CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT PUBLISHING COMPANY.

On Monday last The Chestertown Transcript Publishing Company of Kent County Maryland, was formed with the following gentlemen as the incorporators: R. H. Collins, C. C. Hopper, R. D. Hynson, Harrison W. Vickers, Hope H. Barroll, Thomas G. Wroth, Theodore E. Hayes and Lewin W. Wickes. The new publishing company was formally organized by the election of Richard D. Hynson, president; R. H. Collins, treasurer, and Charles C. Hopper, secretary. Messrs. Collins & Hopper, who have owned and managed the TRANSCRIPT during the past eleven years, will continue as editors of the paper, and as in the past will be profoundly interested in its advancement and future welfare. The change has been made believing that in enlarging the personal interest of the substantial citizenship of the county, the paper's sphere of usefulness and its financial emoluments will be increased. After eleven years of patient and conscientious labor, warm friendships have been formed and a lucrative business has been built up until, at the opening of the New Year of 1900, the paper enjoys a business patronage never before enjoyed by it; it stands as one of the best advertising mediums on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, having a plant second to none, and is on a sound financial basis.

To their personal friends the editors appeal for a continuance of their support and that warm personal friendship which has made journalistic labors remunerative and pleasant.

Commencing with next week, the TRANSCRIPT will be issued on SATURDAY, instead of on Thursday, as in the past. This change is made to meet a long-standing and general demand from every section of the county. The people want a clean, fearless, outspoken paper which may be read in the home on Sunday after the week's work is done, and such a paper the TRANSCRIPT shall be. All the news, reliable and fresh, all the time, will remain our journalistic motto.

In politics the paper will be unalterably democratic, but all questions, political and otherwise, will be dealt with fearlessly and honestly. The editors have many warm personal friends in the county who are republican, and there are many republicans who, while they have failed to agree with us in all matters along political lines, have on many occasions admired the sturdy honesty of an outspoken and fearless opposition.

We ask of our friends and the public, a continuance of their esteem and patronage.

With best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year, we are,
Very truly,
COLLINS & HOPPER.

TO THE PUBLIC.

As directors of the Chestertown Transcript Publishing Company of Chestertown, Md., we respectfully solicit the patronage of our friends in behalf of the new enterprise. The paper will be run on business principles without regard to factional politics.

We are personally interested in the success of the company, and make this statement to our friends throughout the county.

COL. EDWARD B. EMORY, of Poplar Grove, Queen Anne, is still in the political ring. He is out with a petition asking that he be appointed State Land Commissioner.

PEACH BUDS around Keedysville are so well developed that cold weather will ruin the crop, so the story goes. Isn't it a little early for the liar to begin business?—World.

ONE OF THE MOST NOTABLE ACTS of the new board of county commissioners, was the payment of States Attorney John D. Urie's bill of one hundred and fifty dollars. This bill was for services as counsel to the board of election supervisors and for trying registration cases. The amount was considered excessive by the democratic board in eighteen hundred and ninety-eight and payment was refused. Mr. Urie quietly withdrew his bill and on the first meeting of the new board after its formal organization, the bill was presented and ordered paid with interest added. "All things come to those who wait."

THE ARTICLE OF Mrs. Harriet L. W. Hill, in last week's TRANSCRIPT, advocating the organization of an historical society in Kent, called forth the following editorial reference in the Baltimore News on Saturday: "Mrs. Hill's interest in Maryland history and in all things touching the State, entitles her appeal to serious consideration, not only in Kent, but in other counties. The only county historical society which is doing good work is that of Harford. In other counties historical societies have been founded and have had a brief existence. Kent comes next to St. Mary in the order of seniority among Maryland counties, although it had a colony of settlers before Leonard Calvert's company sailed into the Potomac. It has been the seat of many of the most prominent Maryland families, and of many families outside of our own State, which, like the Tildens, trace their ancestry back to Kent settlers. The yeomanry of Kent has always been true to Maryland traditions, and in people, soil, climate, scenery, the county has many things to be proud of."

LEGISLATURE CONVENED.

Yesterday the Maryland State Legislature convened at Annapolis. The body will consist of one hundred and seventeen members—twenty-six in the Senate and ninety-one in the House of Delegates. Of the Senators fifteen are democrats and eleven are republicans. Of the members of the House sixty-five are democrats and twenty-six republicans, making a democratic majority of eighty on joint ballot.

