Hannett Ann Watkins
v
William Watkins

Circuit Court
Ann Arundel County
In Equity

Oct Term 1857

The Petition of William Watkins of said County. Defendant in the above cause respectfully prays your Honors to fix the penalty of the Appeal Bond to be filed by your Petitioner his appeal in this Cause to the Court of Appeals which by his Solicitor he has ordered.

He further states that he does not believe the personal property involved in this Cause to exceed in value the sum of four hundred and fifty dollars Exclusive of the Negro which he agrees may be in the possession of the said complainant until the decision is finally made — and that the rents of the real Estate of which the said Complainant is entitled as widow in right of her dower does not Exceed in value about one hundred and fifty dollars per annum — and for such other relief as his Cause requires shall be.

William Watkins

C. Randall Solr of Petition