Greenwood will engage in the grow- f truck, small fruits and poultry on e scale, for which the land and sur- dings are admirably adapted. The tenant of this old homestead is one e most widely-known and success- ruckers in the county.

he Act of Brutes.—One of the most tish outrages reported in the history local crime, occurred at Winchester, Queen Anne county, on Saturday. our young men secured a supply of hiskey, caught the 11-year-old son of a r. Renshaw and poured whiskey down s throat. After making the unfortunate y drunk he was placed in a canoe, and e boat, under a stiff breeze, was headed cross Chester river, toward the Kent ounty shore. The boat capsized and he boy was about to drown when seen nd rescued by an oysterman. About he time his clothes were dry the four young brutes who had made him drunk again seized him, beat, kicked him all over the body and broke his leg. The men then escaped.

A Member of Patriotic Orders.—Miss Caroline M. Anthony, whose interesting articles in the TRANSCRIPT descriptive of life in Cuba during the Spanish—American war, will be well-remembered, has since become a member of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the United States Daughters of the War of 1812. Miss Anthony had many thrilling experiences as a nurse in the army camp, and rendered splendid services to hundreds of suffering soldiers. Immediately after her return she came to Kent and recuperated at the home of her brother, Chesterville. Miss Anthony's latest erience has been as nurse of that un- young Philadelphia heiress, ine Wright. This young en to a Boston institution t, and while there an effort secure the appointment of or her, and from this one of ebrated cases of the kind in y arose. Miss Anthony is t's nurse, endeavoring to win health and strength.

Estate Transfers.— Clerk issued the following deeds nsfer of real estate since the inted in the Transcript: Mad- n, trustee, to John C. Johnson, el of land in Crumpton; con- ion, $425. J. R. Clements and A. Clements to Mary Anna Brown thers, house and lot of land on street, in Chestertown; considera- 1,000. Mary A. Murray to Arianna artt, lot of land at Worton; con- tion, $211.52. Landen, land on Princess , consideration, $220.

Silk-Skirt Craze.—What is termed the silk-skirt craze has taken possession of the rank and file of Kent county ladies. Hundreds of them, ambitious to wear an eight dollar silk skirt at a cost of twenty-five cents, are in the field campaigning for the sale of coupons. A big Philadelphia house some time ago started this endless chain of silk skirt purchases, and it now sweeps on like a mighty river, and within a few months when returns from the coupon sales come in, such a rustling of gorgeous silk underwear as was never before dreamed of will be heard from one end of Kent to the other. The crusade has invaded every school district and many households. The clever scheme of the Philadelphia house is, to send out, upon receipt of a coupon and $1.25, five coupons to the sender of the money and the coupon. When these five coupons have all been sold at twenty-five cents and are received at the Philadelphia headquarters, each one accompanied by $1.25, then the original sender receives the silk skirt, and so on to the end of the chapter. Some of these bewitching silk creations have already reached Chestertown, to the unutterable delight of their recipients and the unutterably envy of those who have not. The Smyrna Call says: "A number of the ladies of Chestertown have been victimized by the endless chain system of a silk dress for ten cents." The Call is altogether wrong. The ladies are not victimized at all,—they consider that they are getting the anty on the Philadelphia people.

SHELDON'S PAPER.

Commencing with Tuesday morning, Rev. Charles M. Sheldon assumed full control of the Topeka Capitol, to show to the world how Christ would edit a newspaper were He now on earth. It is estimated that one hundred persons in Kent subscribed to the paper, but up to yesterday not a single copy had been received. This is due, probably, to the enormous subscription list. With a normal circulation of 15,000, up to Wednesday the subscription list had grown to 360,000, with new names coming in at the rate of 25,000 each day.

The first item of Tuesday's issue was a praye Bishop Vincent, of the M. E. Chur editorials and important items a d by the writer. Advertisements es' corsets were excluded, all noti s of fraternal orders are cut out and no advertisements of merchants outside of Topeka are taken. All sporting news of a questionable nature are refused, though a Y. M. C. A. bowling contest passed muster and got in. Advertising space is charged for at the rate of $26 per inch for the one week. All of his editorial and reportorial staff have sworn off from the use of tobacco in any form. The suicide of Senator Pfeffer's son was admitted.

THE LADIES AT WORK.

Town Improvement Again Taken up by the Ladies' Association.

The members of the Chestertown Ladies' Improvement Association, met at the home of Mrs. Hope H. Barroll on Friday, and organized for a further prosecution of the work commenced more than a year ago. Kent square, symmetrical in its outlines and already green and beautiful in its spring carpet of green; together with the handsome fountain in its centre, attest the success of last year's work.

