By order of
LOCAL COMMITTEE.

On Tuesday next, October 17th, the registers will sit for revision only. Democrats be in place.

EDITOR S. CHESTER COURSEY, of the Centreville Record, was in town on Monday. Mr. Coursey considers that the mongrel Queen Anne ticket is leading a forlorn hope in the present campaign.

IT IS TO THE ETERNAL CREDIT of Admiral Dewey that he did not allow himself to be made the campaigning tool of William McKinley, during his whirl through the west. The admiral of Manila is too great a man to be caught napping by America's little president.

THE RESULT OF THE TWO DAYS REGISTRATION IN KENT was most encouraging and reassuring to the democracy. It means success in November. One democratic register was so happy over the result that he forgot to send the result in to the TRANSCRIPT last week, and another is in the same condition this week.

IT IS A NOTICABLE FACT that in the republican itinerary of political meetings in the counties of the State, Kent county is left out. Why is this? Is it because local republican leaders are afraid to show of what the "bone and sinew" of their organization in Kent consists? This is beyond all question the cause of Kent's being ignored by the republican "spell-binders."

THE TRANSCRIPT was in error in quoting that staunch old democratic organ, the Centreville Record, last week. It was stated that the Record editors had said editorially that Candidate Townshend had boxed the political compass. Mr. Benjamin Hazell was the politically unsettled invidual referred to by our contemporary. Mr. Townshend is an estimable gentleman and citizen, and while a republican, is consistent and unwavering. His devotion to party is purely a matter of principle and not a result of pique or association with the individual in republican ranks who catches the unwary by letting drop crumbs from the political table.

MR. JAMES E. COCKEY and Mr. B. S. Elliott, the democrats whom the Queen Anne republicans tried to gobble up by placing them on their ticket, have positively refused to serve. Mr. George Davidson accepts, and attempts to extenuate the crowning blunder of his life by saying that others have fallen into the same trap.

THE BE-EVERYWHERE characteristic of Kent county democratic candidates will be sorely tested this week, and the gentlemen in question are in a quandary. They want to be at three festivals and at the Millington rally at one and the same time (on Saturday evening), and they can't do it. Some of them are under a positive engagement to attend at one place, while a consciousness steals upon them that their friends may expect them at at least three others. The ways of the poor candidate are truly hard. Doubtless they will however, spread themselves like the green bay tree and cast a shadow over as many places as possible. Should they fail to put in an appearance at any of the desired places, it may be readily seen that it is not intended as a slight but will be one of those impossible things which even a candidate can not overcome.

THE EASTERN SHORE SENATORIAL LAW.

The election of United States Senator George L. Wellington, and the unlawful disregard of the Eastern Shore United States Senatorial law which insured to the Eastern Shore of Maryland representation in the United States Senate, are now matters of political history—political Banquo's ghosts as it were, which will not down at the bidding of the gentlemen who participated in this capital wrong against an important and growing section of the State. The Eastern Shore of Maryland is purely an agricultural section; it possesses no wealth except that which is drawn from the soil or from that great storehouse of untold wealth, the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries. These important facts impressed themselves upon the framers of Maryland laws as far back as the beginning of the present century. The venerable legislators of 1809 noted the vast mineral wealth of the tier of extreme northwestern counties of the State; they foresaw the probable rapid growth in population and wealth of Baltimore city and determined to preserve an equitable balance of power and representation as between the different sections of the State as far as this could possibly be done, and in this way protect the vast agricultural interests of the Eastern section. With this end in view the Legislature of 1809 passed an Act declaring that one of the two United States Senators from Maryland should come from the Eastern Shore. The law, chap. 22, section 2, read:

"One of the Senators shall always be an inhabitant of the Eastern Shore, and the others of the Western Shore of this State."

This Act remained in force and was of binding effect upon the Legislatures of the State until and AT the session of 1896, of which session Mr. James H. Baker, the republican candidate for the State Senate was a member.

The oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of the State and which every member of the Legislature was compelled to take when qualifying, was to obey and respect the existing Statutes of the State.

The oath unequivocally declared,—"I will be faithful and bear true allegeance to the State of Maryland, and support the Constitution and Laws thereof."

This oath was of necessity taken by the representative from Kent county. The election of a United States Senator to succeed Hon. Charles H. Gibson was one of the first duties the Legislature of 1896 was called upon to perform. Mr. Gibson's successor, whether democrat or republican, under the plain letter of the Statute must be an inhabitant of that section of the State lying East of the Chesapeake bay. The Statute had been obeyed and the unbroken custom had been since 1809 to elect a Senator from the Eastern Shore.

The mandate had gone forth however, and the Republican Legislature with an absolute diregard of their oath to "support the Constitution and Laws thereof," in January, 1896, elected George L. Wellington, of Alleghany county, Senator from the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Here was a palpable violation of their official oath. That section of the State which had sent such men as Ezekiel F. Chambers, James Alfred Pearce, George Vickers and others to the halls of National Legislation was deprived of all representation.

The State has since had two United States Senators representing corporations and corporate greed. Until this outrage was committed, the farming interests of the Eastern Shore and of the entire State, had representation in the United States Senate.

A striking feature of this matter was, that while there were several highly respectable gentlemen from the Eastern Shore who were candidates for the Senate,—Hon. Charles T. Westcott, from Kent; Clayland Mullikin, from Talbot, and Hon. P. L. Goldsborough, from Dorchester, Mr. J. H. Baker, the present republican candidate for the State Senate from Kent, then a member of the House of Delegates, and supposed to be a warm supporter of Mr. Westcott, abandoned, not only the candidate from Kent, but cut loose from each and every other Eastern Shore candidate, and voted for George L. Wellington for the high office of United States Senator.

It was not for these gentlemen to say whether the Eastern Shore Law was or was not constitutional. IT WAS LAW and they were there under oath to SUPPORT THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS THEREOF, and the people must and will hold the actors in this matter, personally responsible.

This section of the State, which was ruthlessly despoiled of its standing by this act of a claimed republican reform, must be restored to its original honorable position; the agricultural masses and the great army of watermen of the Eastern Shore must be given representation in the halls of national legislation. This section of the State must at least be made to feel that pride which is her due, that her sons are elligible as members of this great law-making body as were their fathers.

THE COLORED VOTER.

Sound Advice From a Colored Politician of Baltimore.

The local republican campaign of incendiarism and misrepresentation has commenced in earnest. A prominent nominee on the republican ticket in Kent is reported as having made a speech to colored voters last week which appealed to their prejudices and inflamed them against the great masses of the people from whom they secure the means of a livelihood. They were told that Democratic success endangered their public schools, and were assured that the republican principle was that colored children were and should be treated as the equals of white children in the matter of public education. The question of race prejudice has simply been raised to keep the colored voter in line in order that political plums may be raked from the fire.

That the colored people believe this campaign buncombe is shown by an incident which occurred several days after this speech was made. A colored woman living in the country, whose daughter had a good home in Chestertown, came in and took her home. She gave as a reason that if the democrats won the colored schools would all be closed and she wanted her daughter to get what education she could before November.

The same old stereotyped promises are being made to catch votes before the election only to be broken just so soon as the election has passed. A fact which the colored people in Kent should bear in mind is that ninety-five per cent. of all the funds raised to support their public schools is paid by Democratic tax-payers. They should not forget that ninety-five per cent. of the wages paid to colored labor in the county comes from the pockets of Democratic employers. They should remember that ninety five per cent. of the charity dispensed to needy colored people during seasons of distress is supplied by the charity sentiment in democratic homes. The man or men who, in a community such as this, wilfully and deliberately, for the purpose of catching votes inflame the colored people against their white neighbors is morally, and were it possible, should be held legally guilty of a crime against the peace and good order of the community at large. He is certainly no friend to the colored people.

