LOCAL MATTERS.

Queen Anne Court.—The November term of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne convened on Monday with his honor Judge James A. Pearce, on the bench. The jury was drawn and Dr. R M. Price designated as foreman. After some routine business court adjourned over until this morning.

Died in the Woods.—A colored man in the third district died under peculiar circumstances on Tuesday. He had gone into the woods in apparent good health but failing to appear within a reasonable time a search was instituted and the man was found dead in the wood.

Foot-ball at the College.—Washington College has foot-ball games arranged for the next three consecutive Saturdays. On the 11th, Jacob Tome Institute comes here; on the 18th, College of Physicians and Surgeons, and on the 25th, the Maryland Agricultural College. These all give promise of good contests.

A Novel Trip—Mr. J. W. Sparks will set sail from Leary's wharf, near Rock Hall, to-morrow or on Saturday, on a novel voyage. Mr. Sparks has moved a small dwelling house, 8 by 20 feet, on board a large scow, and with flags flying will sail to Chestertown. Of course it will depend largely upon the wind as to the length of time required for this novel trip.

Won the Prize Cake.—In spite of the disagreeable night the Cake Walk at Dewey Park last week was a success. The Prize, a handsome cake, was won by Messrs, Harry Downey and Ernest Solway, of Middletown. The contest was interesting and spirited. A fifty-pound cake will be the prize to be contested for at the dance to be held at the Park about the Middle of this month.

Trap-Shooting at Betterton.—The Betterton Handicap Gunning Club, of Baltimore, had live bird shooting at Betterton. Each man shot at 25 live birds with the following results: W. Neall killed 20. Dr. Hessey, 20; John Neall, 19; D. A. Neall, 18, L. Kistner, 17; B. Mengel, 15. The club has been at Betterton for several days hunting and fishing. After shooting the trap-match they had a pig roast.

A Kent County Pacer.—Trainer W B. Biggs has returned to Middletown with Free Silver, the now noted pacing horse belonging to Treasurer C. S. Hurlock, of Massey's, this county. Mr. Biggs had five or six horses in his string of racers during the season, but the stable of Free Silver, has been the chief centre of interest at his stable in Middletown. The season just closed was Free Silver's first appearance before the public. Out of ten races, he succeeded in capturing 8 first moneys, got 2d money once, and purse once. He succeeded in getting his record down to 2.18 but Mr. Biggs, it is stated is expecting to reduce it to 2.08 next season.

A Serious Wreck—A serious wreck occurred on the B. & D. B. R. R. about a mile and a half above Delaney's Station on Monday morning. The morning train consisted of an engine and six cars. Four of the cars, several of them loaded with canned goods, left the track and canned goods and other freight were scattered in every direction. The engine and several cars kept the track. Conductor Welch received a painful cut of the hand the result of smashing it through a car window. The cause of the wreck is supposed to have been a broken rail. The engine and other cars proceeded to Clayton and the work of removing the wreckage was soon under way. It should be said to the credit of Conductor Welch and the management of the road, that the mails were but twenty minutes late in spite of this accident.

Mr. Ascher's Curios.—Mr. Marcus Ascher, the "wool and fur king" of Kent, was the guest for several days last week of Mr. R. A. G. Wacker, who, though a young man, is a veteran of two wars having served with distinction in both Cuba and the Philippines. Of eight of the party who went out with Mr. Wacker but three came back alive. After the campaign in Cuba he was sent to the Philippines and was in the battles a Ilio and Jero, and spoke most flatteringly of Lieut. Morris K. Barroll. Mr. Wacker gave to Mr. Ascher a number of photographs of Philippine belles, students and prominent personages. Among the lot of curios were a lens shot from a spy-glass in the hands of a Philippine sharp-shooter, and a button which Mr. Wacker shot from the coat of one of Aguinaldo's officers. Mr. Ascher has a very interesting lot of war relics.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Bits of News and Gossip Gathered Here, There and Everywhere.

† There was an abundance of ice on Saturday morning.

† The game crop is the shortest for years. Partridges and rabbits are both scarce.

† Mr. Crow, father of Mrs. John Bell, is desperately ill at Mr. Bell's home, aged 95 years.

† The big storms have greatly damaged the beauty of the chrysanthemums.

† The storms of last week drove the price of Cliff City oysters up to seventy cents per bushel.

† Mr. William Burgess, of the fifth district, has a Keiffer pear which weighs twenty-five ounces, down weight.

† Measurements have been taken and it is now proposed to supply Washington College with ample bathrooms possessing the latest conveniences.

† Report has it that work on the branch railroad from Queenstown to Centreville will begin this or next week. The road is to be completed by January the first.