At Friday's meeting committees were appointed to collect dues from subscribers, to outline ways and means for securing funds for further improvements, and for other detail work.

The ladies have an offer of a handsome drinking fountain for persons and horses, the only expense attached being the furnishing of water, grading the square and other necessary incidentals. This fountain will be placed at the end of the square in front of Stam's Hall and so placed as to be accessible to all. This feature should appeal with great force to the citizens of the country who visit the town and they will be asked to contribute to the water fund.

The sprinkler was one of the prominent subjects for discussion at Friday's meeting, and it is proposed, if possible, to secure this long-needed want during the trying and heated summer months. Mrs. Avis Vannort, Mrs. T. R. Hubbard, Mrs. Joel R. Clements, Miss Clare Vannort and Miss Beulah Hayes all enthusiastic advocates of the sprinkler, were appointed on this committee. The money raised last year for the sprinkler remains in bank and will not be used for any other purpose than that for which it was specifically contributed. A supper and some other entertainment will be arranged shortly after Easter, having in view the raising of money to defray current expenses. The citizens can well afford to be generous in their contributions to the improvement and beautifying of the town.

The members of the Ladies' Town Improvement Association are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. B. F. Fleming, Water street, at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon. Business of importance.

ORPHANS' COURT.

Court met with full board present. W. B. Usilton, administrator of James E. Blackiston, deceased, returned report of sales and assets of the personal estate of said deceased, which was filed, approved and ordered to be recorded.

Order passed on petition authorizing Francis X. Kraft, administrator of Henry A. Kraft, deceased, to take the personal property of said deceased at the appraised value as returned in the inventory. Ordered that Charles H. Davis, administrator of Charles H. Davis, deceased, be authorised to expend the sum of $25 for necessary comforts for children of said deceased. After examining and passing sundry claims and without further business, court adjourned to meet Tuesday, March 20th.

WITH OUR ADVERTISERS

ROBERT W. LUSBY.

Mr. Robert W. Lusby, an extensive breeder of fine poultry, has purchased nine fine cockerals from Kulp and Bradley Bros., two of the most noted breeders of fancy poultry strains in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. Two of these birds are prize winners, and all of them are fine. Mr. Lusby will have some of the finest stock birds and eggs in the country to offer to his patrons.

The Stam Drug Co.'s advertisement of garden seed will be found in another column in this issue of the TRANSCRIPT. This firm has for years had, and still has exclusive control for Chestertown of the celebrated Landreth's garden seed. None better or more reliable.

LITTLE LOCALS.

† Annie E. Bateman, of Chestertown, has been granted a pension of $6 per month.

† There were more persons in town on Tuesday than on any day since Christmas.

† Mr. John H. Clendaniel has ordered a fine short-horn bull and several heifers, from the blue grass regions of Kentucky.

† The old steamer Josephine Thompson, which broke into at Travilla's wharf several years ago, has been sold for the junk heap.

† Monday, March the twelfth, was the anniversary of the great blizzard of 1888. It was as a result of this storm that Roscoe Conklin lost his life.

† Mr. B. H. Coburn, of Rock Hall, has raised a 9 months and a half old turkey which weighs 33 pounds. Rather a toothsome bird, and one difficult to beat.

† Capt. Daniels, light-house keeper at Love Point, was taken ill last week; the steamer Endeavor was signaled, and he was taken to the Hopkins hospital for treatment.

† Conductor W. F. Blyman was painfully injured about the head on Tuesday by striking a post as the result of a miscalculation as to distance while on his train.

† The sale of the real estate of Mr. Simon Grollman, advertised in the TRANSCRIPT to take place on Tuesday, did not come off, different arrangements having been made.

† Mr. A. J. Hynson will not give possession of his Queen Anne farm, recently sold to Mr. Anthony, until January 1, 1901. All crops of this year were reserved.

† Sunday night's cold wave and snow storm came as one of the weather surprises of the winter. The thermometer registered as low as 8° above zero on Monday morning.

† The first fish-hawk of the season arrived at Chestertown on Tuesday, March 13. This is several days ahead of time, as doubtless the hawk also thought on Thursday morning.

† Mr. R. C. Morgan, of Rees Corner, laughs at Mr. Silcox's tourteen chicken record. Mrs. Morgan has nearly a hundred young chickens, among them a number of broilers and fryers.

† A large band of Gypsies passed through Chestertown on Saturday. Many favor the passage of a law prohibiting the camping of these people in the county. Certainly no good comes of their visits.

