EDITORS,

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1905.

CAPT. KERR, of the Fitfh District, has a wolf in his back. It pains him very badly.

THE PEOPLE OF THE TOWN and county are perfectly satisfied with the election of Prof. Milton Melvin as County Superintendent of public schools regardless of how or by whom it was done.

IT HAS BECOME evident to the Russian Government that they are not equal to the task of conquering the Japs, and the indications are that overtures for peace will be made by Russia shortly. The Russian Government has lost 500,000 men on the field of battle since the war began.

GEN. MURRAY VANDIVER, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, is losing no time in beginning his fight in favor of the Constitutional Amendment. Gen. Vandiver has outlined a plan of campaign for all the counties and Baltimore city, and a most vigorous campaign will begin at once for the election of the Democratic ticket and the adoption of the Amendment at the coming fall election.

THE FRIENDS of Col. Wm. J. Vannort, president of the Board of Town Commissioners, are urging him to allow the use of his name as a candidate for re-election in May. It is to be hoped that the Colonel will consent to the use of his name. He is a man of energy and public spirit, and is peculiarly fitted both socially and otherwise to discharge the duties of what is really an important office. We hope the Colonel will give his consent to become a candidate.

MR. GEORGE B. MCWHORTER, who has announced himself a candidate for sheriff of Kent county as the representative of the People's wing of the Democracy, is one of the most popular and substantial men of the community. His long residence in and connection with the town and county in all that pertains to its wellfare and progress, furnishes him with a sufficiant claim to the votes of the Democrats of the Fourth District in the primaries and to those of the Democrats of the entire county in the election. Mr. McWhorter has never been a candidate for office, though having been solicited many times before to announce himself a candidate; he has always been one of our prominent citizens and large taxpayers, and has lived in Chestertown sufficiently long to become known to the people of the entire county. He is distinctively a man of the people, the candidate of the laboring man as well as the candidate of those in all walks of life. He is a most ideal candidate for the position to which he aspires, and will make a most acceptable officer of the law.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

☞ The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT's columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

MESSRS. EDITORS, Sirs:—Not thinking or wishing of pulling the mortar out ot the wall of a brick house in my last letter, but as such is the case I will say that I am always open to conviction, and when convinced that I am wrong, I gladly and heartily apologize. I did not mean to be sarcastic for I do not think it right to reproach anyone without a just cause.

One writer in your issue of March 18 says that I take exceptions to the pay of game wardens and he does not know how I get my figures. It is a simple Oral Problem gotten out of their proposed bill which it does not take 30 seconds of thought to work. He also says the pay is small enough. In that I agree with him. I would like to ask if the sum of twenty dollars would compensate anyone enough for one year's careful and diligent watching for violators of the proposed bill. I for one would not like to have the ill will of the few or many who would not comply with the proposed bill for that sum. He says now if I have offered anything new we fail to find it. He never asked for anything new but for something better. He says he agrees with me in regards to invited guests. So far, so good, but the proposed bill does not agree with me in that respect, then why wish to promote and have passed such bill? He says the trespass law protects the land owner.

One writer says change the law, make the land owner and guests equal with the resident. Do so, and you will not find so many antagonistic to the proposed bill.

But, Messrs. Editors, I do not believe in Rule or Ruin; therefore if the majority of the gunners want the proposed bill to be a law, then I surrender, and if such a law be passed I will try and comply with the requirements of said law, as well as anyone of the FINE promoters.

Now, gentlemen, as I have remortared the bricks in the wall, and the wall looks solid again, I will close, wishing you all a bag full of game every time you go gunning, I remain,

SECOND DISTRICT DEMOCRAT.

MESSRS. EDITORS, Dear Sirs:—In reply to the two letters that appeared in your issue of March 18th. In the first letter it says, "There are more than one interested in the proposed game law." As far as I have either heard express an opinion or heard of any one expressing one, there are eleven in the Second District. Out of the eleven there is only one that has a care of any consequence to protect game from the several elements of nature.

The proposed law to me looks as if a few want the monopoly of game, for instance after collecting the money from gunners to buy game it would be put out on farms, and if it should get plentiful as they (supporters) advocated it, it would be strictly under the control of the party or parties where it may be and the gunners that have helped buy the game must stand back and let other people kill (unless they hunt unlawfully) which would surely be a monopoly by a favored few. If every gunner has to help buy it, they should have a right (which cannot be under trespass law) to gun for it.

In the second letter I see the writer has given a careful estimate of proceeds of tax of $2500. If everybody was in favor of such a law and would put up their $1 for license and 25 cents for fee, we do not doubt but they would have $2500, but take the proposed law with so few followers and admit it became a law, we would like to have a careful estimate of how much it would cost to collect the $2500. At a careful estimate it would cost $2.50 to collect a $1 and we would have nothing to buy game with, and there would be a large deficit.

Secondly: The writer invited his friends from Philadelphia, Pa., (non-residents and own no land) to come down and gun, and at the same time he knows they have no license to gun under the present law. From experience he knows "the present game laws, are openly violated. If the present law can be stretched to permit such violations, why couldn't the proposed one be the same?

He would neither inform on nor prosecute them and expects to hire a game warden for the paltry sum of $20 per year to patrol the whole district and enforce the law they so openly allow to be violated now.

There might be a few that were not in the ring against whom the law would be enforced. What would one game warden in each district do the first day gunning begins? Our present game warden has his hands full enough to keep off the farm he now lives on, and what would be the consenbance had he to enforce the law against all trespassers of a whole district.

The proposed game law would not keep dogs from running at large and destroying more young rabbits in a week than the gunners kill a whole season; would not keep hawks from feeding on partridges, nor would it keep gunners from killing every bird in a covey if they can possibly do so and leave none to raise the young for another season, unless the proposed law would make game so plentiful that all dogs and hawks would become gorged and still have enough for gunners.

I cannot see in the proposed law a remedy for decreasing game. What we need is this: Give us a poll tax and let those that pay no taxes now help defray the expenses of conducting the elections.

With all due respect for advocates of the proposed game law, I am

Yours, etc.,
SECOND DISTRICT VOTER.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Att'y.