CHURCH NOTES.

CHURCH DAY.

Sunday last was observed in Chestertown as Church Day, and the attendance at all of the churches was satisfactorily large. Rev. J. D. C. Hanna preached an eloquent sermon to a large congregation, from Deuteronomy, thirty-second chapter, eleventh and twelfth verses: "As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings; so the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no stranger got with him."

Mr. Sutton, a student of Washington College, in the absence, because of illness of Dr. S. C. Roberts, conducted the services at Immanuel P. E. Church.

Rev. T. E Pattison, of Emmanuel church, Baltimore, will preach in Emmanuel P.E Church, on Sunday morning and evening next.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. P. Church, Kennedyville, will hold a cob-arch social at the home of Mr. Thomas [illegible] on Friday evening, Nov. 10th [illegible] cordial invitation is being put forth to make [illegible] of delight and pleasure [illegible] cordial invitation.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Mrs. Sadtler, of Edesville, returned from Baltimore on Saturday, where she had been to see her son set sail for South America, on Thursday last.

Miss Beulah Hayes was present at a delightful reception given by her friend, Miss Solomon, of Riverton, New Jersey, last week. Miss Hayes witnessed the great football contest between Harvard University and University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, on Saturday.

Hope H. Barroll, Esq., and his son, Wethered, went to Baltimore last week to see Jefferson in his most noted role, Rip Van Winkle.

Mr. George B. Twilley spent Sunday and Monday visiting friends in Kenton, Delaware.

Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Sunfield, who had gone to visit New Jersey friends, were forced to return on Saturday because of the illness of their daughter, Miss Addie, who was stricken down with typhoid fever two days after the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Sunfield from their home. The patient, while quite sick, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. Turbert Greenwood, a graduate from the composing room of the TRANSCRIPT, has accepted a position at Lewes, Delaware. Mr. Greenwood will have entire control of a job printing establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Hubbard left yesterday morning for a week's visit to Philadelphia friends.

Messrs. A. H. Tracy and Thomas W. Perkins witnessed the great game of football on Saturday between Harvard and Pennsylvania. Harvard won with a score of 16 to 1.

Mr. James Dooley, of Baltimore, is the guest of his grandfather, Mr. J.D.Carter, at Cliff City.

OBITUARY.

JOHN M'WHORTER.

As stated in the TRANSCRIPT last week, Mr. John McWhorter, a highly respected citizen of Millington, died at his home in that town on Monday. Mr. McWhorter would have been 64 years of age next month. He had always been noted for his excellent health, but about four months ago he was seized with a dropsical affection which culminated in death.

He was a son of Jefferson and Sarah McWhorter, who came to Kent from Delaware when young McWhorter was about twelve years of age.

A wife, a Miss Martha Rolph, of Queen Anne, before marriage, and two children, Mrs. Larry Reese, of Queen Anne, and Mrs. Jeter, of Sassafras, survive him.

The funeral took place at Blackiston's Church, Delaware, on Wednesday, Rev. A. Ware, of Massey, officiating.

JOHN E. COLE.

John E. Cole, an old and respected citizen of Centreville, died at the residence of his son-in law, Robert M. Hopkins, in Centreville, last Saturday evening. Mr. Cole had been in bad health for several years, and was stricken with paralysis on Friday morning, which was the second stroke, from which he never rallied. Mr. Cole was in his 68th year, and had spent most of his life in Queen Anne. He leaves a widow, one son—Walter Cole, of Baltimore, and two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Woodford and Mrs. Robert M. Hopkins, of Centreville.

Mr. Cole was sometimes a visitor to Kent and was well known.

MRS JAMES PATTEN.

Mrs. James Patten died at her home in Philadelphia on Sunday night, aged 64 years. Mrs. Patten suffered from an attack of Grip last winter from which she never entirely recovered. She leaves six children. Mrs. William Morris, Mrs. H. M. Stuart and Mrs. Wm. Walraven, are all sisters of the deceased. The remains were brought to Chestertown yesterday and interred in Chester cemetery, Rev. J. M. Gill, conducting the services. The bearers were: Messrs. Walter T., John E., Wilbur H. and James E. Morris, nephews of the deceased, and Samuel Vannort and James W. Lambert. Funeral director John N. Dodd, had the funeral in charge.

PRETTY FALL WEDDING

HOWARD—DUER.

