tinct at so much. I presume you drew your Conclusions from a letter Mr. Windsor wrote to Sister Marianna, some time since, in which I presume from what I can judge, he represented his own case precisely instead of mine. It would be an endless task now for to attempt to enumerate the many little things that have passed now & then which would confirm my word. I received a letter from Sister Marianna yesterday afternoon, she says the Children at Pleasant Grove had the mumps, which has made me my uneasy about you all, and sincerely hope you will write & let me know how they are. for I shall feel uneasy until I hear from home of you — I was at church twice yesterday and go generally twice every Sunday, as I have been so fortunately situated as to have the offer of a seat in the Churches, one of which was offered by Mrs Raylor to Sister Marianna and me, who is a very fine & pleasant little woman

I must Conclude

Your Affect. Son
Robert —

My Dr Sister

It affords me much pleasure to hear from you, at last, though I will not complain, that you have more moments at your disposal than I possess, to devote to one, who is so fond