Dr. J. Marcus Cargill, a former city councilman in Baltimore, gave excellent advice to his people last week in a speech delivered at a public meeting. Dr. Cargill is a colored man, elected to the city council of Baltimore city from a colored ward and by colored votes. A man of education and experience, his words are worthy the most serious consideration of the colored people, not only of Maryland and Kent county, but throughout the country at large.

In speaking of the colored vote he said its division was the "political salvation of the negro."

"When the negro comes to understand," he continued, "that he should take advantage of his environments and make to himself friends of his white neighbors, with whom he has to live, he will be protected in his political rights. If the white man finds that the negro is reliable and trustworthy, voting with the people whose interest is the same, choosing only the best man for office, he will be respected at the ballot box and his will as expressed assured.

"I would advise every negro voter of the South that when it comes to State, municipal, or county affairs, he should vote for the best man without regard to politics. I cannot see any reason why all colored men should belong to one party any more than all white men should belong to one party. Let the negro find out his best friend, who gives him his bread and butter, and vote with him to the best interest of all concerned and the white man will see that it is to his interest to treat him as a citizen and protect him in his rights.

"I do not believe that the white man of the South is naturally unfriendly to the colored man. On the contrary, if the two races are left alone they will find grounds of true friendship and the two races will work together in the rebuilding of the material interests of the country.

"It is very nearly agreed by every true leader of the negro race that the time has come when the negro should divide his vote between the two great political parties, especially so on all local questions, thereby showing that a few dollars cannot buy his vote; neither can he be turned aside by a few papers which are existing on the money they receive from politicians. If politicians would keep their money in their pockets and take the negro on his merits the negro would be a better citizen and more respected."

LOWNDES AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

"In 1892 the power of appointment of the School Boards was taken from the judges of the various judicial circuits and placed in the hands of the Governor for the purpose of converting the boards into party agencies, so that when I assumed office, in but two counties did they bear any semblance of republican representation.

"While there has been no law enacted to exclude politics from the management of the schools, the matter has been largely met by me by giving minority representation on all boards, and to this policy I propose to adhere."

The above is an extract from the recent letter of acceptance of Governor Lloyd Lowndes. In this statement, or rather misstatement, the chief executive of a proud commonwealth discredited his State and impeached his own honesty.

The above is not only a misrepresentation, but the most regrettable feature is that the governor of the State has seen fit to officially insult the intelligence of the people by the utterance of a statement so easily proven to be false.

"To point a moral and adorn a tale," it is necessary only to cite the situation in Kent county when the present Governor was inducted into office in 1895. The school board at that time consisted of three democrats: Messrs. Cornelius J. Scott, Richard Jones and George W. Davis. Mr. Davis died in February, and his successor, Mr. Joseph W. Harper, one of the most aggressive republicans in the county, was appointed by Governor Lowndes. The term of office of Mr. Scott expired in 1896, and he was succeeded by Mr. Cornelius C. Brown, another uncompromising republican. In 1898 Mr. Jones resigned, and Governor Lowndes, who now holds himself up as the embodiment of equity and non-partisanship, appointed as his successor Mr. Jas. W. Chapman, a gentleman whose devotion to the republican party had never been and never could have been reasonably questioned. In due course of time the official term of Eben F. Perkins, Esq., examiner of the public schools expired. Mr. Perkins' peculiar adaptability for the office which he had so long and faithfully filled was a matter of comment throughout the State, yet Maryland's non-partisan Governor's appointees appointed in his place a gentleman whose chiefest claim to the high office to which he was raised was the unquestioned soundness of his republicanism. And yet, Governor Lloyd Lowndes has the effrontery to declare that he has given "minority representation on all boards, and to this policy" he proposes to adhere.

