Democratic MASS MEETING

The Democratic State Central Committee of the State has designated

Tuesday, October 24th, 1899, instant, as the day when the Democratic candidates upon the State ticket, and other distinguished Democrats will be to meet their fellow-citizens and especially the Democratic voters of Kent county, and address them upon the important political issues involved in the November election:

IN CHESTERTOWN

HON. JOHN WALTER SMITH,
Candidate for Governor;

HON. JOSHUA W. HERING,
Candidate for Comptroller;

HON. ISIDOR RAYNER,
Candidate for Attorney General;

W. J. OGDON, Esq.,
one of the most effective orators of the State,

HON. JOHN P. POE,
HON. WM. M. McKAIG,

and other prominent Democratic orators will be present and address the meeting, which will be organized promptly at 2 o'clock P. M.

☞ Prof. Thomas McNulty, Maryland's campaign songster, will certainly be present.

☞ TWO FULL BANDS OF MUSIC!

The Galena Band and the Rock Hall Band will be present.

☞ Every voter interested in the good government of State and county is invited to be present.

By order
State Central Committee for Kent Co.

A RATHER STRIKING INCIDENT occurred in Chestertown on a certain Wednesday morning recently. A worthless cur belonging to several well-known parties, dashed out of an alley on High street, snapping and howling. All of the surroundings were quiet and serene, and some one who saw the churlish, limping brute, wanted to know what could be the matter. A colored boy standing near gave the answer: "Well, sir, I don' know, but somebody must a struck dat dog, fur dogs, nur newspapers, nuther, don snap and howl in dat way less some body is chunkin' 'em purty furus like. Dat dog's ben struck an' struck hard. A stone's ben chucked up dat alley by some body."

QUEEN ANNE REPUBLICANS completed their ticket on Tuesday. For House of Delegates, Thomas J. Melvin was nominated to fill the vacancy caused by the declination of W. W. Bryan, Sr., who is an election official and is barred by law. Mr. Charles E. S. Ringgold, of Kent Island, and Mr. J. Emory Smith, of Crumpton, were nominated for judges of the Orphans' Court, in place of Charles H. J. Sparks and James E. Cockey, declined. William B. Reed, Sr., the republican nominee for the State Senate, is president of the Board of Election Supervisors, and will tender his resignation as a supervisor to Governor Lowndes at once, in order that he may be elligible as a candidate on the county ticket. The Republican State Central Committee will send to Governor Lowndes the following names for supervisor: Thomas A. Mallalieu, William E. Lypch, J. E. Walters, Jr., and Samuel Simpson. It is probable that Governor Lowndes will appoint Thos. A. Mallalieu as Mr. Reed's successor. These nominations by the republicans complete the ticket.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN ORATORY.

The statement made in the TRANSCRIPT last week relative to misrepresentations made to the colored people by Kent county republican orators, has created widespread comment. Ashamed of their disreputable work, as a matter of course, the responsible parties are repudiating their work and declare that the report was purely for campaign purposes. For their further information it may be stated that the colored girl who was taken home in order that she might be educated before the democrats win in November, after which time republican orators declare that the public schools will be closed, lived with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hicks, Washington avenue, Chestertown, and the statement was made to Mrs. Hicks.

It is little wonder that republican orators should blush at the spurious friendship which they are dealing out in school houses and churches to this element of their tottering political organization. It is to their credit that this much of shame remains.

KEEP UP THE WORK.

The records of the democratic registration throughout the county are sources of much satisfaction to the democrats of Kent. Every school district was pretty thoroughly worked, and as a result a large percentage of reliably democratic voters were placed on the registration books

The registration, however, does not finally settle the matter of political supremacy in Kent after November the seventh. There must be no cessation of the splendid work already begun. The great duty now devolving upon the democracy is to see that every democrat deposits his ballot on the 7th of November. With the same degree of energy already shown in getting the voters to the polls, there can be no question as to the result. Every worker, therefore, should place and keep his shoulder to the political wheel. Those democrats who have been tempted to entertain for a moment the seductive smiles and misrepresentations of republican politicians in wooing them to abandon and forget old political associations and traditions, should consider well what such a step would mean. It would mean to cast their fortunes or rather misfortunes, with a party which out of a total republican vote of 2203 in 1897, deducting the negro registration of that year has a white membership of less than 400. It would mean to affiliate with a party which pays but about five per cent. of the taxes of the county. It would mean to assist in the perpetuation of conditions against the best interests of the whole people.

