LOCAL MATTERS.

Fine Farm Sold.—Mrs. Mary A. Skirven, of Baltimore, mother of Mr. Chas. W. Kennard, of the same city, has sold to Mr. Frederick H. Cornelius, of Camden, N. J., her farm, situated near Lynch's. The tract contains 185 acres of excellent land, and the price paid is said to have been $10,000.

Cruiser Maryland Fund.—The TRANSCRIPT has received one contribution of $10 to the Cruiser Maryland fund. We hope others will make prompt contributions to this worthy and patriotic cause. The Naval Department has honored our state by naming the cruiser Maryland, and it now remains for our citizens to honor the ship by donating her a handsome silver service.

Smyrna House on Fire.—Last Saturday afternoon about four o'clock fire was discovered on the roof of the Smyrna House, one of the best known hotels on the peninsula. The Citizens' Hose Company responded to the alarm and aided Mr. Gears, the proprietor, and a force of men in extinguishing the blaze. But little damage was done. The fire was caused by a defective chimney.

Delegates to Atlanta.—Congressman-elect Thomas A. Smith has named Dr. W. Frank Hines, of Chestertown, and Dr. Edward A. Scott, of Galena, as delegates of the National Tuberculosis Convention to be held in Atlanta, Ga., in April. Dr. Hines is a member of the Maryland Tuberculosis Commission, and he and Dr. Scott will no doubt look after the interests of Kent county in the national convention well and truly.

Champion Coon Hunters.—So far as we have been able to learn, Messrs. Charles and Frank Skirven, of near Fairlee, are the champion coon hunters of the county thus far. Within a month the Messrs. Skirven have caught and skinned twenty-five fine coons, and they sold their hides last Saturday to Fur King Marcus Asher for $6.50. The hides were as fine specimens of the coon hides as we have seen, being almost without spot or blemish. Mr. Skirven says he has left a few old breeders for next year, but he failed to divulge the most successful hunting ground.

Says Peaches Are Killed.—Mr. J. T. Saulisbury, of Ridgely, Caroline county, who is considered an expert on the peach subject, has asserted that the cold weather which we have had for some time past, and which we are still having, has killed nearly every variety of the peach except the Alberta. We have had no predictions in regard to the peach crop in this county, and we think it quite a difficult subject to discuss this early in the season as to whether they are hurt or not, and we are not able to verify or deny the assertion made by Mr. Saulisbury.

Fire in Easton School.—The primary school building on South street, Easton, one of the largest and best equipped schools on the Eastern Shore, caught fire on Tuesday evening from an overheated stove in a room on the second floor used for kindergarten purposes, and would have been destroyed but for the prompt arrival of the fire company. The building was saved, but the school supplies were destroyed and a number of desks were broken up. Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, of the CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT, was formerly the principal of this flourishing school.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*The roads are reported to be in miserable condition, and travel in teams is very difficult.

*†*The report that a case of diphtheria had made its appearance in Chestown is incorrect.

*†*The Diamond State Telephone Company will establish all night service in Chestertown on and after April 1.

*†*Miss Mary Wood, of Galena, has accepted a position in the large furniture, paint and carpet store of Mr. John Bartley.

*†*Mr. Augustus Ayres is preparing to move into the Bordley building on High Street, where he will open a bakery March 1.

*†*Mr. Fred G. Usilton has purchased through J. Walters Russell and Sidney P. Townshend, real estate dealers, the Waters property near the mill for $1000.

*†*Two dead silver poplar trees that have died during the winter have been removed during the week by the town officers from in front of the residence of Mrs. Georgia Reed, on Park Row.

*†*Mr. Raymond Jones representing the J. A. Downes, piano and organ Company, of Dover, has been transferred from Chestertown to Elkton, where his headquarters will be in the future.

*†*The Baltimore Evening Herald stated this week that a man from somewhere in Kent skated to Chestertown with a basket of eggs in one hand and oil can in the other. Did any of our merchants see him?