The Senate will be composed of 8 lawyers, 6 farmers, 6 merchants, 2 physicians, 1 miner, 1 banker, 1 mechanic and 1 editor—total 26.

In the House there will be 29 farmers 27 lawyers, 3 physicians, 15 merchants, 3 miners, 1 banker, 3 mechanics, 1 editor, 1 real estate broker, 1 telegraph operator, 3 manufacturers, 1 postmaster, 1 railroad employer and 1 general business man—a total of 91, of whom 27 have served in the House before.

SOME INTERESTING HISTORY relative to the release of the negro Thomas Taylor and the two Goldsboroughs, who were sent to the House of Correction for rioting and other misconduct on the night of the last election, has finally leaked out. It is now known that a Baltimore attorney, whose name is known, appeared for the negroes, and the costs were paid by a Chestertown republican who has, so far, taken no unnecessary trouble to enlighten the public as to his relation to the disreputable affair. The interesting feature of the case is, that this gentleman represented that the three men were the victims of political persecution; that regardless of the fact that a republican magistrate heard their cases and a republican attorney defended them, the whole matter was the result of democratic hatred because Taylor and the two Goldsboroughs failed to vote the democratic ticket.

Now, that the public may form some idea of the character of the "martyr" Taylor, whom democrats are persecuting, the sequel to his return from prison may be interesting. Within two weeks after his return from the House of Correction through the instrumentality of the Chestertown political Samaritan, he was a fugitive from justice on a charge of assault upon a negro woman. He was subsequently arrested and last week Justice Wilkins imposed a fine of five dollars and costs for the assault, and sentenced him to eighteen months in the House of Correction upon a charge of habitual lawlessness. An appeal has been taken, and the tax-payers will be given a further opportunity to get rid of a portion of their hard-earned "prosperity" to meet inordinate police court expenses, the direct result of a flagrant overriding of justice by republican politicians. How long will such a condition of affairs be tolerated?

COL. SMITH'S SUCCESSOR.

The question of who will succeed Governor-elect John Walter Smith, as Congressman from the First Congressional District, is now uppermost in the minds of State democratic leaders. Col. Smith will assume the duties of Governor on January the tenth.

It is not generally thought that a special election will be called for, because of the expense. A new congressman would reach Washington just in time to qualify before the adjournment. A special election would cost about thirty thousand dollars, a sum all too large to be unnecessarily cast upon the tax-payers of the district.

The four counties below the Choptank with four votes each, should they stand by Ex-Congressman Joshua W. Miles, as against a candidate from above the Choptank would mean Mr. Miles selection. Mr. Miles starts with a strong advantage, since Kent and Caroline, of the upper tier of counties, have but three votes. This gives sixteen against fourteen in favor of the region below the Choptank. Caroline wants Lewis, but whether or not Wicomico will have a candidate, remains to be seen. State Senator W. F. Applegarth, of Dorchester, is an avowed candidate. The Baltimore News sums up the situation about in this way:

"Under the hope that Miles and Applegarth will divide the strength below the Choptank the upper county people are getting ready to put up the hottest kind of a fight to capture the nomination. They have not agreed upon any candidate, and the convention promises to be a great place for "favorite sons." Hon. Harrison W. Vickers, Ex-Comptroller Smith, of Kent, Hon. Edwin H. Brown, of Queen Anne, Mr. Lewis and Ex-State Senator Thos. Alexander Smith, of Caroline, J. Harry Covington and a half-dozen others from Talbot are all in the running. Queen Anne will make a hard fight to win out, and it is reported to-day that her delegation will be solid for Mr. Brown.

"Hon. Philemon Hopper is said to be willing to stand back and let the county go for Brown. The latter has never held any office other than that of State Treasurer for a few months during the Jackson administration. The Brown people say that with him as the candidate, Queen Anne's will give a thousand majority. Mr. Brown is personally known all over the district. Just what the party managers will do is interesting many people, inasmuch as Mr. Brown has been reckoned among the independent men in the party.

"Senator Applegarth's friends are counting on some support from above the Choptank. It has been customary for the Democrats to nominate two candidates at an election where a short and a long term is to be filled, as was done with Miles and Henry and the late John B. Brown and Representative Robert F. Brattan. It is understood, however, that one candidate will be put up next year both for the concluding session of the Fifty-sixth Congress and for the Fifty-seventh Congeess."

