EDITORS.

MR. C. T. WESTCOTT, JR., has been appointed a second lieutenant of marines.

THE NEXT DEMOCRATIC National Convention will be held at Kansas City on July the Fourth.

LEADERS of the Democratic and Republican parties in Kentucky have agreed upon a program of procedure, and matters are thereby greatly simplified.

THE NEW SCHOOL LAW will give Governor Smith eighty-four appointments of school commissioners. Kremes, of Anne Arundel, was the only republican who voted with the democrats for the bill.

CRONJE, the great Boer leader in the Transvaal, is reported as being hemmed in by a vastly superior force of English troops. It is possible that he may cut his way out. The English are in possession of Kimberly and Ladysmith.

CLARENCE W. PERKINS, Esq., has been appointed a notary public for Baltimore city. Mr. Perkins has been unusually fortunate; he now holds one of the most desirable clerkships in the State Legislature.

DR. ROBERT M. PRICE, of Centreville, was named for the position of State Fire Marshall, on Wednesday. Mr. Wm. D. Gould, a gentleman well-known in Kent was appointed a justice of the peace for the eleventh ward, of Baltimore city.

SENATOR JAMES H. BAKER, of Kent, was the only senator from the counties who voted for the six-for-a-quarter street car ticket bill. For this manly position he deserves, and will doubtless, be accorded full praise. Three Senators from Baltimore also voted for the bill.

A GENTLEMAN having some official relation with the Pennsylvania Railroad, was in town this week, and while not speaking authoritatively, he said that in his opinion there is no doubt but that the Pennsylvania company is even now the owner of the Baltimore and Delaware Bay Railroad. Tickets are now sold from the smaller stations through to Chestertown, a thing totally unknown before January the first of this year.

J. HENRY BAKER, Esq., son of Senator James H. Baker, headed a strong delegation of Christian Scientists who went to Annapolis on Tuesday to protest against the bill to regulate the practice of medicine in the State. Mr. Baker contended that one of the provisions of the bill was opposed to the teachings of Christ and would prevent prayers being offered for the recovery of the sick, and would interfere with the religious work of the Christian Scientist Church. "We ask you," he said, "not to interfere with the religious liberty of our clients."

A KENT COUNTY "TEACHER" had a strong letter on the Public School Bill, in Monday's Baltimore Sun. He insisted that—

"It is opposed to common-sense to entertain the thought for one moment that a mere pittance of $300 a year is sufficient inducement to attract to the profession men and women signally fitted for the work. Broadly speaking, the men have already sought remunerative employment elsewhere, and the women, no longer hampered by prejudice which has hitherto confronted them on entering one of the learned professions, will gradually desert the ranks to engage in more lucrative work."

IN ANOTHER COLUMN will be found a communication relative to improved public school facilities for Chestertown. The time to discuss this important matter is now. The people are profoundly interested in the question of a suitable public school building. Just what Representative Kendall means by his bill to repeal the Westcott school act, is not known, but whatever his object may be, the people should take some active and timely part in the framing of a bill which will meet the requirements of the case. This is too serious a matter to be unnecessarily delayed. The delay might result in lasting regrets to the citizens of Chestertown. A new school building is needed, and Chestertown should take such action as is necessary to secure it.

THE REPUBLICAN EDITORS are being consumed by torturing rage, and like pouter pigeons their political craws are swollen to startling immensity as they moralize and scrawl about partisan politics in the matter of public schools. This is in striking contrast to the roseate smiles of these slate-makers and office-fillers four years ago, when experienced and highly competent school examiners and school boards were, with an elegant air of intellectual and moral superiority, relegated to the rear and striplings and incompetents, in many cases, were put in their places, Maryland was then thought "safely republican," and these gentlemen found it impossible to realize that the political tide could so soon and so radically change. With this record so near at hand, it is nothing short of political effrontery for republican leaders and their organs to indulge in a puerile rage in regard to partisan politics in any department.

