LOCAL MATTERS.

Chestertown Laundry Sold.—Mr. Charles A. McWhorter has purchased of Mr. William Green, the Chestertown laundry. Mr. Green will assist Mr. McWhorter, who has assumed charge.

To Preach Baccalaureate Sermon.—Rt. Rev. William Forbes Adams, Bishop of the Diocese of Easton, will preach the Baccalaureate sermon before the students and faculty of Washington College in Emmanuel P. E. Church on the Sunday in commendement week in June.

Carnegie's Gift to St. John's.—Dr. Thomas Fell, president of St. John's College, Annapolis, has been informed that Mr. Andrew Carnegie has donated to the college the sum of $16,700 to be used in the construction of a physical and chemical laboratory, the gift to be upon certain conditions which the authorities of the college will not announce at present.

Prof. Melvin's Successor.—Miss Ethel M. Solloway, formerly teacher of Chestervillle public school, but more recently a teacher in Sterling, Va., has been appointed principal of the Morgnec school, in place of Prof. Milton Melvin, who has recently been appointed County Superintendent. Miss Solloway is an excellent teacher and is well known in Kent. Miss Lilia Reese will remain at Rock Hall.

Applies for Receiver.—An application for the appointment of a receiver for the Queen Anne's Ferry and Equipment Company was filed in Circuit Court No. 2, Baltimore, on Saturday afternoon by Mr. William F. Overholt, a bond holder, through R. B. Tippett & Bro., attorneys. The bill of complaint alleges that the company is utterly insolvent. Judge Dennis signed an order nisi requiring cause to be shown by April 15, why the receiver should not be appointed as asked. This is the company whose steamers plied between Baltimore and Queenstown before the purchase of the Queen Anne's Railroad by the Md., Del. & Va., R. R. Company. The company owns the steamers Queen Anne and Queen Caroline, and they recently sold the steamer Endeavor.

Fire Near Still Pond.—Fire destroyed the dwelling at Kennard's Corner, near Still Pond, on Sunday morning about 11 o'clock. A colored family had been living in one end of the dwelling and on Sunday morning, the wife, while her husband was taking his morning nap, built a hot fire in the kitchen, and it is thought the fire originated from a defective flue. The roof was ready to fall in before the family inside learned of the fire from a colored man who lives near by. The dwelling was one of the ancient landmarks of the county, having been owned many years ago by Mr. John Kennard, from whom it derived its name. It is at present the property of Mrs. Jervis, mother of Mr. Albert Jervis, living near Still Pond. It is said that it w a insured in companies represented by Mr. Tilghman Shafer of Kennedyville for $500.

OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN W. COPPER.

Mr. John W. Copper, one of the oldest and most highly respected farmers of this county died at his home, near Lynch's station, on Tuesday morning after an illness of pneumonia, aged about 70 years. Mr. Copper had practically recovered from an attack of pneumonia, but about a week ago suffered a relapse from which he never recovered. The deceased was an influential member of Lynch's M. P. Church and for a number of years was superintendent of the Sunday School. He was one of our most prominent farmers, having been for a number of years tenant on one of Mr. James W. Chapman's farms near Lynch's. He was much beloved by a wide circle of friends, and the church of which he was so valuable a member has sustained a great loss. He leaves two children, Mrs. Lula Hagan, wife of Rev. Mr. Hagan, formerly pastor of Worton Presbyterian Church, and one son, Mr. John W. Copper, Jr. Funeral services were held at his late residence on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. M. Sheridan, his pastor, officiating. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARGARET COOPER SCHWATKA.

Mrs. Margaret Cooper Schwatka, wife of Dr. J. B. Schwatka, former sheriff of Baltimore, and a fromer resident of Kent county, died at her home in Baltimore, on Thursday morning after a short illness of paralysis. She was the daughter of E. C. and the late Sarah E. Copper, and was born in Philadelphia. Besides her husband and father, she is survived by three children John B. Jr., Wm. H., and Miss Mary Schwatka, three sisters—Mrs. James Bennett, of Kent county; Mrs Charles Roeder, and Mrs. Wm. Stewart—and three brothers—Robert, Edward and William Cooper.

MISS IDA MAY KENDALL.

Miss Ida May Kendall, beloved daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. Kendall and the late Joseph J. Kendall, died at her home in Baltimore last Friday, aged 34 years. The deceased was the sister of Mr. David Kendall, Chestertown. Funeral services were held at her late residence, No 818 West Fayette street, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. David Kendall attended the funeral from Chestertown.

*†*The canneries at Rosedale and Still Pond will be operated this season. The Canning & Mercantile Company is contracting with farmers at $6 per ton, and they are receiving quite a number of contracts. Messrs. Turner & Son, Betterton, are also contracting.

*†*Mr. R. A. Smith, of Philadelphia, superintendent of railway mail service on the peninsula, was in Chestertown on Tuesday on his tour of inspection. Postal clerk Hummer was given his usual annual examination and made a most creditable average.

