of four thousand Dollars with interest from the first day of June eighteen hundred and thirty four — And that your Orator hath frequently applied to the said J.R. Magruder and requested him to pay the same or to release his equity of redemption of and in the said mortgaged premises and your Orator well hoped that such his just and reasonable ~~request~~ requests would have been complied with as in justice and equity they ought to have been. But now so it is May it please your Honor that the said J.R. Magruder combining with Persons to your Orator unknown and contriving how to injure your Orator in the premises refuses so to do, although your Orator charges that there is still due your Orator the sum of four thousand Dollars with interest from the first day of June eighteen hundred and thirty four and that for securing the repayment thereof with interest the said J.R. Magruder duly made & executed to your Orator such indenture as is therein before mentioned and that the whole of the said sum of four thousand Dollars together with interest from the first day of June eighteen hundred and thirty four is now justly due and owing to your Orator on the security aforesaid. and your Orator charges that the said J.R. Magruder ought either to pay what is due to your Orator as aforesaid or to release his equity of redemption in the said premises but he refuses so to do.
All which actings and doings are contrary