LOCAL MATTERS.

Cows Die of Tuberculosis.—Mr. J. Hodson, of near Sassafras, has lost four cows from tuberculosis during the past week. He will dispose of his entire herd of cattle.

A Huge Diamond.—A diamond as large as a goose egg and valued at over $3,500,000 has just been discovered in the Transvaal, Africa, near the city of Pretoria. It is said that it is the largest diamond ever found and rivals in beauty and brilliance the most costly gems of the monarchs of the world. What a pity that even one half of the stone could not have been placed in the soil of Kent county in order that some poor soul could find it and be rich.

Slight Fire.—A slight fire occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anthony over the bridge on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony were not at home at the time, and their son, Mr. Rumsey Anthony built a fire in the fireplace in the kitchen. He went out into the yard, and when he returned the kitchen mantel and woodwork were in a bright blaze. The water in the pump was frozen, but Mr. Anthony, with commendable presence of mind, rushed out into the yard, got a quantity of snow and threw it on the blazing woodwork. Mr. Anthony succeeded in extinguishing the flames before any very serious damage had been done.

Officers Installed.—Tuesday evening of last week at the regular meeting of Sassafras Council, No. 95, Jr. O. U. A. M., the following officers were installed: Councillor, Alexander T. Laws; vice-councillor, W. Clayton; recording secretary, W. Hampton Johns; assistant recording secretary, Robert W. Johnston; financial secretary, Robert S. G. Cliff; treasurer, John F. Ernest; chaplain, James Johns; warden, Frank Wilson; conductor, W. Sheppard Morris; inside sentinel, Frank Sylvester; outside sentinel, Raymond Thornley; trustees, Jacob T. Shallcross, Frank Sylvester, W. S. Morris.

Little Boy Has Good Time.—A little boy of Chestertown who earns considerable change by doing odd jobs about town made $3 last week shoveling snow. He took one dollar of the money home to his mother, and with the remainder prepared to have a good time generally. He took several of his little companions into his confidence, telling them about his cash, and invited them to go with him. He took in nearly every candy store in town and "blew in" the whole of his two dollars in sweetmeats. He could be seen coming out of stores with his pockets a strut, and everywhere he went he was followed by a crowd of boys who enjoyed his dainties with him. He said to the boys, "Ain't we havin' a good time, though." "You bet," said the boys, and they put in more candy.

Fine Horse Drops Dead.—A fine driving horse belonging to Mr. Walter Bramble, of Chestertown, dropped dead on High street Tuesday evening about six o'clock, while sleighing. It is thought that the animal died of an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Bramble gave the horse a good feed of bran and corn chops, and came out in the thoroughfare at four o'clock. He had not driven the horse very hard, and about dusk he and Mr. Wilbur Eliason turned up town for a race down. The horse seemed to be going well until he started to turn in front of the home of Dr. J. T. Twilley, when he fell in his tracks. He gave one gasp and died. The animal was one of the best roadsters in town, and was valued by his owner at $200. He had only recently refused an offer of $150 for it. Mr. Bramble is one of our young business men, and feels the loss of his fine driver very much.

Prompt Delivery of Mails.—The Kent county rural route carriers deserve the greatest credit for their efforts to serve their routes during the blizzard. Every carrier has made determined efforts to deliver the mail every day since the blockade, and those who were unable to get their teams through made the effort on horseback. They were so successful in their efforts that the local mail was delivered promptly on Saturday, and in consideration of the almost impassable condition of the highways, their efforts deserve the highest commendation. The Rock Hall mail driver made his round trip on Saturday, the first time he was able to get through since Wednesday. Mr. Thomas Willis was able to serve a part of his route on Friday afternoon. Mr. Wood of route No. 3 succeeded in getting up from Pomona on Friday, and Mr. Kendall made a bold effort to get into Queen Anne's on Thursday but the snow drifts were too much for him. A few copies of Friday and Saturday's issue of the Baltimore Sun and American were received in Chestertown on Monday, and they were grabbed up as if they had been real curiosities. They were the first papers to reach Chestertown from the outside since last Wednesday.

