This Bill — I have made by this discussion the necessity of action on it by our Legislature — Our friends, scattered and distracted as as they are, still trust, that we shall remain united and unconquered. I trust not to appear in our political movements, yet I do not wish to be a persecuted triumphe must fall on our true friends — Never this to Colonel Polk, he is ardent and active and can impart his zeal to them on our friends to force measure around us that we may rally most fall. — The Tariff Bill has passed the Senate, the land bill is discussing — The successful efforts of Mr Clay upon these according questions will be a source of bitter reproaches to our true enemies.

I am with great respect Your friend