*†*Monday and Tuesday of this week were so balmy that some of the birds warbled their first notes of spring. Flies also made their appearance, but like the groundhog they saw their shadows and departed to their winter haunts again.

*†*Mr. J. E. Newton recently returned from Murfreesboro, N. C., where he has been engaged in hauling lumber for the Marvil Package Co. He will go again to the lumber tract in a few days. Mr. Newton says that the forest down in that section is alive with game of nearly every description, and the small rivers swarm with fish.

*†*The indications are that farmers will have to be content with a lower contract price for tomatoes for the coming season. Contractors in other localities are offering only $6 per ton owing to adverse conditions with regard to the market.

*†*Mr. John Bartley has nearly finished moving his store goods to his handsome new store room on High Street. Mr. Bartley has one of the largest and finest store rooms on the peninsula, and it is equipped in every department with a choice selection of excellent quality goods. He will be ready for business at the new store room next week possibly.

*†*At the mule sale, Saturday last, Auctioneer Charles H. Hurlock sold for Mr. Evans, of Kentmere, his dark bay horse and shifting top surrey, the former to Mr. William E. Sutton and the latter to Mr. Harry Rash. Mr. Evans expects to leave town shortly for Pittsburg where his business affairs call him.

*†*The Betterton Baseball Club have arranged games for the season of 1905, with the following clubs: Catonsville Country Club, Remington Athletic Association, Towson, Mount Washington Club, Reserves, Albion Athletic Club, Newark Pleasure Club and Jefferson Athletic Association.

*†*Mr. Howard Coleman, of Pine Neck, has been fishing on Kent Island for several months. While there he became acquainted with a young lady, and it is reported that they came over on the ice from the Island on last Friday and Mr. John E. Wood conveyed them to Piney Neck where they were married by Rev. G. S. Conaway.

*†*Washington's birthday was celebrated in Chestertown by the closing of the banks, postoffice and quite a number of stores. Old Glory was flung to the breeze from several of the stores, public buiibings and the public square. Appropriate exercises were held in the Chestertown Public School and Washington College suspended exercises for the day.

*†*Mrs. Harriett L. W. Hill, as directress of the Junior Sons and Daughters, has presented to the Chestertown High School copies of Gen. and Mrs. George Washington. They are copies of Stewart's paintings. An article by Mrs Hill on the life and character of Gen. Washington will be found on the third page in this issue of the TRANSCRIPT.

*†*There is on exhibition in Moody & Lusby's large clothing store display window, a handsomely mounted gray eagle. The eagle was shot sometime ago by Mr. J. P. Cochran, of near Galena, a full account of which appeared exclusively in the Transcript. The mounting was done by Dr. A. S. Hall, of Washington College, in his usual artistic and excellent style. The big bird will prove an ornament to Mr. Cochran's home.

Missionary Anniversary.

The Sunday School of Still Pond M. E. Church held its Missionary Anniversary on Sunday evening, Feb. 19th, and from every standpoint proved to be the greatest success in the history of the Sunday school. The recitations by all were well rendered and reflected much credit upon the skillful training of Miss Arsula Moffett and Mrs. J. W. Harper who had that part of the programme in charge.

The music in charge of and led by Mrs. J. W. Harper was an interesting part of the programme and was highly enjoyed by all. Special mention should be made of the piece entitled "Let us Away," sung by a sextette of male voices as follows: Albert Jervis, Dr. L. P. Atwell, soprano, Jos. S. Clark, S. H. Pippin, tenor, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, A. J. Hackett, Sr., bass, and was highly appreciated by all present and has been the source of much comment. The school assembled in the Sunday school room at 7.30 o'clock and by classes marched to the Auditorium to sweet strains of music from the organ by the very efficient organist, Miss Mae Hackett, after which the following programme was rendered:

Singing, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."
Prayer by Pastor, Congregation standing.
Singing, "Keep Telling the Wonderful Story."
Recitation, "Thy Kingdom Come," by Miss Jennie Bowers.
Quartette, "Go in the Name of the Master."
Dialogue, "The Little Missionaries," by Ethel Robinson, Bertha and Alta Price.
Dialogue, "What Will you Give?" by six girls.
Singing, "Praise to the King."
Solo and chorus, Bertha Price and chorus.
Recitation, "Missionary Echo," by Lillian Waters.
Male chorus, "Let us Away."
Dialogue, "Once There Was," by Ethel and Bennie Robinson.
Singing, "I Love to Scatter Sunshine."
Recitation, "So Much to do at Home," by Miss Mabel Norris.
Singing, Cheerfully Give."