Queen Anne's Railroad Sold.—The Queen Anne's railroad, rights, and title were sold at public auction on Friday last to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for $430,000 subject to a mortgage of $330,000. In view of the advantages possessed by the Queen Anne's road, and the productive territory through which it runs, the above price is regarded as a fair one. The purchase of the Queen Anne's road by the Pennsylvania practically gives that company control of every railroad and steamboat line on the peninsula. Just what changes will be made by the new company that now controls the B. C. & A., Queen Anne's and Chester River Lines is not known. But it is conceded by those in position to know that there will be some changes.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*Several cases of scarlet fever are reported in Queen Anne's, near Chester bridge.

*†*Thursday was ground hog day. He saw his shadow and you know what that means.

*†*Mr. Thomas Toulson has sold his fine bay mare, Eliza S., to Mr. George Zeigler, of Baltimore, for $200.

*†*Plumbers, Miller and Sutton, have been just as busy as bees since the blizzard mending bursted water pipes and mains in many of our dwellings.

*†*Funeral Director Jno. N. Dodd has placed an attractive sign on his undertaking establishment on High street. It was a gift from the National Casket Company.

*†*Mr. Wm. T. Duyer has purchased of Wilbur W. Hubbard a desirable building lot opposite the Walker farm near town, and will probably erect a dwelling thereon in the early spring.

*†*Mr. Alwyn M. Culp has finished putting steam heat in his pretty home on Washington avenue. He has somewhat remodeled the interior and contemplates further improvements.

*†*The price of oysters has advanced considerably during the ice blockade. Primes sold in Baltimore on Monday for 90 cents and $1.25 per bushel. Dealers do not anticipate an oyster famine, though the supply is materially decreased on account of the inability of the boats to reach the city.

*†*Police Justice Samuel Hicks has purchased of Mr. Fred G. Usilton the blacksmith and wheelwright shops on Court St., now occupied by Mr. Hicks for $1050. Mr. Hicks has a splendid business and contemplates improvements which will furnish more room for his constantly increasing trade.

*†*It is said that Townsend station was hardly large enough to hold the express packages, bundles, etc., listed for Chestertown and way stations during the blockade on the Kent road. Among the packages were some very valuable articles that were very sorely needed last week. They have all been received and are held for future reference.

*†*Rural free delivery via route No. 4, was inaugurated on Wednesday. Mr. Fred S. Russell is the carrier. The route is from Chestertown to Eliason's corner, to Fancy School House, to Loud's corner, to Jump's corner, to Hynson's Chapel corner, to Lankford, to Broad Neck, to Chestertown, via Brice's mill road.

*†*A disease has sprung up in Easton and vicinity which is playing havoc with horses, and as yet no remedy has been found for it. The horses generally show signs of famishing and drink large quantities of water. Quite a number of horses have died from the strange malady. Kent countains will do well to look out for this disease.

*†*At the annual election of officers of the Kent Building and Loan Company held on Monday night the present officers were re-elected as follows: President, Thos. H. Topping; vice-president, L. Bates Russell; secretary and treasurer, J. Waters Russell; counsel, John D. Urie, Esq. The officers, with Mr. Thomas S. Bordley, compose the executive committee.

*†*Let's mob the snow man if he sends any more snow this winter. He has no respect for peoples' feelings, comforts, conveniences or anything else. He stops trains, blocks highways, upsets engines, and does any old thing without consulting people's wishes in the matter. But hold on, mister, don't he furnish fine sleighing? What's the matter with you. 'Nough said.

*†*The hotels of the town have been entertaining during the past week many "snowbound" salesmen, who came in before the snow. They have been well cared for and all seem to have enjoyed themselves very much. Several of them made attempts to get out by way of Prices Station but all but one failed until Tuesday morning. Mr. David B. Davis remained at the Voshell House until the train began running.

*†*Several of our farmers lost a quantity of their poultry, principally chickens, in the blizzard. One farmer near town opened one of his coops the morning after the blizzard to give his hens an airing. The coop had been covered with a warm covering of snow and in about two hours after the chickens flew out of the coop several of them had frozen to death. The change was too sudden.

*†*A colored man riding a dun colored horse was run into on Saturday afternoon by one of the many sleighers on High street and his horse was considerably cut and bruised. Mr. Baxter, from Queen Anne's, had an "upset" near Stam's Hall on Monday afternoon but no damage resulted. He was driving a fine young horse and when opposite the postoffice he stopped suddenly and fell. The young lady who was in the sleigh with Mr. Baxter jumped out very gracefully.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Gertie Copper is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Sweeney, of Wilmington.