Young men, the future is all before you—start right, whatever the future may have in store. Work for the old party and its ticket, and victory will reward your efforts.

THE COLORED VOTER.

Dr. J. Marcus Cargill, the colored excity councilman, of Baltimore, continues to warn the colored people of Maryland against colored wolves in sheep's clothing. An independent colored voters' club has been formed in Baltimore, and a general meeting of independent colored voters will be held to-morrow night. Three colored clubs of this kind have already been formed. Dr. Cargill had this to say on Tuesday:

"The colored voter has been, and is now, being led by sentiment, as well as by a few so-called leaders, who have no interest in him beyond the few dollars they may get. The independence among the colored men is becoming more and more apparent. I believe there are in Baltimore city to-day 10,000 independent voters, and that they will not be driven by they party lash, but will remember that the negro will never be respected in the body politic so long as he sticks to one party. Let the negro be manly and stand up for what is right.

"If a few dollars is to sacrifice the colored voters of Maryland, what, under Heavens, will be the future of our race? We are citizens under the law and Constitution of the State, and of the United States, and there can be no laws passed which will abridge the rights of the people or any class of them. Why should we fear, since good men conduct the affairs of our government? Let us take white men as we find them, Democrats or Republicans, and if they are friendly to us let us be friendly to them. If it is to our advantage to be independent in politics, let us have sense enough to see it. The day of slavery is over and the young colored man will not be influenced by what occurred 30 years ago.

"The politicians have taken advantage of the ignorance of the negro, and have endeavored to prevent him from seeking the confidence of his white friends without regard to party. Let the negro divide his vote this fall, which I know he will do, and no matter who is elected Governor, he will have some respect for the negro. By all means let the colored citizens of this State give up the past, and make the white man his friend for the future."

COLUMBIA WON.

Still the Great International Yacht Race is Not Decided.

The great yacht race between the Columbia, the American representative, and the Shamrock, the English champion in the great international contest, remains undecided. For two weeks the interest of the entire country has centered upon the great contest. Both boats had champions in Chestertown, and as a result many bets ranging from ten dollars, a $3-hat on down the scale to twenty-five cents were placed.

MONDAY'S RACE.

After two weeks spent in waiting for a breeze, the first contest of the series was sailed on Monday. At 2 o'clock the TRANSCRIPT's bulletins commenced to come in, and at once public interest was aroused, and during the entire afternoon the TRANSCRIPT's bulletin board became headquarters for those interested in the great race. The merits and demerits of the boats were discussed.

OFFICIAL TIME.

| | Columbia. | Shamrock. |
|---|---|---|
| Start | 11.01.06 | 11.01.03 |
| Outer mark | 1.48 19 | 1.58.08 |
| Finish | 3.54.59 | 4.05.10 |
| Elapsed time | 4.53.53 | 5 04.07 |
| Corrected time | 4 53 53 | 5.04.01 |

Columbia wins by 10 minutes 8 seconds corrected time.

Barring a somewhat lumpy sea, it was as near Shamrock weather as they are likely to get, and the marked superiority of the American boat indicates that she will win the series easily. The wind was from the east, and varied from seven to ten miles an hour, but held its course.

About thirty-six minutes after Columbia had won the race the time limit of five and a half hours expired.

The most surprising feature of the day's race was Columbia's splendid behavior in windward work. She outpointed Shamrock from the very start and beat her by nine minutes and fifty-two seconds to the outer mark, proving that her previous relatively bad showing in the trials must have been due to the very bad conditions of the Herreshoff sails and the extremely light wind.

