The bill being on its passage "was passed"

Mr Purviance called for the second reading of the resolution attached to the report of the joint committee on claims on the petition of John B. Seidenstricker.

Mr Browning moved to lay it on the table, which was determined in the affirmative.

Mr Breck from the committee submitted the following report, which was read and laid on the table.

The joint committee on streets, to whom was recommitted the report made upon the petition of Thomas Kelso and others, relative to changing the name of the portion of Potter Street, embraced between Gay and French Streets, to that of Chesnut Street, have bestowed upon the subject an attentive consideration and respectfully report: that the portion of Potter Street, between Gay and French streets is entirely and distinctly separated from the remaining portion of Potter Street, is of greater width, and was previously named Union Street, which name was changed to that of Potter Street, as your committee are informed and believe, without the solicitation or approbation of the property holders and residents of Union Street. Your committee further state, that it is a fact of general notoriety, that a portion of the narrow part of Potter Street, is inhabited by persons of ill fame and evil repute; and it is for the purpose of avoiding the disagreeable associations resulting from such a similarity of name, as well as a depreciation in the value of their property, that your petitioners have invoked the relief of the council.

Your

Your committee are of the opinion, that the prayer of the petition is just and reasonable, and that your petitioners are entitled to the relief prayed for. They therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying bill

All of which is respectfully submitted.
