require said work to be done. It being also understood, and it being the intention of this resolution, that the said square shall at all times be free of access to the public; and that said embellishments are to be done in a manner as directed by the City Commissioners.

And provided further, that before the City Commissioners shall proceed to improve and embellish said square and before the Register shall pay the said sum of six hundred dollars, the said William Tiffany, Edward Greenway and Basil Gordon shall execute a bond to the Corporation of Baltimore, in such penalty as the Mayor may require, for the faithful performance of the trust reposed in them by this resolution; and that the city of Baltimore shall be exempted from all further cost of said improvement and embellishment over and above the sum of six hundred dollars, as aforesaid.

The amendment was adopted.

The substitute, as amended, was then adopted.

The report and resolution of the joint committee on markets, relative to a market in the southern portion of the city, was received from the Second Branch, read a first and by special order the second time and "concurred in"

A bill entitled "A supplement to an ordinance entitled an ordinance to provide for the encouragement of trade in the city of Baltimore", passed January session 1845, was received from the Second Branch, read the first and by special order the second time and passed.

Mr Dallam, on leave, offered the following resolution, which was read the first and by special order the second time and adopted, and sent to the Second Branch, who returned the same endorsed "concurred in"

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the sum of sixty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and the same is hereby appropriated out of any unappropriated money in the treasury, for the purchase of one hundred feet of hose for the use of the Centre Market, and the Register is hereby authorised to pay the same to the Clerk of the Centre Market for the purpose aforesaid.

And be it further resolved That it shall be the duty of the said clerk, at all times after using said hose, to have it hung up in the Fish market house, on hooks, for the purpose of drying the same, and also to have the said hose well oiled at least once in two months, or oftener, if necessary for its preservation.

Mr Croney called for the second reading of the resolution relative to the Deptford Fire Company.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr Walsh moved a reconsideration of the vote on the passage passage of the bill, entitled "A supplement to an ordinance, entitled an ordinance to provide for the encouragement of trade in the city of Baltimore;" which was determined in the affirmative.

The bill being on its passage, was passed.

Mr Walsh, on leave, offered the following bill, which was read and laid on the table:

A Supplement to the several ordinances regulating the markets.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the first day of May next, it shall not be lawful for any person to sell, or offer to sell, any meat, sausage, fowling, or any article of food of that description, within the limits of any of the markets, except the regularly licensed Butchers' Stalls, under a penalty of ten dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered as other city fines are now recoverable: Provided that the provisions of this section shall not affect the rights of any bacon seller under his license.

Sect. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the first section of ordinance No 26. approved April 6. 1844. be and the same is hereby repealed.

Mr Purviance, on leave, offered the following resolution, which was read the first and by special order the second time and laid on the table:

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Mayor be, and he is hereby authorised to have removed, as soon as can be done, the various poles that stand in the public streets, lanes and alleys, which were erected by political parties during the past year, and dispose of them in such manner as he may deem best, and draw on the Register for such sum as may be necessary to execute this resolution.

Mr Hudson called for the second reading of the resolution attached to the report of the joint committee on ways and means, relative to the communication from the Register and the Appeal Tax Court.

Mr Walsh called the previous question which was sustained.

The question being "Shall the main question be now put?" it was determined in the affirmative.

The resolutions were then "rejected" by the following vote, the yeas and nays being called for by Mr Leonard.

Yeas.— Messrs Hudson, Walsh, Brooks, Brown, Browning, Addison, Ridgely, Green and Gault — 9.

Nays.— Messrs President, Cooper, Croney, Fields, Haynes, Leonard, Turner, Taylor, Reilly, Dallam, Purviance, Page, Marley, Suter and Barnet — 15.