Mrs. James D. Lucas, and little daughter, have been the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Hurlock, near Massey.

Mr. Thos. D. France is slowly recovering from an indisposition of several days duration.

Mrs. James T. DeCourse is quite sick at her home near Fancy school house

Mr. D. B. McMenamin has been confined to the house suffering with his eyes for the past week. He will consult a specialist in Philadelphia.

Miss Ellen Bacon, the efficient operator at the Telephone exchange, has recovered from a severe attack of la grippe and has returned to her post of duty.

Miss Alice Platt, of Wilmington, Del., has been the guest of Miss Minnie Massey, on Maple avenue for the past ten days.

Mr. Clifton L. Jarrell has been housed for several days this week with a deep cold. He is able to be out.

Messrs. Frank G. Simpers and Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., were among those who were caught away from home in the blizzard.

Mr. Wm. L. Fowler and family have been snow bound in Baltimore for a week or more.

Miss Easter, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. John M. Toulson, on Queen street.

Mrs. Dr. J. Lane Finley, of Church Hill, has been the guest of Mrs. Annie Stam on Queen street.

Mr. Edgar Dunnock, private secretary in the law office of Hope H. Barroll, Esq., left town on Thursday morning for Baltimore, where he will study law. Mr. Dunnock has proven himself a valuable assistant to Mr. Barroll, who regrets very much to lose his services. He will be succeeded by Mr. Murrel Dunbracco, who, we are sure, will prove a valuable assistant.

A letter from Mr. William S. Collins, brother of Mr. R. H. Collins, who left Philadelphia for California last week, states that he reached St. Louis last Saturday. He says that his train was delayed 12 hours on account of snow drifts and that several engines were disabled and one man killed in the storm. He left St. Louis for Colorado Springs on Monday.

We regret to state that Capt. Thompson has been quite sick at the home of his son, Capt. James Thompson, on Cannon street during the week. Capt. Thompson is in his 92nd year, and up to last week had been in excellent health. He is under the care of Dr. H. G. Simpers and we are glad to state that he is able to be up today.

Mr. Frank G. Simpers, who was caught at Rock Hall last week and took the boat for Baltimore in the hope of being able to come home by train, reached Chestertown on Tuesday morning via Price's Station to Church Hill on horseback, thence to Chestertown by team.

Mr. John D. Burrows, of Rock Hall, has been quite sick with pneumonia for a week or more. He is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Minner have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Edith Hopkins, to Mr. Julian Frank Shaban, on Wednesday, Feb. 8th. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents on the Stewart farm near town.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Copper have announced the coming nuptials of their daughter, Mary Ella, to Mr. William Franklin Meredith, at home, "Little Fairlee," near Melitota, on Wednesday, Feb. 8th, at 7 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Vansant announce the wedding of their daughter, H. Olevia, to Mr. F. Ford Phillips, of Centreville, on Wednesday, February 8th, at 2 P. M., in Millington M. E. Church. No cards in the county.

Several cases of diphtheria in a mild form are reported in the family of the late John W. Fowler in Flatlands. Dr. J. H. Hessey is in attendance.

Miss May Hurlock is the guest of her brother, Mr. Arthur Hurlock, in Cambridge.

Justice T. Waters Russell has been confined to his bed during the past week with an attack of la grippe. We are glad to state that he is better at this writing.

We regret to state that there is no change for the better in the condition of Mr. Josiah Lusby, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, who has been seriously ill at his home on High street for some weeks. Everything is being done for him that the constant attention of faithful and loving children and his physician, Dr Dodd, can accomplish, and we hope that his condition may be improved to-day.

Col. and Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort gave a jolly strawride in Mr. J. T. Anthony's large sled to a number of their friends in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Mackie, of Arlington, N. J., yesterday evening. Only married folks were among the guests.

Mrs. Carolene Hynson gave on Thursday afternoon a progressive whist party in honor of her guest, Miss Julia Cacy.

Mr. Claude H. Schuyler has just finished a large oil painting of the Royal Mail coaches blocked by snow enroute to Siberia, Russia. Horses and men are graphically depicted, struggling through the blizzard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mackie, of Arlington, N. J., are the guests of Col. and Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, on Front St. Mr. and Mrs. Mackie are returning from an extending tour of Mexico and the South.

