TO THE CITIZENS OF CHESTERTOWN.

Since announcing my candidacy for re-election as commissioner of Chestertown, I find that the action of the board in reference to the parading of bands on the street, has been misunderstood and misinterpreted. At that time many people complained that parading the street was calculated to frighten teams, causing them to break away and the result would be a lawsuit vs. the town. Many ladies also expressed an unwillingness to come to town fearing injury to self and team. Hence the board thought it for the best interests of the town and its citizens to adopt precautionary measures. If the citizens wish the bands to parade the streets under a permit I am willing, if a petition be presented signed by responsible citizens, to advocate the granting of said petition. My only desire is to subserve the best interest of the entire community.

A Business Proposition.

CENTREVILLE, MD, April 3rd, 1902.

W. H. Gibson, Esq, Gen'l Agent for the New York Life Insurance Company, Centreville, Md.

Dear Sir:—It gives me great pleasure to acknowledge the statement of the options on my 20 year policy for $2500 in New York Life, maturing August 5th next. I paid the company in twenty years $1839, and they now offer me in cash $2426.31, being $587.31 profit, or in other words they will return me all the premiums I paid and nearly 3¼ per cent. interest on the money; besides having the protection of $2500 for 20 years for nothing; or they will give me a paid up policy for $4030. The settlements offered, I must confess, are agreeably surprising, and I must thank you for soliciting me to take the insurance. Such a statement as the above should be interesting to any intelligent community. Respectfully.

J. Hersey Hall.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNED.

The Session of 1903 to be Held in Pocomoke City.

Pocomoke City will entertain the next session of the Maryland Methodist Protestant Conference. This was settled upon on Tuesday morning when the invitation from the pleasant little town in Worcester county which entertained the conference, some years ago was unanimously accepted. The conference, after a hard day's work, adjourned at 10 o'clock, on Tuesday night.

President Little, before announcing appointments, said he had used his best judgment in the matter and had worked and prayed about it. "I do not expect to be above criticism," he said, "but I want my brethren to believe that I have done my best."

The Kent county appointments are: Chestertown, D. L. Greenfield; Chesapeake, J. L. Elderdice; Kennedyville, R. S. Roe; St. James, E. C. Makosky. A few other appointments are: R. K Lewis, Accomac; J. L. Mills, Brooklyn; S. B. Tredway; J. M. Gill, Central; Lewis Randall, Dorchester; J. M. Holmes, East Baltimore; W. R. Graham, Easton; J. F. Bryan, Georgetown, Del.; W. M. Strayer, Jefferson; F. H. Mullineaux; W. N. Sherwood, Lawsonia; C. K. McCaslin, Liberty; G. Q. Bacchus, Lynchburg; W. B. Judefind, Parksley; T. O. Crouse, West Baltimore.

Rev. W. W. White, who has been stationed at Deer Creek, caused considerable surprise by arising while a debate was in progress Tuesday morning and asking that the church give him his credentials so that he could withdraw from the conference. The chair stated that there was nothing against Mr. Whites record and that he could withdraw at will. None of the ministers knew a cause for his action. President Little said later in the day that he had not seen Mr. White since the day conference met and he is sure his action was not prompted by disappointment about his assingment for next year. Mr. White informed a correspondent of the Sun that he would take an appointment in the Methodist Episcopal Church at once.

PREACHERS STIRRED UP.

When the report of the Committee on Official Character was read by Rev. J. D. Kinzer it brought to their feet a number of the ministers who were indirectly affected by the report. The report stated that the personal reports bear evidence of haste and carelessness in preparation. Many items deemed of importance by the conference are ignored altogether by many pastors. Many reports give no answer to questions. Some reports are even unsigned by the pastors. One minister reports an absence of six weeks from his charge. The financial report of the pastors were also examined and it was found that 72 pastors were deficient in the payment of their assessments, yet 51 of these received their salaries in full and some were overpaid. "We learn," continued the report, "that only about fifty out of 135 charges took a collection for college endowment The stewards collect the pastor's salary, but pastors must be held accountable for the presentation of the general interests and the collections of the assessments When a charge pays a pastor in full and the assessments are only half paid we are forced to the conclusion that the fault is with the pastor. It is not inability on the part of the charge, but want of strenuous effort on the part of the pastor. We make these recommendations:

"That after this year pastors who report their assessments paid in part only will be required to explain in open conference why they have failed; that pastors who have been absent from their work an unreasonable time shall also explain."

