from until something turns up, of which I am not at present apprized. There is one thing which however I wish pined. That either you or her or some of the family be present on the ~~occa~~ occasion. sion. Could not this be done. Would it not be a pleasant little bridal excursion for Sally, or could not Brother be induced to go. I might no doubt postpone ~~any~~ [illegible] event. but you know every day so very propitious at this moment is ~~the~~ so much gold. Give my most affectionate love to Sally & say how much I wish her happiness & how much I applaud her conduct to the cook concern in Baltimore. They think & have already been made to feel this folly. Let her in no way appear to notice it. The Jones told me & was so kind that I think the least would be some reward for you to write something to come over with