THE DOVE-LIKE, the more than dovelike, the seraphic spirits who breathe out pious condemnation upon the hardened craniums of Kentucky democrats and hold them chargeable for the demoralized conditions in the "Blue Grass State," have evidently failed to inform themselves of the facts in the case. They forget, or possibly never knew, that Taylor, the republican Moses who was expected to lead the republican party into the Promised Land of success, was backed by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. This corporation squandered immense sums of money, started newspapers and indulged in every disreputable trick known to the professional politician, and this did much to lead up to the intensity of feeling which resulted in the killing of Goebel. While many democrats have no sympathy with the highly questionable methods of the democratic leaders in the Kentucky gubernatorial contest, they are not ready to ally themselves with republican corruptionists and in an uncontrollable zeal for their new allies to hold their own party entirely chargeable with Kentucky's political shame.

GRAND, GLOOMY AND PECULIAR, Kent stands as the lists of appointments are handed down. That was a brutal stab which the enemy's organ, the American, gave to the distinguished democratic (?) fraternity who forsook the old party last fall and handed it over to the republicans. Just read the vicious thrust:

"Former Senator E. Stanley Toadvin, of Wicomico, ex-Governor Jackson's friend and a former senatorial associate of Governor Smith, is land commissioner.

"Former Senator Thomas A. Smith, of Caroline, who also served in the Senate with Governor Smith, is at the head of the State Bureau of Statistics, a position heretofore awarded to Baltimore city, but the labor political elements of that city, which have claimed the place in the past, could not agree among themselves upon a candidate and hence their loss.

"Dr. Robert M. Price, of Queen Annes, is state fire marshal, a position which was held by a Baltimorean during Governor Brown's term, and by a Western Marylander during Governor Lowndes' administration.

"Talbot has already been recognized. Secretary of the State Bateman comes from that county.

"A position is held in reserve for Dorchester.

"Kent went Republican."

Does this mean that the shadows of political ostracism shall settle like a political pall upon the grand old county?

THE DEMANDS OF A COURT have elicited some interesting if startling figures, relative to "American infant industries" which are protected and fostered at the expense of the people by a republican protective tariff. This phase, "Infant industry," would be deliciously humorous were it a less serious matter. Andrew Carnegie and other animated gold mines indulge themselves in fits of generous openhandedness and smile at the ponderous fraud embodied in the words "Protective tariff" as it throws its beneficent arms around their "Infant industries." Take the proportions of this "Infant industry" as it revels in its dainty swaddling clothes of $23,867,500 for the year of our Lord 1900. The suit of H.C. Frick against Andrew Carnegie and the Carnegie Steel Company reveals the fact that the Carnegie steel plants made enormous profits last year. A summary of net earnings, with the selling value of the plants and the stock of the company as set forth in the bill, is as follows:

Profits of the Carnegie Company for 1899	$21,000,000
Andrew Carnegie's share	12,285,000
Profits each week	235,000
Estimated profit for 1900	42,500,000
Andrew Carnegie's share	24,867,500
Estimated profits each week	470,000
Value of the plant, according to Andrew Carnegie's estimate	250,000,000
His share, according to option	157,950,000

Mr. Carnegie has declared that he can, in ordinarily prosperous times, sell the property on the London market for £100,000,000, or $500,000,000. Of this sum his share would be $292,500,000.

Carnegie Brothers & Company, Limited, capital	$5,000,000
Carnegie, Phipps & Company Limited, capital	5,000,000

In 1892 these companies were merged into

The Carnegie Steel Company, Limited, capital	$25,000,000

It is alleged in the bill that but $20,000,000 of the capital of the Carnegie Steel Company was ever paid in, and that this was paid by declaring two dividends of 200 per cent. each on the stock of the parent companies.

BALTIMORE'S DEMANDS.

