DIES OF RABIES.

Bitten By Dog That Chased Cat.

Bitten by a dog five weeks ago, Howard Melvin Heather, 7 years old, suddenly developed Hydrophobia last week and died in great agony. It was one of the most rapid cases of the disease known to medical science. The little boy was first treated at the Jefferson Hospital Philadelphia, and it was thought the danger had been removed. He returned to his studies, having been a pupil of the Horace Binney Primary School, Spruce and Pine streets, Philadelphia. He continued there until Thursday of last week when he was stricken. Water was offered him with a powder prescribed for pain in the stomach, but the boy refused it. He frothed and bled at the mouth and was racked with convulsions. His family physician was summoned and his case was pronounced one of violent hydrophobia. The little boy was in the kitchen of his home, 336 Spruce street on Feb. 12, when a dog entered the back yard chasing a cat. The family servant pursured the dog and young Heather followed. The dog turned on him, upset him, and, as he lay on the pavement, bit his face. There were teeth marks under the right eye, and his right cheek was torn and bleeding. After beating the dog off, the servant carried the little boy into the house. Mr. Thomas H. Heather, the little boy's father, hurried his son to the Jefferson Hospital. His case was given especial attention, and the father was instructed to return to the hospital daily. He continued to improve, and he returned to the hospital for the last time on February 17th. His wonnds, apparently healed, were dressed for the last time. Returning home the lad played about the house, and the next Monday resumed his studies in school. Complaining of a pain in his stomach, several days ago the boy was sent to a physician. Powders were prescribed, and he took them regular until Thursday. Then the sight of water frightened him. He refused to take it. His eyes became glassy and his nerves twitched. His physician was convinced that the boy had developed a case of hydrophia. Heroic treatment failed to relieve the patient. His condition became worse. All medical means failed to relieve, and with his father at his bedside, the lad, tossing and moaning, finally expired. Young Heather was an exceptionally bright and promising lad, and his terrible death is greatly to be regretted. He was a nephew of Mr. Wm. T. Whiteley of Kennedyville, and his family are well known in Kent county in the vicinity of Kennedyville.

NOTABLE TRIAL ENDS.

Dr. W. F. Corkran Suspended From the Wilmington Conference for one Year, and Dr. Baker is Deposed.

The trials of Revs. Dr. W. F. Corkran and Dr. C. S. Baker which have been the chief feature of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, owing to the prominence of the ministers in former years in the conference, have ended against the preachers. Dr. Corkran was tried before a committee of 15 selected from the conference upon the following charge : First, gambling; second, fraud ; third, high imprudence and unministerial conduct ; fourth, falsehood. These charges were preferred by the conference as a result of dabbling in stocks by the two ministers. In the case of Dr. Corkran, the committee, after a spirited trial, found the following charges sustained :

First, gambling ; second, fraud, not sustained, but that the evidence under that charge did sustain a charge of high imprudence and unministerial conduct ; third, high imprudence and unministerial conudct sustained ; fourth, falsehood, not sustained.

The verdict in the case was that Dr. Corkran be suspended from the ministry for one year, that is until the session of the Wilmington Conference, in 1906. Dr. J. A. B. Wilson, counsel for Dr. Corkran, noted an appeal to the General Conference of the church. Dr. Baker was tried on the same charges as Dr. Corkran with the exception of falsehood, and a profound sensation was created in conference when the committee announced its decision, finding Dr. Baker guilty of all these charges, and deposing him from the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It was thought that the penalty in Dr. Baker's case would be the same as that in the case of Dr. Corkran, and the Conference was not prepared for such a sweeping sentence. Great sympathy is expressed for the ministers, especially Dr. Baker. His counsel also noted an appeal to the General Conference.

Afraid of Strong Medicines.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rehumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. KENT CIRCUIT M. E. C. S.

Rev. J. H. Kuhlmann Reviews His Year's Work.

Chesterville and Millington constitute Kent Circuit M. E. C. S. It has been my pleasure to serve this people one year and upon the eve of my departure to attend the session of our annual conference, at Winchester, Va., I take this opportunity of making a brief statement concerning the labors of the past year, through the columns of your paper. The work shows progress along all lines and collections in excess of pervious years.

In our two Sunday schools we have an enrollment of 154 pupils and 19 officers and teachers. The attendance throughout the year has been encouraging and gratifying. Notwithstanding the severity of the winter weather the schools have held every session with one exception.

Children's day, Missionary day and Christmas were observed with appropriate exercises.

Amount raised by the Sunday schools for all purposes is $103.91.

We have two Home Mission Societies which are doing a good work not only in looking after the comfort of the pastor and his wife, but also lending a hand to the connectional.

During the year they have furnished a room in the Brevard School at Brevard, N. C., and named it "David Clements" in honor of the senior member of the society.

Thus you see these ladies permit the gentlemen to unite with them in the advancement of this great department of our work. These societies have raised by dues and free will offerings the sum of $107.15.

Incidental expenses $123 and salaries of Presiding Elder and Preacher in charge $786, have been met in full, while that of our Conference Collections amount to $241 and total amount raised on the circuit is $1350.

Just here I want to say that I serve not only a liberal people, but cheerful, willing givers in their support along all lines of christain work. Our associations throughout the year have been profitable and pleasant.

