widen North Eutaw street, was read and passed by the following vote, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. White:

Yeas—Messrs. Suter, Crawford, Cox, Krafft, Wright, Thompson, Quail, Regester, White, Pyle, Woods, Nicholls—12.

Nays—Messrs. France, Mullen, J. H. Boyd, F. H. B. Boyd, Harker, Lepson—6.

Bill No. 108, a supplement to supplementary ordinance No. 30, being an ordinance to enforce useful regulations, was read.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the bill was amended by inserting after the word "regulations," in the 5th line, the words "approved June 10th, 1850."

Mr. Quail moved further to amend the bill by adding thereto the following section, which was adopted:

"Section 2. And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall not be lawful for any person or persons within the limits, to offer for sale or slaughter any calf under four weeks old, nor any veal from any calf under four weeks old, the net weight of which shall be less than sixty pounds, under a penalty of twenty dollars for each and every offence, one-half to the informer and the other half to the city treasury."

The bill, as amended, was then passed.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the title of the bill was amended, by adding to the end thereof the words, "approved June 10th, 1850."

Bill No. 71, a supplementary ordinance to preserve the health of the city of Baltimore and remove nuisances, and the proposed amendments of the Second Board, were read:

On motion of Mr. Suter, the first amendment was concurred in.

The 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, and 6th amendments were concurred in, on motion of Mr. Krafft.

Bill No. 77, a supplementary ordinance to an ordinance to prevent the keeping of swine within the limits of the city of Baltimore, was read.

Mr. J. H. Boyd moved to amend the first section by adding thereto the following:

"And provided also, that hogs shall not be kept for slaughter or any other purpose on any premises, without first obtaining the consent of the property holders within five hundred feet of said location."

The question being taken on the adoption of the amendment, it was determined in the affirmative by the following vote, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. Crawford:

Yeas—Messrs. Mullen, J. H. Boyd, F. H. B. Boyd, Cox, Krafft, Regester, White, Pyle—8.

Nays—Messrs. France, Suter, Crawford, Harker, Thompson, Quail, Lepson—7.
