authorised by Ordinance, approved 17th May, 1837, of the denomination of One dollar".

The Bill and amendment was then laid on the table.

The Second Branch returned the appropriation Bill, with a message dissenting from the amendment of the First Branch, to the 1st Section, 6th line thereof. This Branch adhered to their amendment by the following vote, and informed the Second Branch thereof by message.

Yeas, Messrs President, Stansbury, Metzger, Legrand, Alricks, Howard, Cross, W. H. Cole, Schwartzauer, Myer, McDonald, Brooks, Brown, Watkins – 14.

Nays, Messrs Randolph, Atkinson, Mathiot, Gatchell, Dryden, Smith, A. G. Cole – 8.

The resolution relative to gravelling the Belle Air Road &c. was returned by the Second Branch, endorsed, "concurred in with a proposed amendment", which amendment was read and concurred in by the following vote:

Yeas, Messrs President, Atkinson, Stansbury, Mathiot, Gittings, Gatchell, Schwartzauer, Myer, Dryden, Smith, McDonald, Creagh, A. G. Cole, Brown, Watkins – 15.

Nays, Messrs Randolph, Metzger, Legrand, Alricks, Howard, Cross, W. H. Cole, Brooks – 8.

The resolution authorising the repairing of the Gun House, in Madison Street, &c., was returned by the Second Branch, endorsed, "concurred in".

A preamble and resolutions relative to the late destructive Fire at Charleston, South Carolina, was received from the Second Branch, read a first and by special order the second time, concurred in, and returned.

Mr. A. G. Cole on leave offered the following, which was read a first and by special order the second time, concurred in, and sent to the Second Branch, who also concurred in, and returned the same.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Register be and he is hereby directed to pay out of any unappropriated money in the Treasury to Mrs Williams, or order, the sum of ten dollars and fifty-six cents, being the balance due her late husband as Lieutenant of the Night Watch.

The report and resolution from the Second Branch, relating to the Commissioners for issuing small notes, was read the second time, concurred in, and returned.

(the)

The revised Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance for the extinguishment of Fires", was read the second time, the amendments of the Second Branch, concurred in, and the Bill passed, and returned.

The Bill from the Second Branch, entitled "A Supplement to an Ordinance entitled an Ordinance for the valuation and assessment of property in the City of Baltimore", was taken up for consideration and read. Mr. Alricks moved the following amendments as additional Sections:

Sec 3. And be it enacted and ordained, That when the said Assessors shall have completed their duties as aforesaid, there shall be appointed a board of review, to be styled Commissioners of Review consisting of the three Assessors appointed under and by virtue of Ordinance No. 31, approved 22nd April, 1836, and also of two other persons to be appointed as other Officers of the City are appointed, who shall hold their first meeting at such time and place as may be designated by the Mayor, and shall commence their sessions for reviewing the valuations and hearing appeals two weeks after being notified by the Mayor that the Assessment Bills are ready, having first given ten days notice in all the daily papers published in the City, of the time and place of meeting.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted and ordained, That the Commissioners of Review shall each receive two dollars per day for every day they may be in actual session.

Which amendment being read, Mr. Alricks moved to amend the said amendment as follows: strike out all from the word "of", 3rd Section 6th line, down to "persons", 9th line, and insert "five". Mr. Smith moved to strike out the said "five", and insert "three", which was concurred in, & the amendment of Mr. Alricks as amended was adopted. The Bill was then passed and returned to the Second Branch.

A resolution directing the President of the Second Branch to hand over to the Mayor the several revised Ordinances of this Session was received from the Second Branch, read a first and by special order the second time, concurred in, and returned.

A revised Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to continue in force certain Ordinances therein mentioned, and to repeal others", was received from the Second Branch, read a first and by special order the second time; the amendments proposed by the Second Branch thereto,

(concurred)