OBITUARY.

RICHARD RASIN.

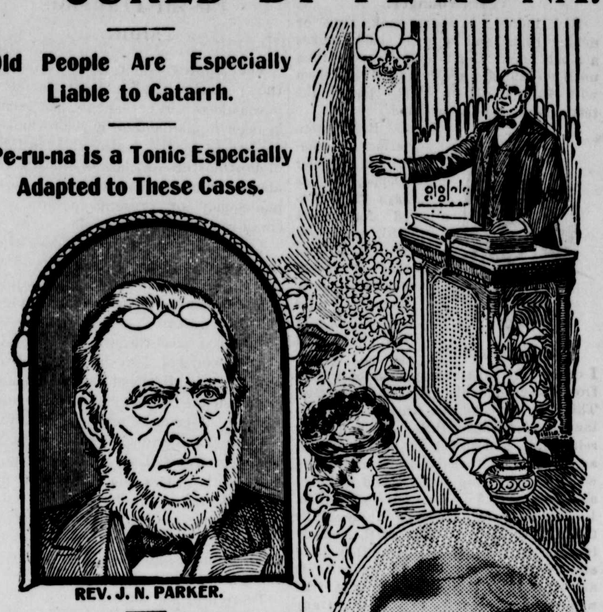

The funeral services of the late Richard Rasin, whose death was reported in last week's issue of the TRANSCRIPT, were held at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Wm. T. Jones, near Kennedyville, on Wednesday morning, Rev. R. S. Rowe officiating at the house and the grave. Interment was made at Union M. E. Church cemetery, near Worton. The services were to have been held on Friday last, but owing to the impassable conditions of the roads, it was not until Wednesday that the cemetery could be reached.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Crew, of near Worton, died on Tuesday, of pneumonia, aged one month. The Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery.

A VENERABLE PASTOR CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

Old People Are Especially Liable to Catarrh.

Pe-ru-na is a Tonic Especially Adapted to These Cases.

REV. J. N. PARKER.

Rev. J. N. Parker, Utica, N. Y., writes: "In June, 1901, I lost my sense of hearing entirely. My hearing had been somewhat impaired for several years, but not so much affected but that I could hold converse with my friends; but in June, 1901, my sense of hearing left me so that I could hear no sound whatever. I was also troubled with rheumatic pains in my limbs.

"I commenced taking Peruna and now my hearing is restored as good as it was prior to June, 1901. My rheumatic pains are all gone. I cannot speak too highly of Peruna, and now when eighty-eight years old can say it has invigorated my whole system.

Strong and Vigorous At the Age of Eighty-eight Years.

"I cannot but think, dear Doctor, that you must feel very thankful to the All-loving Father that you have been permitted to live, and by your skill be such a blessing as you have been to suffering humanity."—J. N. Parker.

In old age the mucous membranes become thickened and partly lose their function. Peruna corrects all this by its specific operation on all the mucous membranes of the body.

Rev. Chas. Leander.

A Pleasure to Endorse Pe-ru-na.

Rev. Chas. Leander, pastor First Spiritual Society of San Francisco, writes from 311 Turk street, San Francisco, Cal., as follows:

"It is with pleasure that I give my endorsement of Peruna. My experience has been very satisfactory from its use, and I do firmly believe that it is the best known remedy for catarrh in all its different forms."—Chas. Leander.

No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peruna.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Mrs. John M. Toulson gave a delightful afternoon tea and reception in honor of her guest, Miss Margaret Easter, on Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. The receiving committee were: Mrs. John M. Toulson, Mrs. Ringgold, Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes and Misses Margaret Easter and Hallie Westcott. The dining room, which had been beautifully decorated and tables spread with the various dainties, was in charge of Mrs. George Brice, Mrs. A. A. Harris, Mrs. W. W. Beck and Miss Louise Stam. Among the guests were: Mesdames J. L. Finley, R. H. Collins, Colin F. Stam, W. F. Hines, M. A. Toulson, Hiram M. Brown, W. W. Hubbard, R. D. Hynson, W. W. Chapman, C. W. Whaland, C. E. Crane, W. W. Beck, L. W. Wickes, George Brice, T. W. Perkins, J. W. Cain and J. Roy Micou and Misses Mary E. Fleming, Margaret Plummer, Nannie Brice, Hallie and Mabel Toulson, Julia Casey, Caroline Hynson, Mary Rogers, Josephine Wickes, Mary C. Burchinal, Louise Connelly, Eva Beauchamp, Bessie Westcott, Anna B. Smith, Nannie Bordley, Eloise Ringgold, Hope Wickes, Miss Bragdon, Florence Bell, Susie Roberts, Irma Eliason, Ethel Perkins, Rebecca Eliason, Anna Burchinal, Anna Brown, Helen and Anna Welch and May Beaston.

