SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1905.

MR. GEORGE B. MCWHORTER is proving an excellent vote getter and is waging a hustling campaign.

COURT Stenographer James E. Wilkinson, one of the most popular young men in Baltimore city, died on Wednesday evening of cerebro spinal meningitis.

EX-JUDGE MAYNADIER, one of the most prominent members of the Harford county bar, died suddenly on Wednesday at his home in Belair.

THE APPOINTMENT of Mr. Eugene M. Bonwell as a member of the almshouse board on Tuesday by Commissioner Davis is one of the best appointments ever made in the county.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is enjoying a Southern trip in one of the most handsomely equipped cars that has ever left Washington. He is trying to get on friendly terms with the people of Dixieland.

SPIRITED PUIMARIES were held in Baltimore on Tuesday for the nomination of councilmanic candidates. The organization candidates of each party were successful with the exception of Mr. Geo. E. Numsen, whose defeat is much to be regretted. The primaries demonstrated the power of the control of the organization forces of both parties and good men were nominated for the various offices.

THE FRIENDS OF Mr. J. Biddle Hossinger, of the Second District, have prevailed upon him to announce himself a candidate for the Legislature as the representative of the People's wing of the Democratic party. He is one of the most popular young men and prominent agriculturalists in the county, and his candidacy meets with the most hearty approval in all parts of the county. He will run in the interest of Dr. J. H. Hessy, candidate for treasurer in the Third District, Mr. G. B. McWhorter, candidate for sheriff in the Fourth district, Chas. D. Wood, candidate for County Commissioner in the Fifth district, Wm. T. Nicholson, candidate for County Commissioner in the Sixth District, and a candidate for the Legislature to be announced later from one of the districts. A vote for Mr. Hossinger means a vote for all of these candidates just as a vote for Mr. McWhorter in the Fourth means a vote for Mr. Hossinger in the Second.

FOR COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

The State Board of Education held a special meeting last week at Governor Warfield's office in the Fidelity Building, Baltimore, to discuss a proposed bill which the board intends to present to the members of the next General Assembly, asking for the passage of an act requiring compulsory education throughout the counties of the state. The members after discussing the matter concluded to order the draft of the bill to be prepared, stipulating, however, that there should be no drastic features in the proposed act. Should the bill become a law the county school superintendent in each of the counties will be required to obtain from teachers of the schools in each district a complete list, not only of the pupils attending the said school, but of all the children within their district. This will enable the school examiner when he receives the report of the attendance from the respective schools to locate and ascertain the names of all the children between 8 and 12 years of age who do not attend school. The Board appointed the executive committee for the senior class of the normal department at Washington College to assist in the final examination and to satisfy themselves that graduates are qualified to receive diplomas. The Committee for Washington College is Messrs. Cole, Wharton, Gary and Stephens.

CHURCH NOTES.

A handsome new pipe organ has recently been placed in Shrewsbury Church. The organ is of standard make, is sweet in tone and rich in volume, and will be a most valuable acquisition to the historic church. It was purchased largely through the efforts of the loyal ladies of the congregation.

Rev. Albert C. Jamison will preach at Grace and Westminster Presbyterian Churches, to-morrow (Sunday) at the usual hours.

Rev. D. L. Greenfield, who has been recuperating his health, will leave for Conference in Salisbury on Monday. He regrets that he has been unable to attend the entire session. Dr. Greenfield's congregation earnestly hope for his return to Chestertown. Mr. James W. Lambert, the delegate from Christ Church, left for Conference on Thursday.

All the Methodist Protestant ministers of the county, with their delegates, are attending conference in Salisbury. So far as we are informed there will likely be no changes in the Kent pastorates.

Prof. Douglass, of Westminster Theological Seminary, preached a most excellent sermon in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday morning as a supply for Rev. Dr. Greenfield who was not sufficiently well to be able to fill his pulpit.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday School at 2.15 P. M. Epworth League Meeting at 6.45 P. M. Morning Subject: "The New Birth;" Evening, "The Savior at the Door." All are cordially invited.

The Kent County Executive of the W. C. T. U., will meet on Wednesday April 12th, at 2.30 P. M. at the home of Mrs. S. M. Usilton, corresponding secretary, by requests. The Executive consits of county officers, superintendents, and presidents of local unions. Please meet promptly.—Call of the County president.

Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield will conduct services to-morrow (Sunday) in Christ M. P. Church at the usual hours. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the morning services; all other services at the usual hours.
