Mr. Wallis offered the following, which was read:

"Resolved by the first branch of the City Council, that Philip Wallis one of the members from the Seventh Ward, be and he is hereby expelled from the first Branch of the City Council for disorderly behaviour."

Whereas, the above resolution has been offered by R. C. Cross, the undersigned asks, as a matter of right, that the specifications, under the head of "disorderly behaviour", be fully set forth to enable him to make his defence accordingly - It is the high prerogative of every Citizen of Maryland, agreeably to the declaration of the Bill of Rights, which happens to be paramount to the nuisance