Baltimore city is making a vigorous fight for an increased representation in the State Legislature. The city has three-eighths of the population of the entire State, and pays more than that proportion of taxes, but is represented in the House of Delegates by only eighteen members out of a total of 91, and three Senators out of a total of 26. With these figures as a basis a strong case is made out in favor of a largely increased representation for the city. From whatever viewpoint the matter may be considered there is much of merit in the contention that the strict rules of equity are strained in the present city apportionment of representation. It is regrettable, however, to see the Baltimore Sun, with so much of inherent merit on its side, abandon its usual dignified method of dealing with all public questions and indulging in the following mirth-provoking absurdity:

"The only possible defense that can be made for such an anomaly, such gross inequality in representation, is that the voters of Baltimore city are, as a whole or as a class, so inferior in intelligence, in patriotism and public virtue, compared with the voters in any of the counties of the State, that they are not fit to be trusted with a representation in the Legislature in the same proportion to population"

The counties believe, and with some color of reason, that far greater danger might result to them and the State at large by a concentration of representative strength in Baltimore city than could possibly follow the preponderance of influence scattered throughout so many counties having so great a diversity of interests. Populous, and having vast wealth, it is not an unreasonable apprehension that Baltimore city might and could become coercive at Annapolis. As regards State or local legislation, there is no county or series of counties whose interests are or will ever be so uniform that they would or could, as regard any measure of legislation, form a successful coalition, offensive or defensive, against the city. On the contrary, with a striking uniformity of interest in city legislation, it is a possible thing that the material increase demanded in her representation, might be a menace to rural interests. The Sun evidently forgets the unwavering loyalty of the rural section of the State, when it suggests that the counties would in any sense disparage the intelligence, patriotism and public virtue of the citizenship of Baltimore. The Sun should remember, what every citizen of the rural districts know so well, that should Baltimore city be deprived in any way of the intellectual, moral and business vigor drawn directly or indirectly from the sturdy yoemanry of the counties, one newsboy could delivery in one hour every Baltimore Sun sold in the city. The people of the counties contemplate with just pride the great southern metropolis on the banks of the Patapsco, but they are not just ready to entrust to her the power to fashion State legislation as may best please her own sweet will.

The Trust Question.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Having read in this morning's Sun that John D. Rockefeller intends giving $1,500,000 to a Western university, in addition to about $7,000,000 he had previously donated, would say that in my estimation it is not a gift of his at all, but of the poor people who use the oil of the Standard Oil Company, which has been raised since summer from 9 cents per galllon to 12 cents, and still is on the increase. It is an easy matter for a man to give away large sums of money when he skins it off the poor folks.—A lifelong reader of the Sun.

KENNEDYVILLE NEWS.

Owing to the difficult traveling caused by the blockade of snow, the attendance at the meeting called on Tuesday night, for the election of a delegate to the Maryland Annual Conference, was quite small. The election was postponed until next Tuesday evening.

The festival held by the Ladies' Aid Society on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week, was well attended, and proved a success.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kendall, of Philadelphia, spent part of the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Godwin. Mr. Kendall enjoyed several fox hunts in company with Mr. Godwin and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, of Chesapeake City, spent part of the past week with friends and relatives in and around the village.

Mrs. Emma Shafer and Miss Annie Shafer are enjoying a visit in Baltimore.

MORE PROSPERITY.

The monster republican joke of "Unprecedentedly Good Times" continues to stalk abroad through the land. Ten per cent. increases in wages are heralded with delight by McKinley campaign "good-time" organs, in a vain attempt to deceive the great working and voting masses into voting for McKinley prosperity in 1900. A strange logic, which finds "unprecedented prosperity" in an advance of ten per cent. in wages and an increase of from ten to fifty per cent. in nearly every article which the laborer consumes or uses to meet his daily needs. The great army of bread-winners in America will question the "prosperity" which places the cotton goods used in their clothing at 20 per cent. higher than four months ago and 50 per cent. higher than the lowest price at which they have sold during the past four or five years. Three-yard cottons of standard brands, which formerly sold at 3¼ and 4c. now bring 5½c and 6c. wholesale. Four-yard cottons, brown, which were to be had at 3¾c a year ago, now cost 5c and 5½c. Bleached cottons have also made a heavy advance, the prices being in some instances, 50 per cent. higher than a year ago. Goods of this description, which formerly sold at 5c, now wholesale at 7½c, and the 5½c brand now brings 7½c and 8c per yard. Organdies are 15 per cent higher than formerly, and other cotton goods of a like description have advanced about the same per cent. Woolens are about 20 to 25 per cent. higher than they were a few years ago. Cloth that formerly wholesaled at 65c now brings 80c, and goods that ordinarily sell at $1 now find a ready market at $1.25. Cheaper grades have made a heavier advance, jumping from 20c to 28c, from 30c to 42c, and from 50c to 65c. Carpets, which are included in woolens, are also high, $1 carpets under old prices now bringing in the neighborhood of $1.25, and 19c carpets bringing 27c. Furniture, lumber, matches, sewing cotton and every article used by the masses in home-making or the comfortable maintenance of the workingman's family, negatives this political buncombe as a vote-catching method of the republican press. The every day experience of the people brands it as disreputable clap-trap—the contemptible sophistry of petty politicians.