Collection which was taken by classes and the amounts represent the total collection of the year.

The Infant class taught by Miss Jennie Coleman having raised the largest amount was awarded the banner, which was presented by our superintendent, A. J. Hackett, Sr., in a very pleasing and effective manner. After which we were favored with Recitation, "Good-Bye," Esther Beauchamp.

Doxology, School.
Benediction, Pastor.

Our pastor, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, who has so earnestly and faithfully labored with us for four years, has accepted a call to Federalsburg, Md., and has so notified his official board. The church as a whole very much regrets to have him go, as his labors with us have been so pleasant and his presence at all times a benediction, and we trust that in his new field he may find a church that will hold up his hands and hearts that are open to receive the truth. A MEMBER.

The day school held a box social at the school house Friday evening.

SOCIAL NOTES.

A delightful surprise party was held at the home of Mr. James Archibald, living near Kennedyville, on Monday evening last. The evening was spent very pleasantly in playing games. Music and several other amusements were indulged in. About eleven o'clock the company was invited to the dining room where refreshments were served in abundance. Those present were: Messrs. Dan Steele, Will Steele, Ralph McIntyre, Ben Jarvis, of Galena, Walter Hill, Andrew Medders, Sam DuShane, of Locust Grove, Earnest Briscoe, of Worton, Harry Richards, Willie Hudson, of Still Pond, Sam Ringgold, of Chesterville, John Strong, Earl Nickerson, Dol. Melvin, Will Fogwell, Rob. Morgan, Rob. Jarrell, Willie Archibald, Harper Webb and others from Kennedyville, Misses Mary Steele, Katie Truitt, of Chestertown, Lizzie Jones, Mae Hurlock, Mary Archibald, Beulah Archibald, Ada Hurlock, Nellie Cleaver, Minnie Melvin, Bessie Webb, Flora Johnson, Louise Johnson, Effie Lynch, Mae Allston, Nettie Jarrell, Florence Powell and Mr. Joseph Shriver and wife, Mr. W. S. Hurlock and wife, Mrs. John Archibald, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. James Archibald and wife, and Dr. Sparks.

Mrs. Dr. Charles W. Whaland entertained a few of her friends at euchre on Saturday afternoon, at her home on High street. Among those present were: Mesdames A. E. Physick, Allen A. Harris, R. H. Collins, J. Lane Finley, R. D. Hynson, W. F. Hines, Thos. W. Perkins, L. W. Wickes, Jas. W. Cain, Wm. W. Beck, C. E. Crane, J. M. Toulson, and Misses Warwick, of Philadelphia, Louise Stam, Josephine Wickes, Emma Beck, Nannie Brice, Grace and Mary Whaland. Mrs. Lewin Wickes captured first honors and Miss Emma Beck secured the booby.

Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard attended last evening at the Belvedere, Baltimore, a wild duck and terrapin supper, given by the American Representative of Chilian Goverment Nitrate Beds. Mr. Hubbard and his cousin, Mr. Howard Hubbard, of Baltimore, were among the guests. The Hubbard Fertilizer Company has purchased for this year's supply $23,000 worth of this article which enters largely into the composition of the spring and truck phosphates.

Misses Nannie Brice and Emma Beck entertained very pleasantly on Thursday evening at their home on Washington avenue the Ladies Card Club, together with their husbands, and other lady and gentlemen friends. Miss Julia Cacy won the first lady's prize and Dr. Charles P. Gilpin won the first gentleman's prize.