The following appointments were made on Friday for Sunday: Centreville Methodist Protestant Church, morning, J. W. Trout, evening, C. L. Whitaker, Christian Endeavor service at 6,45 P. M., J. M. Dickey; Wye, Rev. Dr. F. T. Tagg; Ruthsburg, Dr. S. J. Smith; Ashland, W. M. Strayer; Denton, Dr. W. L. Elderdice; Kent Island, E. S. Fooks; Crumpton, J. L. Ward; Chestertown, Dr. G. E. McManimau; Kennedyville, G. R. McCready; Clayton, G. F. Farring; Broadway, Baltimore, A. S. Beane; offered W. F. Wright, Crisfield, J. M. Holms; Centreville Methodist Episcopal Church, morning, F. H. Lewis, evening, T. J. Ogburn; Burrisville, 3 P. M., G. M. Clayton; Sudlersville, G. R. Donaldson; Church Hill, N. O. Gibson; East Baltimore, C. M. Compher; Epworth League, Centreville, J. M. Dickey.

Mr. Holmes motion for the establishment of the five year limit was defeated and that gentleman stated that he would not introduce it again.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

The committee on temperance made its report. It is stated that out of 30 bills before the Legislature on the last day 27 of them were disposed of favorable to the temperence cause. The report continued:

"The present status of the army canteen question and the favorable attitude of men high in army circles are sources of much encouragement and exalted hope. We believe the pulpit is the place and the minister the man and the Gospel the power by which men are to be saved from inebriety, the traffic deposed and the world redeemed from the great blight. We therefore urge the ministers to preach the word, to be instant in season and out of season and to this great question. We extend the hand of cooperation to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and bid them godspeed.

Mrs. C. V. Newman, Mrs. George E. Lambert; Messrs. D. A. Bacchus, Raymond Simpers and Lew Skirven, attended services in Centreville on Sunday.

NET RESULTS.

The Calendar Fair's Many Interesting Features Brought in the Money.

Many persons have expressed great interest in the results financially of the Calendar Fair held in Stam's Hall last week. The great beauty and variety of the booths were the wonder of all who where so fortunate as to be able to attend. All the booths were charming to look upon, yet as a matter of course some were more popular as money-getters than some others. That some of the amounts are, when compared with the amounts taken in at some other tables, comparatively small, was in no sense due to the lack of energy or effective labor of the young ladies in charge.

The amounts taken in by the different booths were: January booth, chocolate and tea, Mrs. W. B. Copper, chairman of committee, $22; February, Miss Idel Baker, confectionery, $50.43; March, cream and ices, Mrs. Georgia Reed, $44 50; April, cherry-colored cat and wingless bat, M. W. Thomas, $3.25; May, fancy articles, Mrs. C. R. Twilley, $60; June, cake, etc., Mrs. H. B. Simmons, $24.44; July, fancy articles of usefulness and beauty, Miss Anna G. Lambert, $42.06; August, gypsy tent, Miss Bessie Stuart, $13.20; September, cake, etc., Mrs. Wm. E. Moody, $12.35; October, useful and fancy articles, Mrs. F. M. Miller, 24.32; November, Klondike, Miss Mary Burchinal, $17.31; December, Mr. Norman Jefferson, $31 94. The supper table took in $104.85, and in two nights $59 30 were taken in at the door.

The ladies who presided at the supper table are: Mrs. S. L. Thomas and Mrs. William E. Jarrell, Mrs. Marcie Burchinal and Miss Sallie Wilking, Mrs. M. A. Toulson and Mrs. James Dunbracco, Mrs. Arlington Sparks and Mrs. William R. Pippin, Mrs. M. E. Brown and Mrs. R. F. Parks.

Contributions and orders are still being received. Miss Anna Lambert has this week received three contributions—one from Texas, one from Ohio and one from the far west. Miss Baker has recived an order for candy and thus the good work insists upon going on.

After paying all outstanding indepteness the ladies netted about $450.

The ladies to whom credit is due for this splendid success were named in last week's TRANSCRIPT.

Circuit Court.—On Monday week, April 21, the spring term of the circuit court for Kent county will convene. The ourlook at present is for a short and uninteresting term. The civil docket is unusually well stocked with damage cases but several of them will be carried over. The damage case of J. S. Vandergrift against William Burke is ready for trial, as also is the damage case of George W. Warner against Jonathan G. Moore for $5,000. This is another branch of the now celebrated Millington case, one branch of which resulted in a verdict of $975 for Mrs. Warner at last fall's term. The damage cases of Albert Groves against Mrs. Lydia C. Shaw, and William A. Blakeny against William A. Burke will be carried over. The interesting case of the Merchants' and Farmers' Steamboat Company against Larry Bates Russell, is also ready for trial and will probably be called for trial. The case of Albert Godwin against the county commissioners for $500 damages will probably be tried. This is a claim for damages claimed to have resulted from backing water on Godwin's wheat by a road-mender. The celebrated peach brandy case is also on the docket. This is a case of Bosley against ex-sheriff John C. Davis. When Mr. Davis undertook to make sale of the brandy in question it was found in Mr. Strong's cellar, a government bonded warehouse. Under these circumstances the sheriff did not make the sale and the suit was instituted. Sheriff Fletcher has 16 inmates in jail, 14 of which are court cases, but none of them are of especial interest or importance. Clerk Dixon states that he has received no official notice of any case moved from Harford to Kent county.

