Chas. W. Crow,

ITS TRUE as the old fellow says, "you can fool some people sometime, but you can't fool all the people all the time."

MAYOR TIMANUS, of Baltimore, will have to be good now, or the Democratic city council will know the reason why.

THE BOARD OF County Commissioners have been in session during the week adjusting assessments and making preparations for striking their annual levy.

CLAYLAND MULLIKIN, ESQ., one of Talbot's most brilliant young lawyers, died at his home in Easton on Wednesday morning. The deceased was one of the best lawyers in the State, and only recently made a strong defense in the noted Simpers murder trial at Elkton.

CHAIRMAN ,Murray Vandiver's explanation of the provision of the Poe Disfranchising Amendment will be found on page 2 and 6 of this issue. We advise all Democrats to read it carefully and post themselves upon the provisions of the amendment. It is important that Kent county line up for this amendment this fall, and all Democrats should get posted at once.

CHAIRMAN Wm. Frazier Russell has a call in this issue to the County Executive Committee to assemble in the Court House on Tuesday, May 16, for the purpose of setting the time for holding the next county primaries and also for determining the method by which they shall be conducted. There are five members from each district on the committee, and all are admonished to bear in mind the date of meeting.

THE DEMOCRATS of Baltimore City elected 18 councilmen to the First Branch and three to the Second Branch of the City Council at the Municipal election on Tuesday, and did their share towards carrying the loans to victory. The Democrats will now control the City Council. The victory is regarded as a favorable indication for Democratic success in the fall election when the Poe Disfranchising Amendment will be the principal issue.

GEN. FITHUGH LEE, one of Virginia's most honored sons, and one of the country's most honored soldiers and patriots, died in the city of Washington on Friday night last. The South has lost a noble son, and the country has sustained a great loss. Gen. Lee was President of the Jamestown Exposition Company at the time of his death, and he had done much towards assuring the great success of the exhibition next year. He will be an almost irreparable loss to the company. Gov. Warfield and his staff attended the funeral.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon city, Fla., has written the manufactories that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggest.

OBITUARY.

MRS. ELENORA BARROLL.

Mrs. Elenora Barroll, widow of the late James Leeds Barroll, died at the residence of her son, J. Leeds Barroll, Esq., in Philadelphia yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, of pneumonia, aged 69 years. The deceased was a daughter of the late Thomas Horsey, of near Shrewsbury, and had for many years made her home in Chestertown. She is survived by three sons, Hope H. Barroll, Esq., of Chestertown, J. Leeds Barroll, Esq., of Philadelphia, and Capt. Morris K. Barroll, U. S. A., now stationed at Charlotte, N. C., and by two sisters, Mrs. K. H. Deaver, of Atlantic City, and Mrs. Betton, of Georgetown, Md. At the hour of going to press the arrangements for the funeral services had not been made.

MRS. GRIFFITH CLIFT.

The people of this community were very much shocked on Monday last when the news of the death of Mrs. R. Griffith Clift was announced, for she was so well and favorably known. Funeral services at her late home, between Sassafras and Massey's on Wednesday, her pastor, Rev. Frank L. Cain, officiating. Interment was made in the Methodist Protestant cemetery at Sassafras, Md. Mrs. Clift leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and two children, also her father, mother and three brothers. May the bereaved have sustaining grace in this trying hour.

MRS. PARROTT SPARKS.

Mrs. Parrott Sparks, wife of Mr. Parrott Sparks, a prominent citizen of Queen Anne's county, died at her residence in Roe, that county, on Sunday, of paralysis, aged about 55 years. The deceased was an aunt of Mr. Arlington L. Sparks, of the firm of Sparks & Jefferson, Chestertown. Funeral services were held on Tuesday and interment was made in Crumpton cemetery.

DR. WILLIAM HOUSTON.

Dr. William Houston, formerly of Chestertown, but late of Washington, D. C., died suddenly in that city on Tuesday afternoon aged about 57 years. The deceased was the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Houston, of Chestertown. Dr. Houston was a young man of brilliant mental attainments, and was very proficient as a physician. Prior to his death he held a lucrative position with a Washington journal. He is survived by an aged mother, Mrs. Lucy Houston, of Chestertown, and three children, two married daughters, and one son living in Washington. The remains were brought to Tolchester on Wednesday afternoon and were taken to St. Paul's Church, where funeral services were conducted by the rector, Rev. C. T. Denroche. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. R. D. Hynson, Wm. W. Beck, Benj. F. Beck, Charles L. Dodd, Charles M. Brown and George B. Westcott. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

JOHN C. MCCOLLISTER.

Mr. John C. McCollister, formerly of Queen Anne's county, died of blood poisoning, caused by a slight wound on the arm, at his home in Baltimore on Monday night, aged 66 years. The deceased was for many years a prominent agriculturalist and fruit grower of Queen Anne's county. He is survived by two sons, John C. and Daniel McCollister, of Baltimore. Charles and Samuel G. McCollister, of Queen Anne's, are brothers. Interment was made in Loudon Park cemetery on Wednesday.