One of the prettiest home weddings ever solemized in Pocomoke City took place at the home of Mrs Matilda Duer on Wednesday of last week. The contracting parties were Miss Stella Duer and Col. William P. Howard. The pretty parlors were transformed into a bower of beauty by banks of ferns, potted plants and fall blossoms, while gorgeously tinted autumn leaves gave color to the scene. A graceful marriage bell formed of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves was suspended by a white ribbon from the ceiling. Miss Emma Clements, of Ocean Grove, N. J., rendered the wedding march as the bridal couple entered the room, and taking position under the beautiful marriage bell were united in marriage by Rev. David L. Greenfield.

Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple held an informal reception, after which they took the afternoon train for a short northern trip. Col. Howard is widely known and extremely popular in Kent, and has been the recipient of many congratulations since his arrival in town several days ago. The couple received many useful and beautiful presents.

The TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations.

A MIDNIGHT MOB.

Democratic Colored Voters Terrorized.

Officers Cooper and Simpson, and deputy officers Capt. James T. Brice, Edward Robinson, Daniel Cox, Lawrence Duyer and constables Dill and Jewell, had an exciting chase after a mob of colored men about midnight on Tuesday. The men were shooting and creating general disorder, but the officers were called in to afford protection to Perry Barroll and Perry Ringgold, two aged colored men who were reported as having voted the democratic ticket at Tuesday's election.

The mob of about twent-five, armed with pistols, bricks and clubs proceeded to Barroll's house, burst open his door, but Barroll was not there. They then went to Ringgold's house and called for the occupants. Rebecca Ringgold responded to the call and announced that she and her husband were both democrats, whereupon she was struck with a brick. The house was bombarded with bats and the crowd then returned to Barroll's, stoned his house and swore that they would "kill the d— democrat negro." The officers succeeded in arresting and lodging in jail Joseph Berry, Clarence Sheppard, Thomas Taylor and a boy named Kane. The men afterward turned states evidence and gave a full account of the plot. They said that they went there to find the d—democrat negroes and if they found them to beat their d— heads off.

The whole matter was deliberately arranged, and the object was to punish the two men for having voted a democratic ticket. They gave the names of about twenty rough characters connected with the plot.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others, Why Not You?

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.—ADOLPH L. MILLETT, Manchester, N. H. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

FROM ROCK HALL.

The fine new hall building of the Knights of Pythias was commenced at Rock Hall on Monday of last week. The new building will be on the site of the hall destroyed by fire several months ago. Messrs. Judefind and Ayres are doing the work.

The pretty home of Mr. Lee Durding is nearing completion. Mr. and Mrs. Durding are to be congratulated upon the beauty of their new residence.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. held their annual celebration in Downey's Hall on Friday evening. The occasion was one of the most pleasant within the history of the Rock Hall order. Messrs. Wallace Wheat, Elwood Kendall, Thomas Kendall, Harry Webb, John Beaver and Charles Porter constituted the committee on entertainment, and how well the gentlemen performed their duties may be judged from the manner in which the programme was carried out. The table was truly "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." A profusion of chrysanthemums and other fall blossoms adorned the banquet board, while the delicacies of the season added to the comfort of the "inner man." Two gentlemen from Baltimore added much to the evening's entertainment by their singing and dancing. Messrs. Jack Urie and Lonnie Whaland were the stars of the evening in a delightful feature of song and dance. Rev. Mr. Guthrie, pastor of the Rock Hall M. E. Church, delivered an eloquent address, taking as his subject, "Virtue, Liberty and Patriotism." The reverend gentleman gave the members food for thought, and implanted noble aspirations and ambitions in the breasts of those who heard him. The evening's program closed with a pleasant dance, which was enjoyed by many of Rock Hall's lads and lasses. Delightful music was furnished by an orchestra composed of Mr. Charles Baker, bass viol; Prof. Eugene Willson, violin; John Ayres, autoharp, and Frank Ayres, cornet.

Miss Nettie Reynolds entertained a number of friends at her home on Hallowe'en.

There are several cases of scarlet fever in the village but it is not considered necessary to close the school on account of it. Prof. Greenwood did, however; deem it advisable for the safety of the children, to hold no session on election day.

Extracts from Judge James A. Clarke's address on "Temperance" in the Rock Hall M. E. Church, Oct 22nd:

Drunkenness is beyond all question the greatest curse of the day, destroying home, body and soul. It poisons the source of human happiness by introducing disorder in the heart, sets all our passions at liberty to range uncontrolled, overturns the peace and order of society and strews the path of life with every misery. It leads every day thousands to a premature death, it is the increasing cause of anger, hatred and revenge, puts man against his fellowman; engages them in quarrelling and fighting and not unfrequently ending in bloodshed and massacre. It is everything that is abominable; an alarming vortex swallowing all that is noble, generous and excellent in life, causing fathers so become fiends, wives widows and children orphans destroying the home. God's appointed treasury of sweet and pure love, wrings with anguish the heart of wife and mother, brings down with sorrow to the grave, the gray hairs of a loving father; casts out to lives of infamy and shame sons and daughters, causes the tear drop of sorrow to glisten on the eyelids of friends and relations of the drunkard. It is the evil of evils, and crime of crimes. "God's worst enemy, and the devil's best friend.