The followers of the American sloop are now positive that Columbia can beat Shamrock in any point of sailing when the wind blows 10 knots an hour.

It is also believed that a stronger wind will still be in Columbia's favor, and that only in breezes less than seven knots can Shamrock hope to win a race, and even then the sea must be very smooth.

The coarser lines of the challenger carry along with her a great wave, where Columbia's more delicate model slips through, hardly leaving a ripple. The run home before the wind was also in Columbia's favor, since she made the trip in 22 seconds less than did Shamrock, in spite of the fact that the green boat had the benefit of a growing wind for the last two miles of her journey.

SUMMARY OF THE SECOND RACE.

|---|---|
| Starting time of Columbia | 11.00.17 |
| Starting time of Shamrock | 11.00.15 |
| Time Columbia turned first mark | 12.39.28 |
| Time Columbis turned second mark | 1.33.27 |
| Time Columbia finished | 2 37.17 |
| Elapsed time Columbia | 3.37.00 |
| Number of miles sailed by Columbia | 39½ |
| Number of tacks taken by Columbia | 8 |
| Number of times Columbia blanketed Shamrock | 0 |
| Number of times Shamrock blanketed Columbia | 1 |
| Shamrock's greatest lead over Columbia | 50 yds. |
| Distance sailed by Shamrock when accident occurred | 1½ miles |

The topmast of the cup challenger Shamrock broke 25 minutes after the big single-sticker had crossed the starting line of the international race and her enormous clubtopsail, with its 3,000 feet of canvas, came rattling down on the deck, leaving her a hopeless cripple.

No amount of pluck or courage could face such a catastrophe and Captain Hogarth immediately abondoned the race, his boat being towed back to the anchorage after his men had cleared away the wreckage.

The Columbia continued over the course alone, putting to her credit the second of the races for the America's cup.

Later in the afternoon the Shamrock was towed to the Erie Basin, in the upper bay. A new topmast was yesterday sent up and the boat will be remeasured. She was taken out for a spin yesterday to try her new stick, and the third race of the series will be sailed today.

This race, like the first one, will be over a windward and leeward course, and if the Columbia wins, the series will have been completed without giving the Shamrock an opportunity to test her merits in her favorite point of sailing—over a triangular course.

Col. W. J. Vannort and Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., saw the race as represented on the Baltimore Sun's bulletins, and became so much interested that they missed the steamer for home.

Mr. Thomas D. France has seen the Shamrock do some of her finest work. Mr. France says that he has seen the English boat spin off seventeen knots an hour. She ran away from the steamer on which he was an officer, with no trouble at all.

FROM ROCK HALL.

Gist of the News from the Bay Shore.

Since writing last week Mr. Wood, of Eastern Neck Island has been very unfortunate. On Wednesday evening he fell from a tree and the shock and injury to his back have necessitated his remaining in bed since, but we are glad to learn that he is recovering and hopes are entertained that he will soon be out again.

Several minor accidents have occurred. On Friday morning J. Wilmont Crosby fell from a horse and dislocated his left elbow.

On Saturday evening Mr. Wm. Burgess' horse became frightened in Rock Hall and ran into a fence throwing Mr. Burgess from the dearborn, hurting an arm and bruising his head.

The festival given by the Mechanics on Saturday evening was a success if the number of attendants constitute a success, but since your representative was present there is no need to enter into details.

Some of the pleasure seekers from a distance remained with friends and spent Sunday in our churches and visited old acquaintances. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. Noland, of Tolchester, and Messrs. Crouch, Twilley and Rollison, of Chestertown.

Rock Hall M. E. Church is in financial arrears, and Rev. Mr. Guthrie is urging his people to remember their obligations and try to sustain their former reputation for straight-forward business methods.

Next Sunday evening the church will be opened that an address on Gospel Temperance may be delivered by Chief Justice Clark. It is expected that his remarks will be very interesting, and all are invited to make a special effort to hear them.