DEATH OF JOHN BORDLEY.

One of Chestertown's Oldest and Most Highly Respected Citizens Gone.

The death of John Bordley, one of Chestertown's oldest and most highly respected citizens, occurred at his home on High street, at about 8 o'clock on Monday evening. Mr. Bordley had been suffering with heart trouble for some time, but was brighter on Monday than usual, and death came at a moment when least expected. He was sitting in his home talking pleasantly with his daughters, Mrs. M. A. Toulson and Miss Nannie Bordley. The cheery warmth of the fire was reflected in the genial smile of the face, and his last comment in life was that the glow of the fire was unusually bright. Miss Nannie Bordley immediately closed the draft and at that moment Mrs. Toulson noticed a startling change pass over the aged countenance, and the head drooped. She at once rested her father's head on her arm and asked what she could do for him, but the end had come and no response was made. As painlessly and as quietly as a child sinks into sleep the spirit had taken its flight.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 2 30 o'clock, Rev. E. P. Roberts officiating; interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker John N. Dodd in charge of interment. The bearers were: Thomas S. Bordley, M. A. Toulson, Edmond Draper, Wm. R. Pippin, John Toulson and Thomas Dyott.

The deceased was a son of Thomas and Ann Bordley, and was born at Fairlee, Kent county, on December 6, 1823, and consequently would have been 79 years of age next December.

He conducted a successful mercantile business in Chestertown for many years but retired from active business about 25 years ago, having amassed a comfortable fortune, consisting principally of real estate in Chestertown.

He was one of the organizers of and was a lieutenant in the old Reed Rifles, for many years the crack military company of the Eastern Shore.

His first wife was Miss Martha Isabel Tomlinson, of Chestertown. Five children survive him by their marriage, namely: Thomas S., Miss Nannie R., Mrs. M. A. Toulson, John W. and Mrs. Edmond Draper. His wife died on August 31, 1865, and on December 14, 1871, he married Mrs. Louisa Seward, who died in November of 1898.

The following interesting account of the Bordley "Family Reunion" was published on August 19, 1882,

[COMMUNICATED.]

INTERESTING FAMILY REUNION.

Last Wednesday, six brothers and sisters, whose combined ages amounts to 393 years, met at dinner at the residence of the youngest child, John Bordley, in Chestertown. More than fifty years ago the children of Thomas and Ann Bordley, of Belair, (now called Fairlee) Kent county, Md., separated, each one leaving home to enter new fields of labor, and from that time until last Wednesday they have never been seated around the same table.

Sarah Bordley, born Dec. 20, 1811, is now the wife of Capt. Isaac S. Rogers, at Fairlee, Kent county, both being a good old age and comparatively full of life. The next child Anna Mariah, born May, 21, 1813, is also living at Fairlee. These are the only two sisters living; Anna Elizabeth, wife of Wm. Sappington, having died in January, 1848.

Thomas Bordley, born March 21, 1815, after having spent most of his life in North Carolina, finally settled in Fairlee, and has until lately been engaged in general merchandise.

Samuel Bordley, born Aug. 26, 1817, is comfortably settled in his country seat about sixteen miles from Baltimore city on the B. & O. R. R.

Wm. H. Bordley after having spent some time in Baltimore finally went South and amassed a considerable fortune, but the late war left him rather reduced financially, but being a thorough going man, and by careful management, has again accumulated enough to be very comfortable the balance of his life. He is now living in Savannah, Ga., and for the past 18 years has filled quite a responsible position.

The last child, John Bordley, who has spent most of his life in Chestertown, was born Dec. 6, 1824, being 58 years of age.

All the family of brothers and sisters enjoy comparatively good health, and from appearances will yet live sometime to enjoy the pleasant recollection of last Wednesday's association.

Will Not Hold Chrysanthemum Show.—The ladies of Christ M. P. Church will hold a Chrysanthemum Show in Chestertown about November 1. Liberal premiums will be offered to exhibitors. ☞Since the above was set in type the ladies of Christ Church have heard that the ladies of the M. E. church will hold the above festival for their church building fund and cheerfully give way, wishing them success in their enterprise.