*†*Supt. George E. Noland, of Tolchester, is beginning his improvements at the popular resort. Messrs. Jas. Judefind, Lee A. Durding and other Rock Hall carpenters are building a bowling alley and making other improvements. The painters will soon be at work.

*†*A very pleasing opening exercise was rendered at the Chestertown Public School last Friday morning. Miss Sophia Ella sang a very beautiful solo and rendered a pretty violin solo, with accompaniment by Mrs. Hope H. Barroll. There were also several excellent recitations and songs by the pupils of the school.

*†*Mr. John Bartley removed his paint shop from his former location to the rear of his present store opposite the Voshell House this week. The shop was lifted bodily from its foundation and placed upon wheels, being carted down Queen, up Maple avenue, down Cross St. up Cannon to the store. Mr. Lewin U. Skirven did the moving.

*†*Mr. Wilbur F. Gale has resigned as agent for the Prudential Insurance Co., at Rock Hall, and contemplates removing to Washington, D. C. Mr. Frank Simpers, the Supt. of the Prudential, is adjusting the debit in that district, and has placed the work temporarily in charge of his assistant, Mr. Robert Shallcross.

*†*Mr. Charles S. Smith has purchased through J. Waters Russell, real estate dealer, the Rivers property on Washington avenue for $2,050. This property is occupied at present by Dr. G. Allen Jarman, who will reside there until Jan. 1, 1906. Mr. Smith will greatly improve the property next spring when he will remove his family there.

*†*Shad are reported very plentiful in city markets and are bringing very low prices. Quite a number have been caught in the Sassafras river around Georgetown and have been selling for 50 cts. per pair. They are reported plentiful at Rock Hall and have been selling at 4 cents. They are scarce and high in Chestertown, retailing at from 60 to 80 cents per pair.

*†*State Game Warden John D. Avirett has begun a crusade against the venders of small or undersize fish. A deputy game warden was in town on Tuesday, but found the fish being sold by our local fishermen to be of marketable size. Several arrests have been made for catching undersized fish down the shore, and the game wardens are keeping a close watch to arrest all violators.

*†*Workmen began tearing down on Monday the residence corner High and Kent streets, owned by Mr. Ralph Barnett, and recently occupied by Mr. Charles W. Copper, as a meat market, preparatory to the erection of a handsome building by Mr. Vernon Barnett, of the new and durable building stone, of which he is sole manufacturer. The new building will be a great improvement to that section of the town.

*†*Mr. George Z. Roland has just placed in his storeroom, the handsomest and most spacious refrigerator on the shore, it has a glass front and the meat is always in the view of the customers and in the centre is a large bevel-edge mirror. It has an ice chest that will hold about 3500 lbs., and six large dressed steers can be easily stored in the cold storage department, besides ample hook and shelf room for cut meats, etc., and a butter chest, of galvanized iron, that will hold several hundred lbs. and room for storage of eggs.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Mamye Thompson was the guest of Mrs. Joseph Parsons, in Middletown, Del., last week.

Mr. Louis C. Hayes, Jr., of Galena, has accepted a position as insurance solicitor with Mr. Frank G. Simpers, Asst. Supt. Prudential Life Insurance Company. Mr. Hayes is a young man of excellent address and courteous manner, is well-known in Kent and elsewhere, and he will be a valuable assistant to Mr. Simpers' excellent force of assistants.

Mrs. Wm. C. Peregoy has been visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore

Mrs. Wm. H. Bowers, of Still Pond, is reported quite sick.

Mrs. Mary J. Howard, of Still Pond, has been quite sick during the week, but we are glad to state that she is improved.

With Our Advertisers.

What a change since 1779 when Commodore Stephen Decatur was born on a tabacco farm at Berlin, Md., when today Harrisons' are growing peach trees on the same soil. There were no nurserymen of his day.

What improvements in the vicinity of Berlin, Md. from a tobacco farm to a fruit tree farm, since 1779 where Commodore Decatur was born now Harrisons' nurseries.

The Canning & Mercantile Co., of Still Pond, Md., have decided to close out their entire hardware and implement business, and they are offering big bargains on everything in their line, and their line is complete. Don't miss this opportunity of getting bargains. They will hold a big public sale on Saturday, April 15th, at their store in Still Pond. Don't fail to attend this sale.

Turner & Son, Betterton, call the attention of our readers to their spring announcement. This is one of the most reliable firms in the county, and their goods are always as represented. They deal in grain, fertilizer, lumber, etc., and will de prompt in filling all orders. They have a competent and obliging force of clerks, and will be pleased to hear from their friends. See their large advertisement on first page.

Mr. Jas. D. Lucas, the clothing man, has been in Baltimore and Philadelphia completing his purchase of spring and summer clothing, gents furnishings, etc. He will tell you something about his goods in his space on the first page shortly.

A man is wanted to sell the Globe kitchen cabinet, the most wonderful combination cabinet manufactured on the market. It may be seen at Pippin's Hotel, and there should be one in every household. It is certainly not only very useful but wonderful in every way. A fine chance for the right man.

