The resolution, as amended, was concurred in.

A preamble and resolution relating to reiterating the position of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to the declaration of an extra dividend by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company of the alleged net profit of the said company, and requesting the City Counsellor to oppose the consummation thereof by such proceedings as will be most likely to arrest the same, were received from the first branch and read,

On motion of Mr. Simms the preamble and resolution were read a second time, by special order, and concurred in.

Mr. Kirk called up the resolution relating to authorizing the Register to borrow, at the legal rate of interest, the sum of six thousand, seven hundred and ten dollars and sixty nine cents, for the purpose of meeting the city's indebtedness to Baltimore county for removed cases from the Criminal Court, which was read and concurred in.

Mr. Kirk called up the ordinance entitled "An ordinance to provide for the accommodation of the several courts and their officers", which was read and passed.

Mr. Kirk called up the resolution relating to appropriating the sum of one hundred dollars for having the rooms of the Register's office suitably repaired which was read and concurred in.

Mr. Henig called up the ordinance entitled "An ordinance to establish a Police for the city of Baltimore", — the special order of the day — which was read.

The question pending being the proposition of Mr. Kirkpatrick to amend the ordinance by inserting the following as the twenty fourth section, which was determined in the affirmative:

Sec. 24. Be it enacted and ordained, That the Marshal be, and he is hereby directed and authorized to sell to the best advantage, all the watch boxes, and equipments thereto, as speedily as possible after the passage of this ordinance, and pay the whole amount, resulting from said sale, into the hands of the Register — under oath.

Mr. Kirk moved to further amend the ordinance by inserting the following as the twenty fifth section, which was determined in the affirmative:

Sec. 25, And be it enacted and ordained, that it shall not be lawful for any police officer to be employed to attend any theatre, or other place of popular amusement or entertainment.

Mr. Kirk moved to further amend the ordinance by inserting the following as the twenty sixth section:

Sec. 26, And be it enacted and ordained, That if any member of the police shall be found to frequent any of the public houses or bar rooms where spirituous liquors are vended, except in their official capacity, and if it shall be ascertained that any of them are in the habit of using intoxicating drinks to excess, it shall be sufficient cause for the immediate dismissal of such offending member.

The question being taken on the proposition to amend the ordinance, it was determined in the affirmative by the following vote the yeas and nays being required by Mr. Henig:

Yeas — Messrs. President, Kerney, Henig, Kirk, Kirkpatrick and Weber. — 6.

Nays — Messrs. Gordon, Simms, Brickner, and Sullivan — 4.

Mr. Kirkpatrick moved to reconsider the twelfth section, which was determined in the negative by the following vote; the yeas and nays being required by Mr. Simms.

Yeas — Messrs. President, Kerney, Kirk, Kirkpatrick and Gordon — 5.

Nays — Messrs. Henig, Weber, Simms, Brickner and Sullivan — 5.

Mr. Henig moved to reconsider the vote, by which the proposition to amend the ordinance by inserting the following as the twenty fourth section was determined in the negative, which was determined in the affirmative.

Sec 24. And be it enacted and ordained That no person shall be appointed to any of the offices created by the provisions of this ordinance, who has not attained the age of twenty one.
