2. Strike out the word "fifty" in the seventh line of the third section and insert the word "twenty".

On motion of Mr. Simms, the proposed amendment were concurred in.

The First Branch returned revised ordinance No. 8, endorsed "will pass with proposed amendment."

Amendment proposed:

"Strike out the eleventh section."

Mr. Kirk moved that the Branch concur in the proposed amendment, which was determined in the negative.

The First Branch returned revised ordinance No. 75. endorsed "will pass with proposed amendment."

Amendment proposed:

In line five, strike out the words "under the superintendence" and insert the words "to the satisfactory of."

On motion of Mr. Heintze, the proposed amendment was concurred in.

The First Branch returned revised ordinances Nos. 71. 72. 74. and 68. severally endorsed "passed."

The First Branch returned revised ordinance No. 67 entitled "An ordinance relating to dogs and to restrain their running at large within the limits of the city of Baltimore" endorsed "will pass with proposed amendments."

Amendments proposed:

1. Strike out the word "Register" in the seventh line of the first section, and insert the word "Comptroller"

2. In section two, strike out the word "Register" and insert the word "Comptroller".

3. In section five, strike out all between the word "and" in the fourth line, and the word "shall" in the sixth line, and insert the words "if such licensed dog or bitch shall be found running at large without a proper muzzle, the owner or owners thereof."

4. In section seven, strike out in line two, the word "City Register" and insert the word "Comptroller"

On motion of Mr. Heintze, the proposed amendment was concurred in.

The following message was received from the First Branch:

In First Branch.

Baltimore May 12. 1888.

Gentlemen of the Second Branch,

We respectfully ask you to reconsider the vote on the ordinance entitled "An ordinance for the general valuation and assessment of property in the city of Baltimore", and to recommit the ordinance to the joint committee of conference heretofore appointed on the same.

By order.

Richard W. Battee, Clerk.

Mr. Kirk, moved that the proposition contained in the message he concurred in, which was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Kirk moved to reconsider the vote had upon the ordinance entitled "An ordinance for the general valuation and assessment of property in the city of Baltimore" which was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Kirk moved to recommit the ordinance to the joint committee of conference, which was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Sullivan from the joint standing committee on highways, submitted the following report and accompanying ordinance, which were read.

The joint standing committee on highways, to whom was referred the communication of Thomas Symington and Wilson P. Nicholas, proposing to dedicate to the city the bed of Rockland alley, a small highway running between Road and Eager streets, have considered the same, and are of opinion by accepting the dedication the convenience of the neighborhood would be promoted they therefore respectfully submit the accompanying ordinance.

Robert Sullivan.
L. Brisbones
Edward. Herney } Second Branch.

Daniel. Harvey
Jas. M. Coombs } First Branch.

Mr. Sullivan from the joint standing committee on highways, submitted the following report and resolution which were read.