On Sunday afternoon the little son of Dr. and Mrs. Selby was christened Owens Strong, by Rev. C. T. Denroche, in lovely old St. Paul. The beautiful ceremony, which took place before the regular sermon, was witnessed by a large audience. Mrs. Selby's sister, Miss Edna Strong, and brothers, Messrs. Page and Elwood Strong, became godmother and godfathers for the little one.

Miss Lula Strong has accepted a position with Armstrong, Cator & Co., of Baltimore.

Mr. Wm. R. Glenn and family have removed to Baltimore and expect to be merchants in the future. Mr. David Elburn will occupy Mr. Glenn's house and farm in Piney Neck.

Mr. James E. Blackiston still makes daily visits to Baltimore in quest of health and so obtained permission from Judge Pearce to absent himself from duty in the jury room. We are glad to note Mr. Blackiston's improved appearance.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay county, West Virginia, struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequaled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown.

FOR SALE.

HAVING removed from Kent county I desire to dispose of my real estate, consisting of TWO DWELLING HOUSES, lots and stables in the village of Kennedyville, which is in the most fertile and prosperous section of the county, on the Baltimore and Delaware Bay Railroad.

Lot No. 1 consists of the dwelling, a brick house, having 16 rooms, 2 cellars, and is in thorough repair, on Main street. This dwelling can, at small expense, be readily converted into two separate houses. The improvements consist of a fine comparatively new stable, corn house, chicken house and other necessary outbuildings. A quarter of an acre of land, more or less, in grass lot and garden. Terms, $1,500; five hundred dollars cash, and the balance in one, two and three years, or to a desirable purchaser terms can be made easier.

Lot No. 2 consists of a two-story dwelling of five rooms, nearly opposite the Presbyterian church. The improvements are necessary outbuildings and ample garden. Terms, $400; one hundred dollars cash, and the balance in one, two and three years, or the terms might be modified if desirable. For further particulars apply to

Order of Publication.

William E. Grinnage, S. G. Elbert, James Saunders, vs.
Elvin Saunders, Marshall Caulk, Cora Caulk, Charles Hackett, Florence Hackett, Phenia Saunders.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in equity

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county, of which Mark A. Saunders, late of Kent county, died, seized and possessed.

The bill states, that Mark A. Saunders, late of Kent county, Maryland, was, in his lifetime, indebted unto S. G. Elbert in the sum of $9.00 and to William E. Grinnage in the sum of $38.00 and unto James Saunders in the sum of $96.00; and the bill further states that the said Mark A Saunders being so indebted, departed this life in the year 1896, intestate, possessed in fee simple of a tract of land of considerable value, situated in the first election district of Kent county, but possessing no personal estate, and leaving a widow, Phenia Saunders, and the following children surviving as his heirs-at-law, to wit: James Saunders, who resides in Wilmington, in the State of Delaware; Elvin Saunders, who resides in Delaware county, in the State of Pennsylvania; Cora Saunders, who married Marshall Caulk, and resides with him in Kent county, Maryland; Florence Saunders, who married Charles Hackett, who lives with him and her mother, Phenia Saunders, in Caroline county, in the State of Maryland; all are over twenty-one years of age.

The bill further states that in order to pay the claims of S. G. Elbert, Wm. E. Grinnage and James Saunders, it is necessary for the real estate of the said Mark A. Saunders to be sold, so that the aforesaid claims may be paid.

To the end, therefore, that the real estate mentioned aforesaid, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose, may be sold for the payment of his debts; that the plaintiffs may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

It is thereupon, this 30th day of Sept., 1899, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a court of equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in said Kent county once a week for four successive weeks before the 4th day of November next, give notice to the said absent defendant, Elvin Saunders, of the State of Pennsylvania, of the object and substance of this bill, and warning him to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 24th day of February next, to show cause, if any he may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

CARPETS AGAIN.

Extra Value 59c.

We are again offering big bargains in the way of a beautiful line of "All Wool" Extra Super Ingrain Carpet for only 59c.

These Carpets are selling in City at 70c, and a number of our customers have returned from their visit in the City to purchase our Carpets at 59c, same exactly as they saw for 70c.