[COMMUNICATED.]

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL QUESTION.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A move has been made by Delegate Kendall to repeal and re-enact Chapter 193 of the Acts of 1896. This is the law authorizing the issuing of bonds for the building of a schoolhouse in Chestertown. This law was doubtless gotten up at the time it was in fulfillment of some electioneering promises, and its provisions were not well considered. It provides for the abandonment of the present location of the white school, the purchase of another lot and turning over the present location to the colored school. Having had many opportunities to examine the present location and to become familiar with the surroundings, I unhesitatingly say that the present buildings are as eligibly situated as any possible location that could be obtained. It is urged that the location is unfit on account of some offensive odors in the neighborhood. The law can be successfully invoked to abate any nuisance either deleterious to health or otherwise a nuisance, and if there is a nuisance in that part of the town it should be abated whether the school buildings remain there or not. It is not claimed that there is anything naturally offensive in the locality, and its central position makes it very desirable. If the buildings are to be removed from place to place because of offensive smells which there will be no effort to abate, it will be advisable to have them placed on wheels.

The ground and buildings are too valuable to lose, apart from the desirable situation. The old church building is a most substantial building and will accommodate about one half of the classes. With the old one-story brick building taken down, and the frame building removed, which can be sold to advantage, there will be ample room for a suitable addition, and also give ample room for a playground, or rather recreation yard, for the pupils.

The children of this school go home at the noon recess, and the only use for a school yard is during the short morning and afternoon recess, when any extended play is objectionable. By retaining the old church building and building the proper addition, the needs of the school can be reached at a much less sum than by undertaking a building in an entirely new location. The bricks in the long one-story building will go a long way towards the erection of the necessary addition.

To turn these buildings over to the colored school would be a shocking waste of buildings entirely unnecessary for their needs, besides, if the location is objectionable on account of health, it will only be removing one class of pupils to subject another class to the same influences.

The location is undesirable for a colored school from every point of view, and should be nearer to that part of the town where they most generally live.

If this law is to be re-enacted it is greatly to be desired that the provisions should be carefully considered and not dictated by partisan politics or any kind of party politics.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

A bill has been passed authorizing the commissioners of Carroll county to erect signboards at crossroads.

A bill has been introduced to provide for the erection of that long-felt want, a new jail at Centreville.

The Senate bill has gone to the House making it unlawful to catch oysters with patent tongs in the waters of Kent and Queen Anne counties.

Mr. Marcus Ascher expected to visit Annapolis this week in behalf of protection to fur-bearing animals in Kent county. Mr. Ascher says that the fur interests, which are even now very great, could by proper protection be greatly increased. He contends that the catching of otters, rats and coons should be protected by law. He insists that the catching of all fur-bearing animals should be confined to the months of January, February and March. Representative Kendall has been seen, and the matter will be pushed. Those animals which are destructive of poultry and the interests of the farmers' wives will not be included in the list. Mr. Ascher says the ladies, who are the principal purchasers of these furs after they are made up, are often grossly deceived in having put off on them the inferior fur of animals caught during the spring and early fall months. The owners of the extensive marshes along our water courses are even more deeply interested in this matter than the merchants and fur-dealers.

