Spring Clothes.

When you buy a suit of clothes, you're pretty much at the mercy of the clothier. The suit looks good to you, but then you don't know what's back of the looks. The inside making—the parts you don't see—is wh t counts, and you have got to leave it to the merchant's sense of honor to give you a suit that's properly made.

Our clothes are made especially for us. We know what's inside; you see the outside, and we guarantee every garment and to back up its good looks by giving good wear. The same can be said of Youth's and Children's Suits.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

MR. RASIN'S BODY FOUND

Discovered Floating Near the Shore at Gale's Wharf by Mr. Thomas Gale.

The body of Mr. Medford M. Rasin, who fell from the steamer Bertie E. Tull in Worton Creek on Wednesday night of last week, and was drowned, was recovered on Saturday afternoon about one o'clock. The body was found floating near the shore at Gale's wharf by Mr. Thomas Gale, whose farm adjoins Worton Manor. Mr. Gale was walking around his shore to meet the steamer Kitty Knight with the hope that he would hear some tidings of his friend at the boat, when he accidentally came upon the body of Mr. Rasin on the shore. He notified Capt. Tarbutton, who proceeded to Buck Neck and returned in the steamer Bertie Tull. The deckhands of the Kitty Knight after she returned to Gale's placed the body ahoard the Tull, upon which it was conveyed to Buck Neck, where coroner Moffett and a jury, of which Mr. Robt. C. Morgan was foreman, held an inquest. The verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death by accidentally falling from the steamer, Bertie E. Tull and drowning. Mr. J. E. Ferguson was notified and went to Buck Neck to bring the remains to Chestertown. It was placed in the undertaking shop of Mr. Ferguson just across the way. The remains were identified by the clothing and Mr. Rasin's watch, which stopped at ten minutes after eleven o'clock the night of the drowning. About five dollars in money and some papers were found in the pockets. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, pastor of St. James M. P. Church, which the deceased attended, assisted by Rev. D. L. Greenfield, pastor of Christ M.P. Church, Chestertown. A great crowd of relatives and friends from all sections of the county were present, and beautiful floral tributes covered the casket. Misses Anna Lambert and Eva Hurlock sang the touching solos, "Sometime We'll Understand," and "Will There be Any Stars." Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were his two brothers, Messrs. Perry and Robie Rasin, Robert C. Morgan, Wm. W. Beck, N. Lieberman and Mr. Sells, of Baltimore. The three honorary pall bearers, intimate friends of the deceased, were Messrs. Andrew W. Woodall Jonn T. Deputy and Tilden Cooper. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Since the death of Mr. Rasin, the Bertie E. Tull Freighting Company has been reorganized with Mr. Andrew Woodall as president. Mr. A. Parks Rasin, who had recently been appointed deputy Treasurer, has resigned to succeed his father as manager of the company.

It is said that Mr. William Maslin will succeed Mr. Rasin as deputy treasurer.

Real Estate Sales.

There have been quite a number of important real estate sales during the past week, and the prices received indicate that town property especially is on the boom.

Mr. John C. Davis has purchased of Mrs. Charles H. Baker, the residence on High street now occupied by Mrs. M. M. Rasin. The price paid was $3800. Mr. Davis was offered $4500 for the property shortly after he purchased it.

Mr. Walter U. Lusby has purchased of Mr. William B. Usilton that part of Tolchester farm extending from the bay shore road to the bay shore. The tract contains 315 acres of fine land and includes all the buildings and improvements. This will make Mr. Lusby a fine farm. The price paid is private.

A Mr. Armstorng has been in the county during the week looking for a farm. It is said that he made an offer for two farms, one near Fairlee, and another on the bay, but the offer was not accepted in either case.

Mr. Harry R. Graham has purchased of Mr. W. T. Crow a desirable building lot on Washington avenue adjoining the property of Prof. Edw. J. Clarke. The lot is 60x181 fet. and was purchased for $700. Mr. Graham proposes to erect a fine home for himself on this lot in the near future. Mr. Graham has rented the residence on Queen street now occupied by Mrs. Alice Derringer.

Dr. E. G. Clark, formerly of Millington, but now of Middletown, Del., has purchased the Dicky farm, near Mt. Pleasant, Del., containing 450 acres for $20,000.

*†*There is a great deal sometimes in imagination. If you are troubled with the warm weather just imagine it is cool, and you'll be all right. If that is cold comfort, all the better. Don't worry.

THE FOURTH VERY QUIET

The Fourth passed very quietly in the town and county, and there were no accidents to mar the pleasures of the day. Not for many years have so few people left their homes to seek the pleasures of the bayside resorts or the cool quiet nooks along the river shore. The majority of the people seemed to prefer to spend a quiet and restful day in their own homes, with little diversion save the excitement incident to a ball game, or to spend the afternoon under the bridge and to stroll in the evening on the avenue or on the bridge to view the fireworks. The stores and public offices were closed all day, and from the porches and windows of dwellings the stars and stripes were flung to the breeze, and aside from the occasional burst of a fire cracker or the fireworks at night, the day in Chestertown was as quiet as the Sabbath. Stils there were those who sought pleasurel at the resorts and on the river shore, and there were the usual Fourth of July crowds at Tolchester and Betterton, where the hotels and amusements were kept busy until late at night to accommodate the crowds. Here are a few of the diversions:

"Sterlingford," the fine country home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Klinefelter was the scene of a jolly party of young folks who enjoyed the day in feasting and fun. Mr. and Mrs. Klinefelter are charming hosts, and they did everything in their power to make the day and evening enjoyable. They are entertaining a house party from Baltimore and elsewhere, and a few friends were invited from town to enjoy the day with them. The beautiful lawn presented a brilliant scene at night when the "fireworks went off."