Mrs. W. L. White entertained her Sunday School class at the M. E. parsonage at a delightful "Conundrum Tea" on Tuesday evening. The evening was one of much pleasure and amusement, and a large company was present as guests of Mrs. White.

Mrs. Wm. W. Beck entertained the Ladies Card Club very delightfully at her home on Front street Thursday afternoon of last week.

CHURCH NOTES.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday school at 2.15 P. M. Epworth League meeting at 6.45 P. M. Morning subject: "Rest In the Lord;" evening subject: "Hobab Invited; or the Call of the Church To the Outsider." Revival services in the evening. All are cordially invited.

The first issue of the St. James C. E. Monthly was delivered last Wednesday. The paper is a neat four-page monthly containing all the news relating to the C. E. Society and congregation of St. James and also of Lynch's, together with notices of deaths, marriages, etc. It is a credit in every respect to the editors and society, and will meet with a welcome reception in the county. The editors of the paper are Miss Bessie Nicholson, Mrs. Emily Gale, Miss Sadie Morris and Miss Mary Sheridan. Subscription price is 10 cents per year, and all communications addressed to either of the above editors will receive prompt attention. Subscribe for the paper and help a worthy cause.

Rev. W. R. Graham, of Easton, is recovering rapidly from a recent spell of pneumonia. He is able to attend to his duties to the delight of his loyal congregation.

Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell, formerly pastor of Christ M. P. Church, but at present stationed at Lisbon, Howard county, has asked to be relieved from his present charge and will probably retire from the active ministry. Mr. Hoblitzell has been in the ministry nearly 50 years, and has been one of the most successful ministers in the Maryland Conference. He will probably locate at Belair, where several of his sons are engaged in business.

Rev. Frank H. Lewis, pastor of North Baltimore Methodist Protestant Church, has received a call to First Methodist Protestant Church, Pittsburg. He preached there last Sunday.

Bishop M'Laren, one of the most prominent Protestant Episcopal Bishops in the country, died in New York State on Sunday.

A most inspiring scene was witnessed in Christ Methodist Protestant Church last Sunday morning. Twenty young people presented themselves at the altar for admission into the church, as a partial result of the very successful revival services now in progress in the church. Dr. Greenfield has labored faithfully among his people, and has been ably assisted by Rev. W. L. White of the M. E. Church, who preached Monday evening, and by Rev. Milton McCann, of Pomona, and ministers from a distance. Nearly 50 young people have been brought into the church.

The Chestertown W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson on Tuesday afternoon.

The Womas's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Marceline Burchinal, of Front street on Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. Wm. A. Melvin, pastor of Cumberland M. P. Church has been quite ill for a week or more. Mr. Melvin cut his face while shaving and it was feared that blood poison would result. We are glad to state that he is improving. Several years ago Mr. Melvin married Miss Minnie Peregoy, daughter of Mr. Wm. C. Peregoy, of Chestertown, and he has been very successful in his pastoral work at Cumberland.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor. Subjects of sermons for Sunday, February 26th: 10.30 A. M., "The Worker Most Needed Now;" 7 P. M. "A Sensible Reply To An Artful Request." At this church on Sunday, March 5th, if fair, twenty-one persons will be received into full membership if they shall be present; and on the same day a meeting of the "qualified members in full communion and fellowship having attained the age of twenty-one years" will be held after service for the election of delegate to the Annual Conference.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of Warwick Circuit, Rev. F. S. Cain, pastor, will be held in Warwick M. P. Church next Tuesday. Rev. F. S. Cain is very popular with the people of this Circuit and is doing a most excellent work.

A Martha Washington Tea was served at Wesley Chapel M. P. parsonage on Wednesday evening. A large company was present and a splendid time socially was enjoyed.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Winnie Price, of Still Pond, has been the guest of friends in Baltimore.

At the Methodist Protestant parsonage in Kennedyville, on the evening of Feb. 19th, Mr. Harry George and Miss Sarah E. Cropper were quietly married by Rev. R. S. Rowe.

