May 29th 1839.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Slaughter-house erected by William Schley on Republican between Lexington and Fayette-Streets be permitted to remain until otherwise ordered by the Mayor, any thing in Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Second Branch returned the above resolution endorsed "Concurred in."

A resolution appropriating $400 to pay George R. Richardson Esq. for services rendered in prosecuting certain criminal cases in Anne Arundel County Court, was received from the Second Branch, and read a first time. — Mr. Pinkney moved for a second reading by special order. Mr. Barnard called for the yeas and nays on the motion, which were as follows:

Yeas — Messrs. President, Randolph, Metzgar, Knotts, Seidenstricker, Mathiot, Crofs, G. Meyer, Yeates, Wallis, Pinkney, Rufell, J. Meyer, Snyder, McDonald, Keyser, Watkins 18.

Nays — Messrs. Powel, Pindell, Solling, Barnard, Brown — 5.

Determined in the affirmative, and the resolution being accordingly read the second time, Mr. Barnard offered the following as a substitute therefor.

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Register be and he is hereby authorised to pay, with the approbation of the Mayor, to Geo. R. Richardson, Deputy Attorney General, the sum of Four hundred dollars, out of the funds paid into the City Treasury, under the fourth section of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled "an Act concerning Crimes and punishments" passed at December Session 1835, Chap. 200, provided the Counsellor for the City will first render his opinion to the Mayor in favor of the claim of said Richardson, stating that the services performed by him were strictly pertaining to his duties as an Officer of the City Court, and that the Court under the Law have a right to make an order to be paid out of said funds for services rendered in Anne Arundel County Court, in the trial of removed cases.

The above substitute being read, was disented from by the following vote, the yeas and nays thereon being demanded by Mr. Wallis:

Yeas — Messrs. Powel, Pindell, Solling, Crofs, Yeates, Rufell, J. Meyer, Barnard, Brown, Watkins — 10.

Nays — Messrs. President, Randolph, Knotts, Mathiot, G. Meyer, Wallis, Pinkney, McDonald, Bruns, Keyser — 10.

The resolution was then concurred in, and returned to the Second Branch. On the question of concurring in said resolution, the yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Barnard, were as follows:

Yeas — Messrs. President, Randolph, Knotts, Mathiot, Crofs, G. Meyer, Yeates, Wallis, Pinkney, Rufell, J. Meyer, McDonald, Bruns, Keyser, Brown, Watkins — 16.

Nays — Messrs. Powel, Pindell, Solling, Barnard — 4.

Mr. Pindell on leave introduced a Bill entitled "An Ordinance to repeal a supplement to an Ordinance entitled An Ordinance to restrain the evil practices of Dogs going at large in the City," which was read a first, and by special order the second time. — Mr. Seidenstricker moved to amend the same by striking out the words "to prevent Dogs barking, biting, howling &c." which was assented to. The Bill was then rejected by the following vote, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. Wallis.

Yeas — Messrs. Pindell, Seidenstricker, Wallis, Snyder, McDonald, Watkins — 6.

Nays — Messrs. President, Randolph, Metzgar, Knotts, Powel, Solling, Mathiot, Crofs, G. Meyer, Yeates, Pinkney, Rufell, J. Meyer, Barnard, Bruns, Keyser, Brown — 17.

A report and resolution relative to Bun Alley or Benton Street, were received from the Second Branch, read a first, & by special order the second time, concurred in, and returned.

Mr. Crofs from the Committee submitted the following report and a Bill entitled "An Ordinance Supplementary to an Ordinance for the improvement of Jones' Falls," which was read a first, and by special order the second time, and on motion of Mr. Watkins laid on the table.