W. Ambrose Carroll, the shoe man, has a change of adv. in this issue. It is in the nature of a talk to shoe buyers, and he tells you something interesting. He has a splendid assortment of shoes and slippers for spring and summer. Look up his adv. and read it carefully.

Joseph Guest, of our town, presents his 1905 advertisement in this issue. He is anxious for the people to know that he is the only Ruberoid Roof agent in Chestertown. There are other brands of roofing that are claimed as good as Ruberoid, but he has a challenge to all competitors of Ruberoid. He also calls attention to Zinko Oil Paints, sold at $1.25 per gallon with a 5 year warranty by the makers. Look for and read his advertisement.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS NOTICE.

We hereby give notice that we will sit at our office in the Court House, Chestertown, on April 19, 20 and 21, (Court week) and on May 3, 4 and 5, for the purpose of ADJUSTING ASSESSMENTS. All parties desiring their assessments adjusted will please call at our office on the above dates.

HOW TWO BEAUTIFUL WOMEN ESCAPED PELVIC CATARRH BY AID OF PE-RU-NA.

Female Weakness Is Usually Pelvic Catarrh. Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

Mrs. Mable Bradford, 13 Church street, Burlington, Vt., Secretary Whittier Oratorio Society, writes:

"Peruna is certainly a wonderful medicine for the ills of women. I have heard it spoken of in the highest praise by many, and certainly my experienco is well worthy of a good word.

"I began to have severe pains across my back about a year ago, brought on by a cold, and each subsequent month brought me pain and distress.

"Your remedy was prescribed, and the way it acted upon my system was almost too good to be true. I certainly have regained my health and strength, and I no longer suffer periodical pains and extreme lassitude."—Mable Bradford.

Mrs. Lizzie Redding, 3134 B Clifton Place, St. Louis, Mo., writes:

"I found after trying many different medicines to restore me to health, that Peruna was the only thing which could be depended upon. I began taking it when I was in a decline, induced by female weakness and overwrought nerves.

"I began to feel stronger during the first week I took Peruna and my health improved daily until now I am in perfect health and enjoy life as I never did before."—Lizzie Redding.

Thousands of Women Cured Every Year by Correspondence—This Is What Dr. Hartman Proposes to Do For You Without Charge.

Women who suffer should read the evidences presented here. We have thousands of letters from grateful friends who tell the same story.

Half the ills that are peculiarly woman's own are of a catarrhal character. Female weakness was not understood for many years.

Dr. Hartman deserves the credit of having determined its real character. He has made catarrh and catarrhal diseases, including pelvic catarrh a life long study.

Peruna cures catarrh, whether of the pelvic organs or any other organ of the human body.

Pe-ru-na, a Natural Beautifier.

Peruna produces clean, mucous membranes, the basis of facial symmetry and a perfect complexion.

The women have not been slow to discover that a course of Peruna will do more toward restoring youthful beauty than all the devices known to science.

Many a girl has regained her faded beauty, many a matron has lengthened the days of her comely appearance by using Peruna.

In Peruna these women find a prompt and permanent cure.

Thousands of testimonials to this effect are received by Dr. Hartman every year. The good that Peruna has accomplished in this class of cases can scarcely be over-estimated.

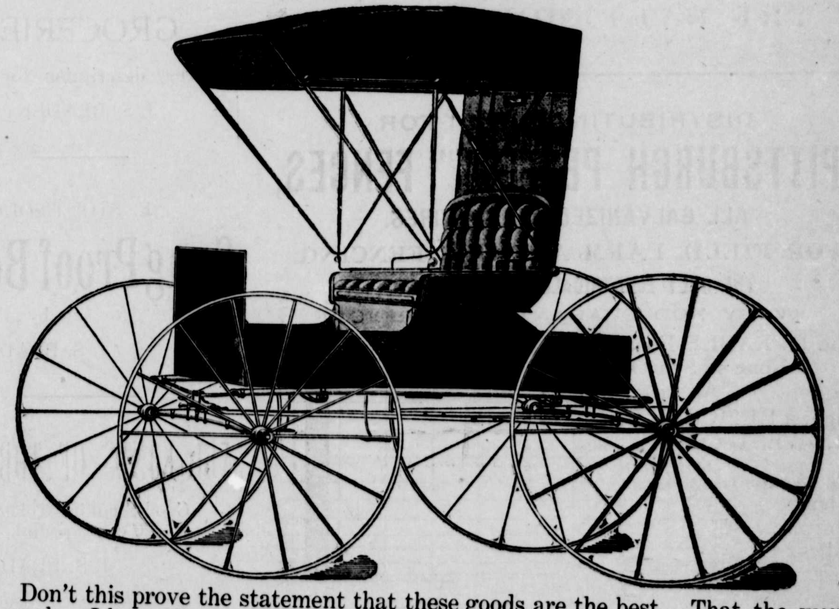

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio. All correspondence held strictly confidential.
