Mr Buchanan offered the following as an additional resolution, which was adopted:

And be it further Resolved, that the amount that may be realized from the sale of the stalls in the contemplated erection and extension of the Belle-Air market, shall be strictly applied to the liquidation of the loan proposed to be raised, to carry out the foregoing resolution, together with all the revenue arising from time to time from said market, until the whole of said debt shall be paid off.

The resolutions as amended were adopted by the following vote, the yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Hooper:

Yeas – Messrs. President, Dutton, O'Leary, Walsh, Hickman, Bishop, Turner, Soran, Watkins, Buchanan, Starr, Brown, McCurley – 13.

Nays – Messrs. Cotton Collins, Davis, Hooper, Hack, Frost – 6.

Mr. Brown, on leave, offered the following resolution, which was read the first, and by special order the second time, and laid on the table:

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That in the event of the Council not passing an ordinance making an appropriation for the extension of the Belle-Air market either to Ensor or Hillen streets, northward, that all property that may be or have been assessed by commissioners, or in any way bound by any previous action of the council, the same shall be entirely released after the adjournment of the present session of the council.

Mr. Walsh called for the second reading of the resolution relative to the celebration of the fourth of July.

Mr. Buchanan moved to amend the second resolution, by striking out the word "five," in the second line, and inserting "six," which was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Walsh moved to amend the first resolution, by inserting in the fifth line, after the word "appointed" the words in conjunction with the Mayor who shall be the chairman thereof," – which was determined in the affirmative.

The resolutions as amended, were adopted by the following vote, the yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Dutton:

Yeas – Messrs. President, Cotton, Dutton, O'Leary, Walsh, Hickman, Bishop, Soran, Watkins, Buchanan, Davis, Hooper, Starr, Brown, Hack, Frost – 16.

Nays – Messrs. Collins, McCurley – 2.

On motion of Mr Watkins, the President of this branch, was requested to act as the chairman of the committee on the part of this branch.

The Second Branch by message, assented to the message of this branch, proposing to refer the bill entitled "An ordinance to provide an additional public school," to a joint committee of conference, and naming Messrs. Ware, Loudenman and Green as the committee on their part.

The Second Branch returned the report and resolution from the joint committee on Streets, relative to the Fort road;

The report and resolution from the joint committee on markets, relative to publishing the names of those who sell light weight of butter; and,

The resolution relative to refunding certain taxes, severally endorsed concurred in.

The Second Branch returned bill No. 80, entitled "An ordinance to change the name of Strawberry alley to that of Dallas street", endorsed will pass.

The Second Branch returned the report and resolution from the joint committee on Streets, relative to gravelling Broadway, endorsed concurred in with a proposed amendment:

Amendment proposed:

Strike out all after the word "Baltimore, and insert,

That the city Commissioners be, and they are hereby directed to have the curb stones reset, and the centre of the street between Eastern avenue and Alice Anna Street paved with brick, so as to correspond with the space south of Alice Anna, – and draw on the Register of the city, with the approbation of the Mayor, for the sum of two thousand dollars, ($2.000) or so much thereof, as may be necessary to carry this resolution into effect, to be paid out of the levy of direct tax for 1847; provided, that this resolution shall not be carried into effect, unless the property holders binding on this street, within the limits described above, cede to the city the right at any time hereafter to extend the market house north to Eastern avenue."

Mr. Soran offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were read and laid on the table:

Standing in the relation we do to the people of the city of Baltimore, and feeling apprehensive that a neglect to express our judgment might prejudice the cause and lead to misconstruction of our wishes: we do not feel ourselves at liberty to close the present session of the councils without giving to our constituents and the state at large, a clear and unequivocal expression of our views upon the great and vi-
