An ordinance to prevent certain nuisances.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That no person who shall cast, place, or lay or cause to be cast, placed, or laid, any rubbish, oyster shells, filth, dirt, shavings, stable manure, or offals of any trade, business, or occupation, or any rubbish from buildings, cellars, or back yards, or any refuse or dirt from coal or firewood, or any ashes, or any noxious or offensive matter, substance, or thing whatsoever, into or in any public square, place, street, lane, or alley in the City of Baltimore, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar for every such offence, and the further sum of one dollar for each and every day the same shall remain in such public square, place, street, lane, or alley as aforesaid.

Section 2. And be it enacted and ordained, that every person who shall put or place, or cause to be put or placed, any coals, or any trough for watering or feeding horses, cattle, or animals, in any public square, place, street, lane, or alley in the City of Baltimore, and shall not remove the same on the day of so doing before sunset, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar for such offence, and the further sum of one dollar for each and every subsequent day the same shall remain in such public square, place, street, lane or alley as aforesaid.

Section 3. And be it enacted and ordained, that firewood may remain in any public square, place, street, lane, or alley in the City of Baltimore for the space of forty eight hours next ensuing the
