the water through this means can contaminate. I am told that when the pool was dug out at the foot of M. deK. Smith's yard the water in the well in Mr. James Brice's yard fell perceptibly. Is not this a manifest demonstration?

EASTERN SHORE RACE TRACK

Fair Ground for Sussex, Kent, Queen Anne and Caroline.

Interest in county fairs and their races seems to be on the increase. On Saturday a number of prominent residents of Queen Anne and Caroline counties, of Maryland, and Kent and Sussex counties, of Delaware, met at Rehoboth Beach to arrange for incorporating a new fair association with grounds at Queenstown.

The incorporators of the association are W. Scott Roberts, Edward B. Emory, Wm. J. Price, Samuel Rhodes, John E. George, H. Goodhand, Thomas A. Smith, W. Bates Stevens, Wm. F. Pennington, Charles Atkins, Thomas B. Curry and Dr. Hiram Burton. The last four are citizens of Kent and Sussex counties, Del.

The directors have concluded arrangements with Mr. W. H. Bosley, president of the Queen Anne Railroad Company, for a tract of land, adjoining the company's property at Queenstown. The tract embraces about 265 acres, and is beautifully located on a high plateau, which overlooks Queenstown creek. The association intends to lay a half mile track, build a grandstand, exhibition hall and stabling for exhibits. The object is to meet a want of the people of the two counties of Delaware and the agriculturists of Queen Anne and Caroline counties. In addition to drawing visitors from this part of the Eastern Shore, it is expected that Baltimore will attend the fair, as they will have direct communication with the place by the steamers of the railroad company. The survey and the laying off the track will begin at once.

JUDGE BLECKLEY of Georgia asserts that as prochein ami we brought an action at arms against Spain in behalf of Cuba, and that, having recovered all that we sued for on the score of humanity, we have amended our pleadings and put in a claim for ourselves. The precise legal status of the case is that we have found that Cuba is not "a going concern," and have had ourselves appointed a receiver. A motion to dissolve the receivership will be heard when Congress meets.

THREE OLD VETERANS were fatally prostrated by heat in the monster Philadelphia G. A. R. parade on Tuesday and hundreds were overcome by the intense heat. Hahnemann Hospital alone had over five hundred cases.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given up, but was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Read His Editorial.

From the Times, Hillstille, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow suffers that I am a hale and hearty man to-day and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. MOORE. Sold by M. A. Toulson.

Office of the Local Board of Health.

CHESTERTOWN, MD, Aug. 21, 1899.

Below is the last analysis of drinking water taken from the supply pool and the reservoir respectively. The water company has furnished every facility possible in securing the samples and fowarding them to the chemist of the State Board of Health. We regret very much to have to notify the users of this water of its being in a condition unfit at present for drinking purposes without being boiled. Therefore, we advise everyone to boil it before using, and not to drink it unboiled. For culinary and washing purposes this is hardly necessary. We believe we have located the source of contamination, and hope soon to remedy the evil. Mr. Thomas, manager of the company, will at once proceed to this, and will have the full co-operation of the executive officer of this board. The contamination is in no way chargable to the company or its officers, but is, in our opinion, the result of draining at a point over which they have no control.

Chemical Examination of Water.

From Dr. W. Frank Hines, Chestertown, Md.

CONSTITUENTS.	FIGURES IN PARTS PER MILLION. No. 1—Pool.	No. 2—Reservoir.

Reaction,	neutral.	neutral.
1. Total Residue at 230 degrees F.	104.	114.

Good drinking water should be clear and colorless, without odor and neutral in reaction.

2. The "Ignited Residue" man constitute the total residue.
3. The smaller the amount of "Volatile Residue" the better.
4. The amount of "Chlorine" should not exceed 6.00 parts per million.
5. The amount of "Nitrogen as Free Ammonia" should not exceed .05 parts per million.
6. The amount of "Nitrogen as Albumenoid Ammonia" should not exceed .15 parts per million.