† The B. S. Ford will commence her new schedule on Monday, leaving Chestertown at 7 o'clock A. M. instead of at 8 o'clock as formerly. Her lower river wharves will be reached one hour earlier than under the old schedule.

† Mr. Frank Sappington, of Rock Hall, has purchased a Baltimore pacer which can turn off a mile with ease in 2.25. Mr. Sappington will be glad to meet some of his friends on Coburn's tract during the balmy hours of Easter Monday.

† Tom Chambers, the colored man who drove the team on the night of the great storm in which Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Culp had such thrilling experiences some weeks ago, has been a complete physical wreck as a result of the exposure. He is a victim of rheumatism and can scarcely walk. Mr. and Mrs. Culp suffered no ill effects.

CHURCH NOTES.

Homes for ministerial and lay representatives from Kent to the M. E. Conference have been arranged as follows, for the session in Wilmington, March 21–30: T. J. Shallcross with T. W. Shallcross, Rev. W. B. Guthrie with H. T. Sergeant, Rev. E. P. Roberts with Melville Gambrill, Rev. E. C. Sunfield with E. B. Riley, Rev. D. F. Waddell with H. S. Goldey, Rev. J. M. Arters with I. T. Parker, William B. Copper with Rev. C. A. Grise, W. B. Coleman with H. T. Sergeant, J. C. Davis, Asbury Church; J. W. Harper with E. H. Spencer.

The Church Visitor, the neat little publication issued by the Chesterville church, is a dainty and highly interesting church paper, and gives all of the news with many encouraging hints and suggestions.

An effort is being made by some of the Methodist churches to reduce the salaries of ministers and presiding elders 15 per cent. Several quarterly conferences have notified their pastors that they need not expect to return from the Wilmington Conference next week with their present salaries. The presiding elders of the lower conference districts receive about $1800 a year, and an effort will be made to reduce this pay. The Seaford Quarterly Conference has directed its representative to insist upon a reduction from $1800 to $1500.

MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY.

The McKendree Missionary Society of the Chestertown M. E. Church, held its anniversary exercises on Sunday evening. The chancel was a bower of tropical beauty, while the pleasant program delighted the large audience present. The musical feature, in charge of Miss Anna G. Lambert, was as usual, a striking and pleasant success. Miss Lambert opened the programme by an organ voluntary, which was followed by an inspiring chorus by the school of nearly two hundred and fifty teachers and scholars. Prof. L. J. Smyth led in prayer, after which, the primary department, one of the most interesting features of the school work, gave a chorus of unexce led sweetness. These busy little workers are in charge of Miss Idel Baker, and most gratifying results have followed the work among the intensely busy bees. Mr. H. Staunton Brown, president of the society, then made an address full of encouragement and interest. After a chorus by the school, Mr. A. W. Davis, a successful Sunday school worker, of Wilmington, made an address, giving convincing statistics relative to the great work of missions. Miss Bertie Burchinal rendered a charming solo which was followed by an interesting address by the pastor, Rev. E. C. Sunfield. Collections were then taken up, after which Mr. D. H. Baynard, whose class won the banner by a collection of $10, in a neat speech, presented the trophy to the winners.

The orchestra selections were a most pleasing feature of the occasion. The orchestra was composed as follows: Messrs. E. W. Ringgold, flute; L. B. Russell, violin; D. P. Jones and Arlington Sparks, trombones; J. F. Thompson and R. H. K. Gill, cornets.

The solo, "Won't some one tell them," which was beautifully rendered by Miss Bertie Burchinal, was composed by Mr. W. C. Poole, formerly of Washington College, and set to music by Miss Anna G. Lambert. The class contributions for the evening amounted to $50, and for the year $150. The officers of the society are: President, Mr. Staunton Brown; secretary, Miss Barbara Anthony; treasurer, Miss Mabel Toulson.

FROM BLACK'S.

A pleasant social event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bramble, the occasion being the debut of Miss Fannie, their youngest daughter. Enjoyable music was furnished by Mr. Marcus Ascher, on the autoharp and organ, and Mr. Edward Bramble, on the violin. Several of Mr. Ascher's most amusing songs delighted those present. Dancing and other social pleasures were enjoyed until about 12 o'clock, when refreshments were served. Ice cream, cake, fruits and other dainties having been partaken of, the dance was continued until the wee sma' hours of the morning, when the guests left wishing for the fair debutante many returns of the happy occasion. Among others present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. S. S ton, Mr and Mrs. Thomas Bramble, Misses Mary Ruth, Fannie Bramble, Da y Moffett, Linda Redding, Anna oxwell, Anna and Bessie Hayes, D Todd, Mary Pennington, Susie Schofi ld, Lura Price, Ethel Stevens, Hettie H , L. Boyd, Fannie McIntyre; Messrs. L. Hayes, Jr., Robert and W. Dempsy, R. and E. Bonwill, Harry Boyer, Ervin and Bayard Vansant, Mr. Turner, Edward, Thomas and Robert Bramble, C. Price, E. C. McDernis.