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY of Maryland assembled and organized yesterday. The caucus officers of both houses were:

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood of constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

KENT'S REPRESENTATIVES.

SENATOR—JAMES H. BAKER.

James H. Baker, republican, is an extensive farmer, fruit grower and breeder of fine stock. He was born on the old Baker homestead, near Pomona, Kent county, December 5, 1839. His boyhood was spent on his father's farm. He completed his education at Washington College, Chestertown, and is considered one of Kent's model farmers. In 1887 he was the nominee for the House of Delegates, and enjoyed the distinction of being the first republican ever elected in Kent county to that position. In 1895 he was again chosen as one of the representatives of his county in the State Legislature, and was still the only republican ever elected in Kent county to the lower house. The Baker family are descendants of early settlers in Kent county, and Bakerville (now Pomona) was named in their honor.

HOUSE—AZARIAH M. KENDALL.

Azariah M. Kendall, republican, was born at Rock Hall, March 4, 1854. He is a son of the late Rev. James Kendall. In 1861 the family removed from Rock Hall to Fairlee, where they have since resided. Mr. Kendall had the advantage of excellent public schools during his early life, afterward completing his education at the St. Paul's High School. He also took a comprehensive course in practical mechanics and became a contractor and builder, in which business he is still largely engaged. He has interested himself largely in educational matters and is a trustee of the Fairlee school. He is a member of the Methodist church, a steward and class leader in Fairlee church, and assistant superintendant of the Sunday school.

C. P. NORRIS.

C. Preston Norris, republican, is a successful farmer. His education was acquired at the public schools at his home, near Lynch's. He is of old Quaker stock, and is one of the representative young farmers of the county. He is about 30 years of age and has been a republican since long before his majority.

QUEEN ANNE.

William D. Smith, one of the representatives from Queen Anne, was born in Kent county, April 17, 1839. He was a student in the Millington Academy. He began his business life as a farmer in Queen Anne county. Then he purchased a farm near Ingleside, where he lives. He held the office of Tax Collector in 1888 and 1889, county commissioner in 1890 and 1891, and justice of the peace from May, 1867, to 1873.

Mr. Eugene L. Dudley, the other representative from Queen Anne, was born near Crumpton, in 1850. His father, James P. Dudley, a native of Queen Anne, was Register of Wills. In 1893 he was elected as postmaster of the House of Delegates. He is a practical farmer, and resides upon the place long known as the Grayson homestead, formerly the home of Governor Grayson.

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action. —South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist.

TO BUY CATTLE.

I wish to announce to the farmers of Kent that I will be at the Voshell House, Chestertown, for the next ten days for the purpose of buying cattle. Farmers having stock to sell may call or drop me a card at the Voshell House, Chestertown.

Hotel Announcement.

[THE HUSTLING YOUNG PROPRIETOR OF THE ARMSTRONG HOUSE.]

I WISH to inform the public that I have rented the recently remodeled and handsomely equipped Chestertown hotel, known as the Armstrong House, formerly conducted by Messrs. Armstrong and Sparks, on East Cross street. The entire house is heated by steam; closets and other conveniences in the building. The rooms are all prettily papered and nicely furnished. The table will be furnished with the best the market affords with especial attention to preparation and service, so that the traveling public need not fear that the splendid standard set by the former proprietors of the house will not be kept up. The entire management will be under the immediate supervision of myself and wife. A pool-table will be conducted in a spacious parlor, and I will also have a raw box in order that the traveling public may at any and all times secure the world-renowned Chesapeake oyster served in the most approved style. In short, the Hotel will be one of the most up-to-date houses on the peninsula and will be conducted with an eye single to the comfort and convenience of my guests and the traveling public.

Soliciting a continuance of the liberal patronage heretofore accorded to the old proprietors, I am very truly,

The Voshell House.

Remodeled and Improved.

HAVING rented the Voshell House, one of the old and most widely-known hotels on the Eastern Shore, I wish to announce to the public that this old and popular hostelry will be conducted in the most approved and up-to-date way. The house will be thoroughly heated, remodeled and otherwise improved for the accommodation of guests.

The Table

will always be served with the best the seasons afford, temptingly prepared and served under the personal supervision of my wife.

The rooms, bed and beding will be kept airy and sweet, and everything done with an eye single to the comfort and convenience of my old friends and patrons, the traveling public. A cordial welcome will be accorded to all who call. Very truly,

GEO. E. LAMBERT.