The only explanation is our "Correct System," selling on close Cash margin, and not having the high rents to pay.

We keep full line carpets 24c up.

Extra good Floor Oil Cloth, only 19c, 22½c.

ORDER NISI.

Sarah C. Dudley, Samuel T. Dudley,
vs.
Charles Primrose, et al.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity.

No. 1287.

ORDERED, this 6th day of October, 1899, by the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity, that the sale of the real estate of Rhoda Primrose, colored, deceased, made and reported by Hope H. Barroll, trustee, appointed under a decree of this court to make said sale, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 13th day of December next; provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent County, once in each of three successive weeks before the 13th day of November next.

The report states the amount of sales to be $150.00.

Petition for Resale.

Wm. J. Coleman, et al.,
vs.
Sophia Jones, James Jones.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

THE PETITION of Richard T. Turner, Jr., trustee, appointed by the decree in this cause, to sell the property in the proceedings mentioned, respectfully shows

1st, That in execution of the authority vested in him by said decree, he did on the 11th day of December, in the year 1897, sell said property unto a certain Ulysses G. Pearceson, of Delaware county, in the State of Pennsylvania, at and for the sum of one hundred and seventy-nine dollars, one-third of same being paid cash and the balance to be paid in two equal installments in one and two years respectively from the day of sale.

2nd, That said sale has been duly reported to and ratified by this Court, as by the said report and the proceedings thereon, now remaining in this court, will appear.

3rd, That the said Ulysses G. Pearceson has paid no part of the credit payment of the aforesaid purchase money, although he has been duly notified of the ratification of the sale, so made to him as aforesaid and has been required by your petitioner to pay for the same.

Your petitioner, therefore, prays:

1st, That the said Ulysses G. Pearceson may be compelled by decree or order of this court, to pay the said balance of purchase money, with interest thereon, and in default thereof, that the said property may be decreed to be sold at the risk of the said Ulysses G. Pearceson for the payment of the same.

2nd, For such other and further relief as his case may require.

And as in duty, etc.,
WM. M. SLAY,
Solicitor for Petitioner.

STATE OF MARYLAND, KENT COUNTY, TO WIT:

I hereby certify that on this fifth day of September, 1899, before me the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for the said county, personally appeared the above named Richard T. Turner, Jr., and made affirmation in due form of law that the matter and facts set forth in the aforegoing petition, are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

BEN. N. S. WILKINS, J. P.

On the aforegoing petition it is ordered this 6th day of September, 1899, by the Circuit Court for Kent County, that the said Ulysses G. Pearceson bring into this Court the sum of one hundred and nineteen dollars, with interest thereon from the eleventh day of December in the year 1897, or show good cause to the contrary, on or before the 3rd day of February next;—Provided, a copy of this order, together with a copy of the aforegoing petition, be published in some newspaper printed in Kent county, once a week for four successive weeks, before the 3rd day of December next.

JAMES A. PEARCE.

Hotel Announcement.

[THE HUSTLING YOUNG PROPRIETOR OF THE ARMSTRONG HOUSE.]

I WISH to inform the public that I have rented the recently remodeled and handsomely equipped Chestertown hotel, known as the Armstrong House, formerly conducted by Messrs. Armstrong and Sparks, on East Cross street. The entire house is heated by steam; closets and other conveniences in the building. The rooms are all prettily papered and nicely furnished. The table will be furnished with the best the market affords with especial attention to preparation and service, so that the traveling public need not fear that the splendid standard set by the former proprietors of the house will not be kept up. The entire management will be under the immediate supervision of myself and wife. A pool-table will be conducted in a spacious parlor, and I will also have a raw box in order that the traveling public may at any and all times secure the world-renowned Chesapeake oyster served in the most approved style. In short, the Hotel will be one of the most up-to-date houses on the peninsula and will be conducted with an eye single to the comfort and convenience of my guests and the traveling public.

Soliciting a continuance of the liberal patronage heretofore accorded to the old proprietors, I am very truly,