Mr. John M. Comegys is the lamb champion in this section. He has 16 ewes and 24 fine lambs. PROSPERITY.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. Sam'l W. Thomas, will be a candidate before the Philadelphia Conference, for the delegateship to the quadrennial conference, to be held in Chicago. Ex-Governor Pattison will be a lay candidate.

It has been positively decided that Mrs. Wm. S. Walker and her daughter, Miss Nelie, will make their future home in St. Louis. The personal property will be disposed of and the pleasant home near town will be rented.

Miss Helen Kent Shaw has returned to her beautiful home, Kentmere, after spending the winter in Philadelphia, and has as her guest Mrs. Butler, or Germantown, Pa.

Mr. W. H. Stewart, of Baltimore, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. W. H. Stewart, at White Hall, several days this week.

Mrs. C. H. Schuyler, the talented artist and writer, better known in the world of art as Rosalie Mitchell, will have her studio at Betterton during the present year, and will have classes in painting and French. She also proposes to have a class in drawing and painting in Chestertown. Mrs. Mitchell is an alumnus of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, and studied high art for three years in Paris. She is a native of Kent county, and would inspire her native countians with some of her love and enthusiasm for art.

Judge Joseph A. Wickes and family returned on Saturday from Baltimore, where they have spent the winter.

Disappointed in love, a Chestertown swain will not marry this spring. Possibly he will some other spring.

Mr. Carville Tolson, a prominent young farmer, of Kent Island, was in Chestertown on business, on Monday. Mr. Toulson is an aggressive and up-to-date agriculturist, and it is stated he has for eight years made his farm pay him eight per cent. on a ten thousand dollar investment.

Messrs. Garrett Foxwell and J. M. Comegys, visited Mr. D. J. Noland, in Delaware.

The condition of conductor Welch, who was so painfully injured about a mouth ago, continues to improve slowly but none the less surely.

Mr. James S. Harris, accompanied by Mrs. Harris, was in Chestertown on Wednesday, the first time for some months. Mr. Harris has been a great sufferer from rheumatism, but is much improved.

Mr. Thomas Hill, of Baltimore, has spent the week in the county.

Miss Cora Rogers, of Baltimore county, and Miss Adell Roberts, of Ohio, are guests of Miss Katie Trew, in Quaker Neck.

The St. James Sewing Circle met at the home of Mr. John Gale last night. The storm prevented the regular meeting on Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Beck elegantly entertained Mr. and Mrs. William W. Beck at supper on Thursday evening. About thirty persons were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gruber, after a pleasant bridal trip, returned to Chestertown on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Gruber received a hearty welcome from many friends. The TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations.

Mr. William Willis, of St. Michaels, a brother of Mr. Thomas J. Willis, of Kent, has undergone a trying operation for cellulitis, but is reported much better.

Miss Jessie Graham, of Westminster, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dodd.

Joseph Rasin, Jr., of Wye Island, won the booby prize at an entertainment given by the Queenstown Whist and Euchre Club.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING

The Fourth Epworth League Sub-District Convention was held in Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, on Wednesday, March 14th, when the following program was rendered:

10.00 A. M.—Mr. B. F. Rash conducted a delightful devotional service, after which the pastor and president of the local chapter, Rev. John M. Arters, extended a hearty welcome to the convention, making all feel entirely at home for the day.

At 10 30 the Holy Communion was administered by Rev. J. A. Arters, of Cecilton, and the District president to a goodly number of Christian Epworthians.

"Spiritual Aims and Evangelical Possibilities of the Epworth League," was the subject of a very interesting and profitable address by Rev. J. A. Arters

At this point the president asked for a count of all the representatives, and the secretary reported sixty-five present.

The paper read by Miss Anna G. Lambert on the "Three I Wills of the Pledge," was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Susan Hague made the 2 o'clock song and prayer service one of deep spiritual interest.

