Baltimore April 1st 1841

Sir,
I found on examination that the hose attached to the Centre market is very much out of order. I called on Mr Hooton who is a hose maker and he says that they are not worth repairing, and if repaired the expense will be considerable, and will not last through the season. his opinion is that new hose will be much cheaper, it will require 75 or 100 feet

Very respt, your obt servt,
Thos C Fanling
Clerk of Centre Market