Let all counties in which Governor Lowndes has appointed democrats on school boards report. It would be interesting to hear from them.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Mt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

MISS MARY ZIEGLER,

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay county, West Virginia, struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequaled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown.

Order of Publication.

William E. Grinnage, S. G. Elbert, James Saunders, vs.
Elvin Saunders, Marshall Caulk, Cora Caulk, Charles Hackett, Florence Hackett, Phenia Saunders.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in equity

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county, of which Mark A. Saunders, late of Kent county, died, seized and possessed.

The bill states, that Mark A. Saunders, late of Kent county, Maryland, was, in his lifetime, indebted unto S. G. Elbert in the sum of $9.00 and to William E. Grinnage in the sum of $38.00 and unto James Saunders in the sum of $96.00; and the bill further states that the said Mark A Saunders being so indebted, departed this life in the year 1896, intestate, possessed in fee simple of a tract of land of considerable value, situated in the first election district of Kent county, but possessing no personal estate, and leaving a widow, Phenia Saunders, and the following children surviving as his heirs-at-law, to wit: James Saunders, who resides in Wilmington, in the State of Delaware; Elvin Saunders, who resides in Delaware county, in the State of Pennsylvania: Cora Saunders, who married Marshall Caulk, and resides with him in Kent county, Maryland; Florence Saunders, who married Charles Hackett, who lives with him and her mother, Phenia Saunders, in Caroline county, in the State of Maryland; all are over twenty-one years of age.

The bill further states that in order to pay the claims of S. G. Elbert, Wm. E. Grinnage and James Saunders, it is necessary for the real estate of the said Mark A. Saunders to be sold, so that the aforesaid claims may be paid.

To the end, therefore, that the real estate mentioned aforesaid, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose, may be sold for the payment of his debts; that the plaintiffs may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

It is thereupon, this 30th day of Sept., 1899, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a court of equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county once a week for four successive weeks before the 4th day of November next, give notice to the said absent defendant, Elvin Saunders, of the State of Pennsylvania, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning him to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 24th day of February next, to show cause, if any he may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Petition for Resale.

Wm. J. Coleman, et al.,
vs.
Sophia Jones, James Jones.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

THE PETITION of Richard T. Turner, Jr., trustee, appointed by the decree in this cause, to sell the property in the proceedings mentioned, respectfully shows

1st, That in execution of the authority vested in him by said decree, he did on the 11th day of December, in the year 1897, sell said property unto a certain Ulysses G. Pearceson, of Delaware county, in the State of Pennsylvania, at and for the sum of one hundred and seventy-nine dollars, one-third of same being paid cash and the balance to be paid in two equal installments in one and two years respectively from the day of sale.

2nd, That said sale has been duly reported to and ratified by this Court, as by the said report and the proceedings thereon, now remaining in this court, will appear.

3rd, That the said Ulysses G. Pearceson has paid no part of the credit payment of the aforesaid purchase money, although he has been duly notified of the ratification of the sale, so made to him as aforesaid and has been required by your petitioner to pay for the same.

Your petitioner, therefore, prays:

1st, That the said Ulysses G. Pearceson may be compelled by decree or order of this court, to pay the said balance of purchase money, with interest thereon, and in default thereof, that the said property may be decreed to be sold at the risk of the said Ulysses G. Pearceson for the payment of the same.

2nd, For such other and further relief as his case may require.

And as in duty, etc.,
WM. M. SLAY,
Solicitor for Petitioner.

STATE OF MARYLAND, KENT COUNTY, TO WIT:

I hereby certify that on this fifth day of September, 1899, before me the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for the said county, personally appeared the above named Richard T. Turner, Jr., and made affirmation in due form of law that the matter and facts set forth in the aforegoing petition, are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

BEN. N. S. WILKINS, J. P.

On the aforegoing petition it is ordered this 0th day of September, 1899, by the Circuit Court for Kent County, that the said Ulysses G.