"How to Be a Soul-Winner," was the subject of a most helpful and carefully-prepared paper read by Miss Mary C. Burchinal. The Conference on Dying Leagues—Causes and Remidies, brought forth many practical and helpful suggestions. "Why I like the Epworth League," was the topic of a splendidly prepared paper rendered by Miss Florence Jewell. Rev. J. M. Arters conducted a half hour service with the Junior League, of which too much could not be said. It was unique, beautiful, instructive, religious.

Mr. Samuel Brown delighted the convention with his earnest address on "Dwarfs and Giants of the Epworth League." There was much to be remembered in the clear and thoughtful paper given by Miss Laura Greenwood. "The Quiet Hour," conducted by Rev. W. R. Coleman, proved helpful to Epworthians in their devotional life.

The evening service was one of great blessing to the people. The song service was truly inspiring. Rev. E. C. Sunfield preached the sermon. The consecration and testimony meeting that followed was participated in by at least one hundred persons. Thus ended a day of profitable services to earnest Epworthians. The church was beautifully decorated. The new organ, recently purchased, is a gem, and the ladies cannot be excelled in providing an abundance of good things to eat. The pastor, Rev. J. M. Arters, is a hustler, and has a hustling church with him. A number of Chestertown Epworthians attended the exercises.

DROWNED HIMSELF.

Mr. W. K. Davis, of Galena, committed suicide on Saturday afternoon by drowning. He had been suffering very much lately from bladder trouble, and was heard to make the remark that if there was a river close he would drown himself. On Saturday morning he was suffering greatly and arose about 3 o'clock and went to W. A. Hyland's machine shop and stayed there until breakfast. He left Galena in the morning after telling Mrs. Ruth, with whom he boarded, not to wait dinner for him if he was not back in time. He was seen walking around the river shore at Rasin's wharf early in the afternoon. This was the last seen of him alive. Not returning home by night, a general alarm was given, and searching parties scoured the river shore and woods bordering on it. About ten o'clock an object was noticed about twenty feet from the shore on the Constable farm, occupied by H. C. Gray, distant three miles from Galena, which at first was supposed to be a log, but which proved to be the body of Mr. Davis. Attached to the corpse was a stone from a rope around his waist. The stone weighed 41 pounds. Further search revealed his hat, covered with leaves, in a hollow stump, and his cane near by.

It is supposed he had been all day trying to drown himself, but so many people were around that he could not do so without being seen. He was tracked all around the river and creek shore into the woods, where there was a pile of stone, from which he selected one. From there his tracks led directly to where his body was found.

Mr. Davis was about 65 years of age and was foreman of Hyland's machine shops for thirty years. He leaves a brother in Philadelphia, and a niece in Pottstown, Pa. A coroner's inquest was held on Sunday morning, which rendered a verdict of suicide by drowning. He left a note in his bureau to Mr. F. H. Ruth, asking him to settle his estate and give what was left to his neice and brother. No mention was made of his intention to kill himself. The note was dated March 8.

FARMERS ORGANIZE.

Tomato Contracts are now Being Signed.

Isaac Robinson has contracted at Chestertown for 125 acres of peas, at 2½ cents per pound; beans, 15 cents per peach basket, and tomatoes at $6 per ton, the grower to furnish baskets.

The Pearson Packing Company, of Baltimore, has contracted for tomatoes at ten cents per basket, settlements to be made weekly,—in other words, the contract of last year, which was so highly satisfactory to Kent county growers for this firm, has again been entered into with a number of Kent county growers.

A representative of George N. Numsen was over on Saturday and contracted with a number of the growers at Buck Neck at $6 per ton, the grower to furnish two-thirds and the packer one-third of the baskets.

No contracts were made for Gale's wharf. A representative of Mr. Numsen is expected over to-day, when it is expected that contracts for that point will be made.

It is thought that the Rock Hall cannery will be operated this season, but nothing definite will be known until March 26th, when Mr. Arthur will meet the growers relative to contracts.

The cannery at Black's has contracted for corn at $8 per ton.

Delaware farmers are taking a practical view of the much-talked of idea that farmers should go into aggressive organization for mutual protection. Here is the elaborate plan adopted by the tomato growers of Hartley:

"They declared they would not grow tomatoes under any other contract than the one given below. A pledge was also formulated and largely signed:

"This agreement entered into this 3rd day of March, 1900, between Mr. Farmer of the first part, and Mr. Canner of the second part, shall be in full force and effect until the crop of tomatoes for the year 1900, shall have been grown, delivered and accounts settled.

"1st. That the said Mr. Farmer, of the first part, shall grow and deliver to the cannery situated near Hartley, Del., for the said Mr. Canner, of the second part, all tomatoes grown on two acres of ground, more or less, in quality as good or better as follows: tomatoes to be not less than 1½ inch in diameter, ⅔ red, yellow or purple ripe and may include tomatoes having one half or more meat fit for human food or canning value.