A party of Worton folks enjoyed the day on a "fish fry" on Bramble's shore. The name of Worton is synonymous with a big dinner, as well as supper, and there were fish, fried chicken, chicken salad, tongue, country ham, potato salad, etc., in abundance, and it all was enjoyed hugely by Mr. and Mrs. John Morris, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Skirven, of Baltimore, Misses Sallie Sheridan, Linda and Frances Morris, Mabel and Bessie Nicholson, Bertha Jump and Messrs. Frank Skirven, Lusby Nicholson, Herman Bramble, Purnell Jump, Norman Crouch, Jarrett Sheridan, Harvey, Walter and Romie Morris.

Capt. and Mrs. Curtis E. Crane took a party of friends for an afternoon sail on his yacht "Josephine."

The Messrs. Eliason took a party down the river on the launch Cinderella.

Miss Marguerite Skipper entertained a party of young folks at the beautiful country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Skipper, over the river. Strawrides, a big dinner and beautiful fireworks at night, the latter much enjoyed by the crowd on Chester bridge, were the features of a splendid day.

The fireworks at night given by the Barroll boys on their beautiful lawn attracted crowds of people to Chester bridge, and about 200 children as their guests at their home. This is an annual occurrence with the Barroll boys, and the display on Wednesday evening was more pleasing and varied than on former occasions. The bridge was lined with people who viewed the display with much pleasure.

One noticeable feature of the day was the run on the ice cream man. Mr. Loud was equal to the occasion, however, and supplied the wants of all his customers.

A game of baseball in the morning between two scrub teams on the Chestertown athletic club's diamond attracted quite a crowd of spectators and furnished rare amusement. It proved to be so interesting that no one knew what the score was when the game ended, nor which side won. They all had a good time all the samey.

This was the way the day was spent in Chestertown.

Deadly Work of Lightning.

A colored woman in the employ of Mrs. B. H. Coburn, of Rock Hall, was struck by lightning and instantly killed on Saturday afternoon during a severe electrical storm, and Mr. Coburn, as well as the other occupants of the house, was stunned. Mrs. Coburn and the girl went up stairs to lower the windows as the storm approached, and the girl had just reached the window, with Mrs. Coburn just behind her, when suddenly two bolts of lightning in rapid succession struck the window. The girl was instantly killed, and Mrs. Coburn was knocked down. Mrs. J. A. Thompson, mother of Mrs. Coburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roden, of Baltimore, who were in the room just beneath, also received severe shocks. Mrs. Coburn is now in a nervous condition, but is improving.

STATE TEACHERS.

Have a Delightful Session at Ocean City, and Elect Officers for the Ensuing Year.

The State Teachers' Association meeting held in Ocean City last week was one of the most enjoyable and profitable meetings in the history of the association. It was more largely attended this year than for many years and the subjects discussed showed that the teachers are thoroughly abreast of the times, and are a unit for improvement in the school facilities throughout the State. The degree of Doctor of Pedagogy was conferred upon Prof. Alexander Chaplain, superintendent of Talbot County Schools, by the association, and is a fitting compliment to the veteran educator from Talbot. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—James W. Cain, of Washington College.

First Vice-President—James W. Thomas, of Cumberland.

Second Vice-President—Rev. F. L. Griffith, of Rockville.

Secretary—Hugh W. Caldwell, of Chesapeake City.

Corresponding Secretary—S. Elizabeth Meade, of Ellicott City.

Treasurer—John E. McCahan, of Baltimore.

Executive Committee—Albert S. Cook, chairman, of Towson; Dr. R. Berryman, of Baltimore; E. M. Noble, of Denton; Miss Anna Johnson, of Ellicott City; Miss Mary Krogers, of Sparrows Point.

The following committees were appointed:

On Proposed Summer School—Messrs. Galbreath, Boblitz and Willson.

Board of Managers—Robert H. Ward, J. Montgomery Gambrill and Miss Mary E. Ford.

STARTED FOR DANCE.

Caught in a Storm and Compelled to return to Chestertown on Steamer Ford.

A party of young folks, piloted by Capt. George B. Westcott, on Mr. Wilbur Eliason, Jr.'s, launch started for Centreville on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock to attend a dance. Everything went well until the trim little vessel reached North West Point when an accident to the engine prevented further progress. The party went ashore at the Point just as a storm was about to break, and they secured a sail boat which took them to Riverside Wharf where they were compelled to wait for the Steamer B. S. Ford to bring them back to Chestertown. They took refuge from the storm in the wharf house but all their edibles which they had "carried along" were spoiled. The party was very much disappointed in not reaching their destination as they anticipated a splendid time. The launch returned to Chestertown later.

Law For Motor Craft Carrying Passengers.

Notice is given by the Board of Inspectors of steam vessels of the following amendment of the Act of Congress regulating the work of the motor craft in the waters of the United States: "All vessels of 15 gross tons or less, propelled in whole or in part by gas or gasoline, petroleum, naphtha fluid or electricity, and carrying passengers for hire, shall carry one life preserver of the sort prescribed by the regulations of the board of supervising inspectors for every passenger carried, and no vessel while carrying passengers shall be operated or navigated except in charge of a person duly licensed for such service by the local board of inspectors. No examination shall be required as a condition of obtaining such a license, and any such license shall be revoked or suspended by the local board of inspectors for misconduct, gross negligence, recklessness in navigation, intemperance recklessness in navigation, intemperance or violation of law on the part of the holder, and if revoked the person holding such a license shall be incapable of obtaining another for one year from the date of revocation."
