Make Money In California

If you are industrious and capable you can make money there. The big ranches are breaking up into small farms that need more workers to care for the increased product. The towns and cities are prosperous because the country is prosperous.

There are great valleys of the richest soil in America waiting for you. If you have a little capital you can own one of these small farms yourself, or you can rent one on shares and pay for it out of the product in a few years. We will send you descriptive booklets and folders giving full information about the money-making opportunities for every member of the family.

You want to see what the country is really like; you can go there, work a few months, enjoy the delightful climate, the flowers, fruit and scenery, and earn enough to pay your expenses both ways by taking advantage of the

THE CORN SPECIAL.

A Traveling Bureau of Information for the Benefit of Maryland Farmers, in Charge of Institute Director Amoss.

The "Corn Special," which is but another name for a means which Institute Director W. L. Amoss has inaugurated for furnishing the farmers of the state with valuable information on agriculture, began a tour of the state last Friday, and is meeting with a hearty reception everywhere. A number of experienced lecturers are on the "Special" and they are giving the farmers some excellent information on the growing of cereals, etc. One of these lectures is reproduced in part in this article with the hope that it may be of benefit to the farmers of this county:

HOW TO SELECT SEED CORN.

Thousands of dollars and many years of hard work have been spent at the various agricultural experiment stations, and the result of this outlay of money and time is placed before the farmers by the "corn special." The experiments conducted at the Maryland Experiment Station have proved that the farmers of the State can get a large increase of corn per acre without any extra expense for fertilizers or cultivation by simply selecting their seed properly. It is the method of selecting the seed that is explained by the lecturers with the "corn special." This method is as follows:

The average yield of corn per acre in Maryland is 32½ bushels, whereas if every stalk bore one good ear the yield would be 100 bushels, and there is no good reason why this maxium result should not be obtained. The principal cause of the small yield is the lack of vitality in the seed. Many seeds do not germinate and many others that germinate grow weakly and slowly. The first principal of successful corn-breeding, then, is to properly select the seed.

TEST BY SPROUTING.

To do this on a scientific basis, but which however, is so simple that a boy can apply it, is to select twice as many ears as will be needed for seed, the rate being about twelve ears to the care. Lay these ears out on the floor of the barn in rows, driving long nails in the floor to hold them in place. Then take a box about 6 inches deep and 2 feet square and fill it half full of wet sawdust or sand. Lay on top of the bed of sawdust a piece of stout muslin, which has been marked off into squares with a lead pencil and the squares numbered.

Now from each ear of corn pick about six grains, from different parts of the ear, and having numbered the ears, place the grains on the muslin, within the square the number of which corresponds to the number of the ear from which the grains have been taken. Thus the six grains from No. 1 ear go in square No. 1 and so on. A top cover of muslin is then laid on carefully and the whole covered with burlap and a layer of 2 inches of wet sawdust or sand. The experimental box is then placed in a moderately warm place—a living room will do.

At the end of a week lift off the top layers of sawdust, burlap and muslin, exposing the grains, and note which have sprouted strongly and which have failed to sprout or have sprouted weakly. You are now able to tell which ears of corn contain strong healthy grains, and these alone should be used for seed. The others should be rejected.

Westminister Seminary.

The exercises connected with the twenty-second commencement of Westminister Theological Seminary will be held in the Methodist Protestant church, of that city, May 7-9. The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by the president, Rev. Hugh Latimer Elderdice, D. D., on Sunday, May 7, at 10.30 A. M., and the alumni sermon by Rev. Bradley Wilson Kindley, at 8 P. M. The commencement will take place Tuesday evening, May 9, when seven students will be graduated as follows: Noah Caspar Clough, of Hope, Md.; John David Keith, of Conely, Ga.; William Lyall Morton, Thomas Henry Slater, of Allenwood, N. J.; John Hewlett Tuthill, of Eastport, N. Y.; Arthur T. Evans, of Cuba, Ill., Winfred Poulson Roberts, of Baltimore. Messrs. Evans and Roberts will be graduated with the degree of bachelor of divinity.

Testify for Smith.

The taking of the testimony on behalf of Congressman-elect Thomas A. Smith, in the Jackson-Smith election contest, was begun Thursday of last week in the law offices of Messrs. Miles & Gorman, Baltimore. Mr. Edward W. King, of King's Brothers, who printed the ballots for Worcester county, was the principal witness, and he denied the allegation of Mr. Jackson that inferior paper was used.

Secretary of State Oswald Tilghman testified that he had sent out a letter for Governor Warfield, and he received replies from each of the nine counties in the First district signed by the Democratic and Republican supervisors stating that the election was fairly andproperly conducted.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys and extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will releave the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle?
