Monument, to be taken out of any unappropriated money in the treasury,
Which was agreed to by the following vote – the yeas and nays being required by Mr Richardson
Yeas – Messrs Stansbury, Barnes, Rice, Forman, Eshman, Baker, Richardson – 7
Nays – Messrs Briant, Longmann, Boyd, Bolton, Langley, Wright – 6
The resolution as amended was then concurred in, and sent to the First Branch

A report and resolution from the joint committee on internal improvement, relative to taking up the rail road tracks within the city, was received from the First Branch read a first and by special order the second time, concurred in and returned to the First Branch

A report and resolution from the joint committee on markets, relative to purchasing a lot for a market in the southern part of the city, was received from the First Branch and read

The First Branch returned the resolution relative to using the dredging machine for deepening the harbor, endorsed "concurred in" with a proposed substitute
Substitute proposed
Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore
That the port warden, and they are hereby directed to employ the dredging machine at such points in the harbor as they may deem most necessary and proper
The substitute was read and laid on the table

A report and resolution from the joint committee on the harbor relative to removing the city yard from the city block, was received from the First Branch read a first and by special order the second time, concurred in and returned to the First Branch

A report and resolution from the joint committee on markets on the petition of William Young and others, was received from the First Branch, read a first, and by special order the second time, concurred in and returned to the First Branch

On motion of Mr Eshman this branch adjourned until Monday afternoon next at half past 3 o'clock

By order
H. A. Pennington Clerk

Monday April 14 1845

The branch met pursuant to adjournment
Present Robert Howard esq. President and all the members
Mr Collins, on leave, submitted the following bill
A supplement to an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to provide for exercising certain powers vested in this corporation, in relation to streets in the city of Baltimore", approved March 9, 1841
Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the compensation of the clerk to the commissioners for opening streets employed in conformity with the provisions of section 4, of ordinance No 10, approved March 9, 1841 and performing the duties prescribed in said ordinance, shall be the same as that of said commissioners, to wit, two dollars per day for every day he shall be necessarily employed in performing the duties required of him by said ordinance
Sec 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, that any thing contained in said ordinance, or in any other ordinance inconsistent with the provision of this ordinance, be and the same is hereby repealed
The bill was read a first and by special order the second time, and will pass
The bill was sent to the First Branch

Mr Richardson moved to reconsider the vote on the passage of the resolutions relative to enclosing the square at the Washington Monument, which was agreed to
The resolution being before the branch, Mr Richardson offered the following as a substitute