"2nd. That the said Mr. Canner, of the second part, will receive and accept all tomatoes at his cannery situated near Hartley, Del., in quality already described, every day from 7 o'clock A. M. until 6 o'clock P. M., except Sunday, and Saturday after 12 o'clock noon, and will pay to the said Mr. Farmer, of the first part, the sum of ten cents, lawful money, per ½ bushel payable in two payments as follows: for all tomatoes delivered previous to September 15 or 20, and for the balance of crop November 20, 1900.

"3rd. That the said Mr. Farmer, of the first part shall set out ½ (1 acre) of his ground on or before May 20, the other ½ (1 acre) on or before June 20. No plants to be set after June 20, but the said Mr. Farmer, of the first part, shall not be held responsible for tomato plants destroyed by the elements or acts of God.

"4th. Any violation of this contract or agreement will impose a forfeiture of $50 lawful money.

"5th That the said Mr. Canner, of the second part, will designate a number and will mark all baskets with this number coming to his cannery full of tomatoes from the said Mr. Farmer, of the first part, and will empty all baskets within 24 hours and keep the same separate from any other baskets.

"6th. That the said Mr. Canner, of the second part, will pay one dollar, lawful money, to the said Mr. Farmer, of the first part, it to be a part of the consideration to be paid for tomatoes to be delivered."

ORATORICAL CONTEST.

Washington College to be Ably Represented.

At a meeting of representatives from St. John's, Maryland Agricultural, Western Maryland and Washington Colleges held at the University Club in Baltimore on Saturday, March, 10th, the following gentlemen were named as a committee on composition to examine the orations of the contestants in the oratorical contest to be held in Annapolis on the last Friday in April. These gentlemen are to decide upon the relative merit of the orations so far as subject matter is concerned:

Principals.—T. J. Williams, of the Baltimore Sun; Bernard C. Steiner, Enoch Pratt Library; Rev. C. Ernest Smith, D. D., rector of St. Michaels and All Angels P. E. Church, Baltimore.

Judge Pearce was not put on as a principal on account of his close relationship to W. C.

The following were chosen as a committee on delivery, said committee to act on night of contest:

Principals.—Geo. R. Gaither, Esq., Baltimore; W. L. Findley, Esq., Baltimore; L. Irving Handy, Wilmington, Del.

The orations have to be type written and submitted to the regular committee on composition by Thursday, April 5, 1900. A sealed envelope containing the name and subject of each oration is sent to the secretary of the association. Each oration is marked by each member of the composition committee and a sealed report forwarded to the secretary. These reports are to be opened in the presence of the representatives of the colleges on the night of the contest, and the marks combined with the marks of the committee on delivery furnish the averages by which the victor is selected. As before published in the TRANSCRIPT, Messrs. McDorman, as principal, and Sutton, as alternate, will represent Washington College in the contest.

Dr. Reid, of Washington College, has been inyited by Examiner Duer, of Somerset county, to address the county teachers' institute which meets in Crisfield next Tuesday. Dr. Reid has accepted and will leave Chestertown on Monday to fill his engagement.

LYNCH'S ITEMS.

The farmers of this vicinity are contracting with Isaac Robinson for tomatoes for the coming season.

Miss Mattie Perkins, who has been confined to her bed all winter, has been somewhat improved, but at this writing is reported worse.

Mr. Frank Usilton and family have recently moved from Wilmington to our village.

The ladies of the Christian Endeavor Society, of Lynch's M. P. Chapel, held a birthday party at the residence of Mr. Samuel Mann, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 13th. Each person was requested to bring as many pennies as he was years old and from this a nice little sum was realized. Misses Clara, Elsie and Susie Mann, as usual, entertained their guests in a delightful manner by the rendition of vocal and instrumental music. Toward the latter part of the evening the couples repaired to the spacious dining room and partook of a grand repast. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Rash, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. Benton, Mrs. Atwell, Mr. and Mrs. John Copper, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mann; Misses Lizzie Hepbron, Florence Jewell, Delma Carter, Blanche Duyer, Bessie Ivens, Bertha Biddie, Nan Matthews, Elsie, Clara and Susie Mann, Jennie Coleman, Lottie Copper; Messrs. Harry Coy, James, Stanley and Herbert Matthews, Benj. Rash, Frisby Newcomb, Frank Rouse, Harry and George Williams, Sam'l McKnett, Sam'l Mann, Frank and Wilmer Benton, Isaac Duyer, Eugene Gooding, James Shinn, Willie and David Biddle, Hiley Crew, Carl Perkins, Harry Jewell, Charlie Ivens, Elmer Jones, Robert Rash, Harry Clark, George Sutton, Louis Atwell, Wiley Hodgson, Marion Rash, Leonard, Walter and Frank Mann. ONE.

