harbor, relative to railing Harford Run, endorsed "dissented from"

The bill entitled "An ordinance to prevent swine going at large within the limits of the City of Baltimore," was received from the Second Branch, read and laid on the table.

Mr Hall moved to reconsider the vote had on referring the petition of William Chalmers and others, to the joint committee on education, which was determined in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr Green, the petition was referred to the Commissioners of Public Schools.

Mr Brock moved to call up bill No 34, entitled "An ordinance providing for cleaning the public streets, lanes and alleys, in the City of Baltimore, by contract."

The question being on taking up the bill, it was determined in the negative by the following vote – the yeas and nays being called for by Mr Brock:

Yeas.– Messrs Fields, Brock, Dallam, Purviance, Browning, Addison, Ridgely, Green and Gault. – 9.

Nays.– Messrs President, Cromey, Hudson, Hall, Hynes, Turner, Slaylor, Kennedy, Brown, Page, Russell, Jr. Marley, Tuter and Barnet. – 14.

The President from the committee submitted the following report which was read a first and by special order the second time and adopted:

The joint committee on police, to whom was referred the petition of John Riley, representing that he holds a certificate of six per cent stock for two hundred and sixty two dollars, issued by this corporation on the 5th of April 1842. but given in error, in the name of John Dryden, instead of John Riley, as he was the purchaser, and desiring that the Register may be authorised to issue another certificate in lieu of the one he now holds, have had the subject under consideration, and conceiving the request reasonable, and that it should be granted, we recommend the passage of the following resolution.
