Baltimore February 14th 1833

Although having left the Office I feel reluctant to trouble My Dear Father yet I have thought it best to write this evening which I shall not be able to do next week I cannot but think of forwarding you a letter which I received this morning from Mr. Wheaton which I think I ought to have that you should have at least for your a situation for you with Mr. Wheaton which I trust will put me in a way to get along in life, and take a great deal of trouble and expence off your shoulders, which I am anxious to do, as soon as possible My Dear Father, that I have yet power to prove my dear little Brothers to be Executors; I am willing to do all place of them — and obtain the rest of my Education by my own exertions, which I write Mr. Wheaton which I shall most cautiously do; And also my earnest exertions to the power they command of my time between this and the first of April next, at which time I hope I will be able to find a place — I saw Mr. Eccleston a client this morning; he showed me the letter which he received from you — we talked of my business as you directed. he thought as low as that I could not draw much but get from Lawton during May and then he will commence his Recovering business — I am going on very well, with Mr. French & Enzlett — I am in want of no thing at present I believe; but if I
