Commander in chief of the forces stationed at and near Baltimore, during the campaign of 1814; Brigadier General John Stricker, late Brigadier General of the third Brigade of Maryland Militia and Commanding General at the Battle of North point on the 12th of September 1814; and Lieutenant Colonel George Armistead of the United States Artillery Commanding officer at Fort Mc Henry during the bombardment on the 13th of September 1814, to sit for their respective Portraits before such Artist as the Mayor and Residents above-mentioned may select, and to cause the same when finished and framed, to be placed in the Council Chamber of the First Branch, until a suitable building is procured or erected for the accommodation of the Corporation. And

Resolved that the thanks of the City of Baltimore be and they are hereby presented to the Officers above named, and to the Officers, non Commissioned Officers, soldiers and Sea-fencibles under their respective commands, for the important services rendered by them in the defence of this City, against the attack of the late enemy, and for their indefatigable zeal and exertions during that trying period.

2. Resolved that the thanks of the City of Baltimore be and they are hereby presented to Brigadier General William H. Winder late a Brigadier General of the United States Army, and Commanding General of the regular troops and Virginia Militia during the campaign of 1814; and to Commodore John Rogers of the United States Navy commanding officer of the detachment of Seamen stationed at Baltimore during the said Campaign, and to the officers, non commissioned officers and soldiers, and to the officers, petty officers and Seamen of the Navy and Flotilla under their respective commands, for the important services rendered by them in the defence of this City against the attack of the late enemy, and for their indefatigable zeal and exertions during that period.

3. Resolved, that the thanks of the City of Baltimore be and they are hereby presented to Brigadier General Douglas of the Virginia Militia, and to Brigadier General Tobias E. Stansbury and Brigadier General Thomas Freeman of the Maryland Militia for the important services rendered by them in the defence of this City against the attack of the late enemy, and for their indefatigable zeal and exertions during that period.

4. Resolved that the thanks of the City of Baltimore be and they are hereby presented to Captain Spangler and his Company of Volunteers from York, Pennsylvania; to Captain Duantil and his Company of Volunteers from Hagars Town, Maryland; to Captain Metzger and his Company from Hanover Pennsylvania; and to Captain Dickson and his Company from Marietta, Pennsylvania; all of whom were at their own request incorporated with the Third Brigade of Maryland Militia, and were distinguished for their bravery and good conduct at the Battle of North Point.

5 Resolved, that the thanks of the City of Baltimore