From Pomona.

A pleasant dance was given at the home of Mr. Frank Morris, on Friday night of last week. In spite of the storm many friends enjoyed the festivities. Refreshments were served about midnight. Good music was on hand.

Misses Nannie and Carrie Ford entertained a few friends at their home last night.

The road from the Hickey place to Pomona church, was completely blocked by the big snow drifts of last week. All travelers were forced to go around by Haddaway's store.

Several of the Quaker Neck huntsmen went to Mr. John Brice's for a big hunt yesterday. No report from the hunt has been received.

Mr. Frank Morris lost one of his best horses on Thursday night. This is the second horse Mr. Morris has lost within the past few months.

An Editor's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1896 I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three [illegible] were restored to their [illegible] B. MILLINGTON NEWS.

On Sunday afternoon, when it was learned that a special train would be run down the road to clear the tracks of snow, a number of young men and boys went around to the station to see it come in. Soon they had realized their expections, for in a short time engine No. 182, a massive piece of machinery to which was attached an immense snow plow of the latest pattern and heading engine No. 190, no smaller than her sister engine No. 182, came splitting their way through the snow. Every one wanted to get a view of the train and see how great a success the new plow was. One young man had his camera set ready to catch it striking a drift. In a moment it was past, and such a snow-covered, scampering crowd, brushing and shaking the snow from themselves is rarely seen, and the platform was covered with snow from four to six inches deep. The picture of the engine striking the drifts may be on exhibition soon.

Mr. M. O. Whittington, of our town, and Miss Caddie Starkey, of Templeville, were married at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. M. They will reside in Millington. Mr. Whittington has the position of assistant miller in Mr. E. W. Spear's flouring mills.

Rebecca Roe, James Roe, Jane Miller,
Elizabeth Thompson, Alfred Thompson, Annie Ringgold, William Ringgold, Adeline Boyer, William Boyer, Sophie Holland, Jas. Holland, Mary E. Green, Lewis Green, John Thompson, Tillie Thompson, William Thompson, Mary E. Thompson, Garrett Bell, Frank Thompson.

No. 1144 Chancery.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, Md., in Equity.

THE object of this bill is to convert these proceedings into a creditor's suit, so far as necessary, in order to pay and satisfy the creditors of William Thompson, colored, or of any of the heirs at-law and parties to this suit who will come in and contribute to the expense of this proceeding.

The bill states that it appears from the proceedings in this cause that the real estate of William Thompson, deceased, was decreed to be sold on the 7th day of September, 1895, for the purpose of partition among his children and heirs-at-law, and a portion of same has already been sold, and a portion yet remains to be sold.

That before the passage of the above-named decree your petitioner, Frank Thompson, obtained a judgment by confession against Elizabeth Thompson, Alfred Thompson and John Thompson, three of the defendants in this cause for the sum of $59.00, and interest from November 19, 1894, and said judgment was a lien against the interest of the said Elizabeth Thompson, Alfred and John Thompson, in the said real estate, and no part of same has ever been paid to your petitioner, and the same remains due and unpaid, and there is no way by which your petitioner can secure the payment of the same unless he be allowed to collect the same out of the proceeds of sale of the real estate sold in this cause or such part thereof as may be audited or may belong to the said Elizabeth Thompson, Alfred Thompson and John Thompson, since they have no other property within the jurisdiction of this court or elsewhere, out of which the same can be collected.

That your petitioner is entitled to have so much of the sales of said real estate, as has been sold or that may be hereafter sold as may be necessary, and to which the said Elizabeth Thompson, Alfred Thompson and John Thompson may be entitled, to pay the said judgment so as aforesaid recovered.

It is thereupon ordered, this 8th day of February, 1900, by the circuit court for Kent county, Maryland, in equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 15th day of March, 1900, give notice to the said Elizabeth Thompson, Alfred Thompson and John Thompson, of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in person or by solicitor, on or before the 9th day of April next, to show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.