The Misses Warwick, of Philadelphia, are the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Perkins, on Front street.

We regret to state that Mr. Wm. H. Lambert, Sr., has been quite sick at his home on Queen street during the week.

Dr. O. L. Long, of Rock Hall, accompanied Mr. Reybold Wilson, of that town to a Baltimore hospital for treatment for stomach trouble on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Wilson has been quite sick for several days, and his physician thought that his removal to the hospital would prove beneficial.

Miss Nellie Casey, of Rock Hall, has been the guest of Miss Gertie Copper, on High street during the week.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes and little daughter left town on Wednesday morning for Alabama, where they will be the guests for some time of Mrs. Wickes' sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell have returned from a visit to Philadelphia and other northern points.

Messrs. Wm. King and Wm. Black, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mr. Charles King for a few days this week.

We regret to state that Mr. Thomas Skirven, one of Kent's most prominent agriculturalists, is quite ill at his home near Fairlee.

Miss Mamie Chrisfield, of Locust Grove, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, on High St.

Mr. Dan Steele, of Galena, has been visiting relatives and friends in town.

At Piney Neck parsonage, on Monday evening Feb. 20th, by the pastor Rev. G. S. Conoway, Mr. Howard Coleman, of Piney Neck, was married to Miss Helen Towers, of Baltimore.

Miss Hattie Gray, of Galena, is spending sometime with friends in Delaware.

We regret to state that Miss Agnes Crew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Crew, is extremely ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Rash, in Worton. She is not expected to live through the night.

Mr. Harvey Boggs, fireman on the Kent train, who has been suffering with an attack of pneumonia, is able to sit up.

Miss May Ireland is the guest of her brother, Mr. Wm. P. Ireland, in Philadelphia.

Chief Judge Jas. A. Pearce was in Chestertown yesterday, and drew the jury for the April term of court.

Miss Rebecca Wickes is the guest of Mrs. LeDuc, in New York City.

We regret to state that our aged and esteemed citizen, Capt. J. H. Thompson, is not so well.

KENT ISLAND NOT IN KENT COUNTY.

People Living on the West Side of the Bay Often Make Such a Mistake.

The Baltimore American of Tuesday contained the following article:

County Commissioner Henry P. Mann, who lives at Orangeville, tells an interesting story of the return of a beagle hound to his home from Kent county. Mr. Mann says: "About three years ago I gave a beagle hound away, and he was eventually taken to Kent county. On Monday night myself and family were amazed to see the dog walk into our home and take a position near the stove. It was very cold and hungry. I cannot account for how the dog got here unless it crossed over the ice on the bay from Kent Island to Baltimore county, and thence to my home. The dog had frequently hunted in that portion of the county. I have heard of dogs performing similar feats, but such an instance has never before come under my observation. However, this is no more remarkable than a carrier pigeon flying 500 miles back to its home."

The county commissioner is mistaken as to his geography. Kent Island is not in Kent county, and there are no people here who have any recollection of the escapade of the dog.

Oysters $1.75 a Bushel in Baltimore.

The most notable sale of oysters during the season in Baltimore was two cargoes of York river stock, aggregating more than 2,000 bushels, bought by Jacob Durm & Son last week. The two vessels bringing the bivalves to market were towed up from York river.

The purchase of the cargoes made the famine along the Pratt street wharves and throughout the city complete. Less than fifty bushels constituted the shell stock on hand Friday morning, with no boats, so far as known, coming to market.

The Norfolk steamers brought up small shipments, not enough to give appreciable relief.

"The severe weather down the bay has made it impossible for oystermen to work," said an officer of a Norfolk steamer. "The Virginia rivers are, as a rule, as tightly sealed by ice as are the Maryland streams farther north. The high prices will, however, get the men on the oystering grounds to work as soon as it is possible, but when that will be no one can say."

The oyster market of Baltimore has never been so absolutely exhausted as at present.

In Crisfield all the packing houses have shut down for want of stock, 1,000 people being thrown out of employment.