A. R. De Fluent, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by M. A. Toulson.

MILLINGTON NEWS.

The town election for the purpose of selecting three commissioners to serve for the fiscal year beginning April 1st, was held last Saturday, March 10th. But very little interest was manifested by the citizens of the town and there were only 28 ballots cast, as against about 100 ballots cast last year. The newly elected board were B. W. Duling, of the present board; J. T. Power and F. L. Smith.

Rev. Vaughn S. Collins, principal of the Conference Academy, Dover, preached in the M. E. Church last Sunday morning and evening. He also preached at Holden's in the afternoon.

Mr. Alan C. Duling, of our town, and Miss Ida Slaughter, of Queen Anne county, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Slaughter, near Crumpton, last Thursday evening.

Supt. E. E. Gambrill, of the Unicorn Mills, is building four new houses for the employees of the mill. Mr. G. B. Taylor has the work in charge. Mr. Gambrill has also had a hack built, which he has run between the mill and town on Sundays for the accommodation of any of his employees who wish to attend the M. E. Church South.

Our fishermen are making great preparations for catching herring, and white and yellow perch, but very few herring have been caught owing to the recent cold snap.

Mrs. R. W. Comegys and Miss Millie Comegys, were guests of Mrs. Albert Ware, Massey, on Saturday.

Mr. Burke Faithful, of Church Hill, spent last week the guest of Mr. Bradford Dudley, near town.

Mr. T. J. McWhorter, of Philadelphia, spent Wednesday in town.

Mr. J. Clifton Mallalieu, of New York, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Mallalieu, at the Brick Hotel.

Dr. H. N. Hammond, of Baltimore, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Jones, for several days.

Mr. F. A. Smith, of Greensboro, spent Sunday the guest of Dr. F. A. Walls.

Mr. Harry Bamberger, of Philadelphia, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bamberger, near town. Mr. Bamberger bought the Michael Burns property, located about three miles from Millington, which was sold at Centreville, on Tuesday, the 13th.

Mr. Isaac Roser, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. George Smith, Philadelphia.

Constable J. F. Lockerman was confined to his home a few days last week with a sprained ankle.

Mrs. J. W. Willis has returned to Cambridge, from visiting her mother, Mrs. George Hurlock.

Mr. M. S. Haas, of Milton, Pa., has been in town several days. Mr. Haas represents the Johnston Harvester Co., of which Mr. W. C. Rolph is also an agent.

FROM ROCK HALL.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Casey, of Edesville, were pleasantly surprised on Friday evening by a party of Rock Hall friends invading their home. The visitors had made careful preparation that the evening should be a success and did not allow the rain to dampen their spirits, but stowed themselves with refreshments of ice cream, cake, fruit, &c., in carriages provided by Messrs. Jack Joiner, James Casey, Chas. Jones, and John Casey, and found the drive of a mile or two a not unpleasant part of the program. A hospitable welcome was accorded them and some hours of social intercourse were passed. The younger (and older) folks indulged in a game of "spinning the plate" Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Joiner, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rich, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. John Casey, Mesdames, Kate Casey, Emma Ayres, Ella Middleton, Mary Jeffers, Mollie Durding, Etta Leaverton, Alice Ayres, Kate Maslin, Hennie Rodney, Mr. Chas. Jones, Misses Nellie Casey, Clara Rodney, Delma Middleton, Beatrice Maslin, Helen Rich, Emma Joiner, Susie Casey, Mildred Durding, Florence Hogan, Mr. Willis Durding, Frank Joiner and LeRoy Crosby.

The numerous visitors from here to the Epworth League Convention at Fairlee, on Wednesday, report it to have been the very best meeting of the kind they ever attended.

It was so cold on Monday morning that one of our milkmen had to put his milk can on a customer's stove and thaw the frozen milk.

Mrs. Quick, of Baltimore, has been a guest of Mrs. M. G. Young.

Miss Oneida Maslin spent the last two weeks in Baltimore and Chestertown.

Mrs. Wm. Frazier, and Granville, the little son of Mr. Wm. Ashley, are patients of Dr. W. O. Selby.