It engenders blindness of mind, inconstancy of love itself, hatred of God. Causes spiritual blindness, because its tendency is to set reason aside and take the animal instincts as guides.

After a few drinks the most abominable actions will appear less detestable, habit will be formed, obduracy will ensue, to it will succeed scandal, and perhaps unbridled licentiousness.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

The Yohn Chemical Co. Established Under Auspicious Circumstances.

The YOHN CHEMICAL COMPANY, recently organized in Baltimore by a number of prominent public officials and business men, has established itself at 229 North Howard street, where it is actively engaged in carrying out the purpose for which it was created, namely, the introduction of "YOHN,S RHEUMATIC ELIXIR." Before embarking upon this enterprise, the gentlemen who formed the company made a careful and thorough examination of the merits of the remedy which they propose to put before the people and satisfied themselves that it is superior to any other thus far discovered in its effects upon rheumatism, lumbago, gout and other troubles which come from the presence of waste material in the blood. First, from the opinions of eminent practitioners, they felt satisfied that such ailments cannot be cured by external applications, which at best can give but temporary relief. Next they carefully investigated a number of stubborn cases of rheumatism, lumbago and gout which had yielded to a course of treatment with Yohn's Rheumatic Elixir, and finally concluded that the remedy in question will do all that is claimed for it, and that it is today the only thoroughly reliable cure for the diseases mentioned. Having reached this conclusion, the Yohn Chemical Company, with a capital of $100,000 was formed. Included among the stockholders of this company are Messrs. Edson M Schryver, police commissioner; Clarence M. Forest, secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association; Marshal S. T. Hamilton; Col. William Howard, of the Fourth Maryland Regiment; F. D. Madeira, of the Associated Press; J. M. Schryver, general passenger agent Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company; Albert Weil, of Guggenheimer & Weil; George Sucro, manager of the Bartholomew Brewing company; Charles H. Knapp, John B. Sisson, William E. Lapsley, Samuel R. Tregellas, H. S. Jenkins, Major Franklin P. Sweezy, Major Morris W. Tucker, Alan Cole, John T. Barclay, James Young, Dr. Charles E. Duck and others equally prominent and reliable.

With this indorsement, accompanied by testimonials from those who have actually been cured by the Elixir within the past few years, the Company confidently appeals to all those suffering from rheumatism, gout, or lumbago in any form, or at any stage, to give this remedy a trial; and in order that it may be within reach of every sufferer, the price per bottle has been fixed at 25 and 50 cents. The remedy is now on sale at the Stam Drug Company.

Only Thirty and Gray

How is this?

Perhaps sleepless nights caused it, or grief, or sickness, or perhaps it was care.

No matter what the cause, you cannot wish to look old at thirty.

Gray hair is starved hair.

The hair bulbs have been deprived of proper food or proper nerve force.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Increases the circulation in the scalp, gives more power to the nerves, supplies missing elements to the hair bulbs.

Used according to directions, gray hair begins to show color in a few days. Soon it has all the softness and richness of youth and the color of early life returns.

Would you like our book on the Hair? We will gladly send it to you.

Write us!

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the Vigor, write the doctor about it. He may be able to suggest something of value to you. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

FARMERS AND LAND OWNERS

Why not Look to Your Interest

In the Improvement of your lands, while grain is a good price and the indications have an upward tendency. Does it pay to let your land sour and degenerate for want of a stimulant? We answer no. The question arises how are we to get the best results from our crops and at the same time raise the standard of our land? We answer by the use of lime. Well, what Lime do you think will give the best results? We think which has stood the test for many years by our oldest and most prosperous land owners. We can furnish you with other limes as you may wish, all of which will be delivered to any station on the Balto. & Del. Bay R. R. at short notice on reasonable terms. Last but not least is the well known

The Celebrated Kerr's Wrightsville Lime,

WHEAT MARKET!

We have daily telegrams from the Grain markets of the west and all parts of Europe.

MR H. M. BROWN

will represent us at Chestertown during the season of 1899. We will keep him thoroughly posted on the markets by mail and frequent telegrams, and invite the farmers of Kent and Queen Anne's to have Mr. Brown bid for their crops before disposing of them.