In conclusion let me thank you for the publication from time to time of our church notices and also for your weekly visit to the parsonage. We appreciate your thoughtfulness in our behalf.

[COMMUNICATED.]

FROM ROCK HALL.

Our little town has begun to look more like itself since the boat has made its daily trips. Things seem much brighter than for some time past.

We are very sorry to part with one of our esteemed ladies, Mrs. J. Coppage, who, with her son, are going on a large farm in Virginia. Dr. Beal has rented her house.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Francis gave a fine supper a few weeks ago to a few friends. Those being present were : Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clothier, Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank Wheatley, Mr. and Mrs. John Brice, Mr. and Mrs. Neel Wilson and Charlie Brown.

Your correspondent made a mistake in interpreting Mr. Sutton's dream. He did not even drive the horse and never considered him fast, only good and honest. Mrs. Sutton brought her butter to town and then drove him down to the wharf, making about 16 miles he had come. While there she was sent for to come up and race. She refused to trot him for a good while, thinking the horse tired and having twelve more miles to go. It was during the ice and sleet, and her horse will not trot on ice, but as we insisted so, she drove him a few times through the village. When Mr. Sutton (who came in another team) begged Lewis Ayres before us all to trot him one heat, either for money or fun. Lewis would not do it ; the reason was plain to all. Mrs. Sutton would never have driven through snow banks and across fields to beat a horse that they have already beat three or four times, and that did not give little "Dick" a decent race. It makes quite a difference for a horse to be brought out on a certain track each day and trained just what to do and where to turn, than to one who is never accustomed to it.

Fishermen report about 10,000 logs in the bay, also a good deal of ice, which we hope will not interfere with their nets.

Our magistrate, R. F. Jewell, has moved to the third house from the corner where he formerly lived.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

A pile-driver from Baltimore is busy driving down piles at the Ericsson pier, which the ice during the recent winter broke off.

The ice out of the Susquehanna river came out into the bay on Wednesday, and with it some drift wood. It is reported that 10,000 logs are loose from Williamport, and are coming down the Susquehanna river. A salvage of 50 cents a piece is placed upon them.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owens have been visiting in Baltimore.

Mrs. Reese Young, of St. Michaels, is the guest of her daughter Mrs. Walter Crew.

Miss Hattie Lore, of Galena, has been visiting Miss Violet Moore.

Mrs. Greenwood and children, of near Chestertown, spent part of last week with friends here.

Our community was deeply shocked to hear of the death of Mr. Peterson. He was a man that was loved and respected by all who knew him here, and will be widely missed.

Misses Lillian Kelley and Ella Martin, of Baltimore, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brice. Mrs. Brice accompanied them to the city on Monday morning where she will spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brice visited Philadelphia this week.

A representative of Lorck Packing Company was in Betterton on Tuesday and Wednesday contracting for tomatoes for the coming season.

Mr. Hickman is having erected a store-room where he will keep meat and vegetables of all kinds. This is an improvement to our town and will be patronized by all.

We are glad to say that the fishermen are making some fine catches of rock. We hope that it will continue.

If it is a billious attack take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by M. A. Toulson.

WARWICK ITEMS.

The few spring-like days of last week caused many to get ready for work in their gardens, but our hopes were blasted by the return of genuine March weather. Quite a number in this community are suffering with colds, but all seem to be somewhat improved.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank S. Cain were called to Milford, Del., on Wednesday of last week, on account of the death of Mrs. Cain's brother. This makes the third one in the family to pass away in less than one year. We are sure they have the sympathy of the entire community in this their hour of sorrow.

Owing to our pastor suffering with a heavy cold, we had no service last Sunday. Regular service next Sunday for this circuit will be: Preaching at Sassafras, 10.30 A. M.; Salem, 2.30 P. M.; Warwick, 7.30 P. M. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Piser is quite ill at her home about one mile from Warwick.

Wedding bells are expected to ring here in a day or two. Guess who ?

Our school closed on Monday and opened Thursday on account of the death of Examiner Joseph Peterson.

Mrs. J. C. Rasin has been visiting her mother, who is very sick at her home in Townsend, Del.

A typical summer thunder storm visited this section Sunday evening.

The few warm days last week have helped wheat and grass greatly. Wheat is looking fine. BE WISE.

A TRIBUTE.

Our Father, in His divine providence, having called to the heavenly home John P. Van Dyke, a charter member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Kennedyville, the Union desires to place upon record this tribute to his memory:

Resolved, That in the life of Mr. Van Dyke we recognized the finest elements of true manhood and sterling character, a christian gentleman in the highest acceptation of the term; a man true to his church, true to the temperance cause, true to his friends, true and devotedly tender to his own home circle.

Resolved, That in the home life we were impressed with his spirituality, his hospitality and his gentleness.

Resolved, That to him and to his family this Union owes much for the measure of success thus far attained.

Resolved, That in his death the county has lost an honored citizen, and society a valued and useful member.

Resolved, That the Union extend to his family its tender sympathy in the great bereavment that has come to them and pray that the Comforter may speak words of peace to their hearts.

Resolved, That this testimonial of our sympathy be presented to his family, also spread upon our minutes and that copies be sent to our county papers.