It has always been said that Maryland is noted for its hospitality, and this was never more plainly evidenced than on Thursday evening of last week when the home of Mr. Jas. D. Davis, near Sassafras, was thrown open to the ladies of the M. E. Church, who gave a poultry supper for the benefit of the church. The house throughout was illuminated and decorated with the national colors, and as this was a "Patriotic Tea," the sight of the red, white and blue, welcomed nearly 150 guests, who were soon made to feel at home. The evening was an informal one, the guests amusing themselves according to their tastes, while a humorous recitation by Miss Anderson was thoroughly enjoyed; later in the evening Mrs. Sheppard Morris read a selection, and vocal and instrumental music were enjoyed throughout the evening. A bountiful supper was served, which was a financial success. The ladies are much elated over the success of the "tea," and heartily thank all who gave their assistance and presence to bring about the desired results.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson entertained "The George and Martha Washington Club" in splendid style at their High street home on Wednesday evening. The "Presidential election" game was the feature of the evening, and an evening full of fun was enjoyed by all present. Elegant refreshments, consisting of cheese, pickles and crackers, ices and fancy cakes, chocolate, coffee, etc., were served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Misses Maude and Bessie Sheppard, Olie Beauchamp, Addie Hurlock, Augusta Aldridge and Messrs. David B. Ford, Jesse Medders, Raymond Simpers, Warren Hurlock and D. A. Bacchus.

On Saturday evening last a genuine surprise was given Miss Bessie Nicols, the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nicols. A large number of her friends had been invited, but owing to blocked roads many were unable to attend. The Chestertown guests, chaperoned by Mrs. Wm. R. Aldridge, were conveyed to the "Carville farm," the scene of the surprise, in Mr. Rumsey Anthony's large farm wagon; in the party were: Misses Emma France, Augusta Aldridge, Bessie Westcott, Eva Beauchamp, Ethel Bacchus, Dovie Connelly and Susie Dunbracco, and Messrs. Curtis Long, Henry Willson, Norman Ward, Emmit Bryan, Houston Toulson and Rumsey Anthony. The evening was enjoyed by the playing of all kinds of games and dancing. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches and coffee and various other dainties were served at about 10.30 P. M., and about midnight the happy crowd left for their homes.

Miss Bettie Patterson entertained a few of her young friends very pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram M. Brown, on Front street on Friday evening. Amusing games were the feature and dainty refreshments were served. Among those present were: Misses Miriam Hubbard, Carolene Hynson, Elizabeth Connelly, Edith Dunbracco, Helen Hynson, Francis Morris, Gladys Aldridge, Ethel Price and Masters Thomas Eliason, Wethered Barroll, Hiram Eliason, Norman Crouch, Walter Simmons, Massey Hines and Roberts Greenfield.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes entertained very pleasantly in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Toulson at her Front street home on Saturday evening. About fifty guests were present. Progressive euchre was the feature of the evening. Splendid refreshments were served.

The young men of Fairlee gave a delightful mid-winter dance in Fairlee Hall yesterday evening. The patronesses were Mrs. James L. Beck, Mrs. Tylden Brice, Mrs. Robt. C. Morgan and Mrs. Harry Nicols. The committee on invitation was Messrs. Frank Skirven, Joseph Brice and Hynson Beck.

Miss Margaret Plummer entertained the Ladies Card Club at her Front St. home on Tuesday afternoon. Miss May Ireland won first prize, a handsome minniehaha cake. Mrs. Jas. Roy Micou won the second prize.

Miss Anna B. Smith gave a delightful tea and card party at her home on Washington avenue on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John M. Toulson.

The Dorcas Society of Emmanuel P. E. Church was entertained at the rectory on Wednesday evening by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Martin.

When You Have A Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by M. A Toulson, druggist.