Mr. B. H. Coburn, as soon as the weather permits, will put his track in condition for his annual Easter trot. There are some good horses in this section of the county and those who come down may rest assured that they will be warmly received and will meet on the turf foemen worthy of their best speed.

IN MEMORIAM.

WILLIAM S. WALKER.

At a meeting yesterday, the following resolutions of respect were passed by the vestry of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, as a tribute to the memory of the late William S. Walker:

Resolved, That through the death of William S. Walker, Chester Parish has lost its foremost member, more than forty years of whose life was devoted with unfaltering purpose and unfailing affection to the advancement of the Church of Christ.

For thirty-three years he was a vestryman of Chester Parish, always prompt in his attendance upon the meetings, always wise in counsel, and liberal in his contributions to the needs of the church, whether within the Parish or the Diocese, or beyond these bounds, in the larger sphere of Christian fellowship.

From the organization of the Diocese of Easton in 1868, until his death, he was regularly chosen to represent the Parish in the Diocesan Convention, and during the same period he was regularly chosen by the convention as one of the delegates to the general convention, and in both bodies his sound judgment and wise counsel were known and respected.

To the Bishop and to the Rector he was always a true friend, not merely in times of quietness and confidence, but in the hour of confusion and trial, not speaking smooth things because they are easy to speak and pleasant to hear, but speaking the truth as he saw it, knowing that "faithful are the wounds of a friend," and thus he won and held the heart of Bishop and of Rector.

His religious life was marked by a cheerfulness of spirit and simplicity of faith, accompanied by a firmness of conviction and frankness of avowal, which attracted all who knew him, and commanded their sincere respect.

This simple memorial is inscribed upon these pages by his associates, not merely as a just tribute to his worth, but as an example to the young men of the Parish to whom its future, under Providence, must be committed.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the county papers and in the Churchman.

Vestry:
HENRY B. MARTIN, Rector;
JAMES A. PEARCE, Registrar;
LEWIN W. WICKES,
RICHARD D. HYNSON,
W. FRANK HINES,

WILLIAM W. BECK,

DIED.

GILPIN.—At her home in Baltimore city, on Monday evening, Mrs. Fannie E. Gilpin, wife of the late Albert G. Gilpin, of that city. Mrs. Gilpin, who was a mother of Mrs. Harry Clay Brown, now of Fort Worth, Texas, but formerly of Chestertown, had been ill for some time. Mrs. Brown was telegraphed for and reached her mother's bedside before the end came.

Rev. J. E. Wilson took s discourse last Sunday the words, " on of Man Has Power on Earth to F Sins." Truths of Divine Power were given in his calmly, eloquent way. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Martin and Miss Lillie Legg united with the church. So far as it is possible to learn his charge here and at Millington hope that he may be returned to this circuit after conference which will assemble in Washington, D. C. on April 4th. His wife's health continues in a low state, but we fondly hope the mild weather of spring may in a great measure restore her health.

Mr. Chas. Cranor, after an absence of two months, has returned to his home.

Mr. Thomas Bennett will doctor our roads from this place to where the Hibernia school was formerly located. Mr. Bennett will do his level best, will give to them patient toil and careful study; which they greatly need.

We read with much interest the column of Local history in last weeks "News." Miss Emily Mason, of Baltimore, compiled a work called "Southern Poems of the War," which was extensively sold, certainly a goodly number were sold in this county just after the close of the conflict between the States. That the late Dr. P. Wroth and Mr. W. S. Walker should have had a keen appreciation of the poems of Lieut. Col. Hawkins is to be expected. Several poems of this brilliantly gifted son of the Muses appears in the volume of Miss Mason and a brief sketch of his career is therein given. Captured during the first year of the war he was kept prisoner until its close and in a brief period thereafter, to use his exquisitely beautiful words in alluding to the death of a comrade, "he too was carried to the courts above where the golden harps of the Seraphim chime to the touch of love." The renowned and late lamented George D. Prentis bestowed upon him the loftiest meed of praise. Tennessee has the honor of being his native state.

OCCASIONAL.

Tolchester Notes.

Mr. John Williams, a former Kent countian but now engaged at Curtis Bay, spent the week in Kent looking for young men who want work. He stated that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will give laborers 15 cents per hour and carpenters 25 cents per hour with a promise of one years employment.

Among the strange things which floated down the Suspuehanna with the debris of last week was a deer skin with feet and head still on. Mr. G. E. Noland pickep the skin up on the bay shore and expects to have it tanned for a rug.

A party of gentlemen headed by Mr. S. J. Wickes, of Rock Hall, spent a part of this week at Annapolis looking after the interests of Kent fishermen. HAPS.
