AT THE BOOK

School days are here, and so are we, with all the necessary things calculated to instill pride into the boy who must daily respond to the sound of the bell on the hill, and just here at a time when buying is made easy by our reduced prices on all summer goods. We have added to the life of this sale by putting into it a lot of Boys' Knee Pants Suits. By calling early you can get a fairly good selection in patterns, and the price we ask you to pay will be small enough to tempt you into buying for next summer's use, if not in immediate need.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The October term of court convened in the Court House on Monday morning with Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce on the bench. Associate Judges Crothers and Adkins arrived on the morning train. This was Judge Adkins first appearance on the bench here, and he was introduced to those members of the bar whom he did not know. He made a very favorable impression, and evidenced his ability to fill most acceptably the exalted position to which he has been appointed. The other officers of the Court. Clerk, Jas. T. Dixon, Deputy, Lewin Russell; Sheriff, Andrew Medders, Deputy, S. E. T. Startt; Crier, John H. Greenwood; Bailiffs, Chas. H. Hurlock, Wm. H. Blackeney and S. Q. Moody were in their places.

Hepbron, Charles England, Samuel Burgess, John Brice, J. H. C. Maslin, Jacob Shriley, C. Romie Skirven, Thomas D. Bowers, Wm. D. Pennington, George D. Lofland, William A. Whitaker, Charles C. Wood, John M. Toulson, Thomas D. Glenn, Jacob T. Shallcross.

The morning session was consumed in calling the dockets which showed an unusual number of appeal cases and considerable other business that will prolong the session to a somewhat unusual length. The first case called for trial was that of McNatt vs. the Board of County Commissioners, suit for injuries to a mare, appealed from lower Court. Jury trial, Urie for McNatt, Wickes for Commissioners. Case on trial when Court adjourned. Grand jury brought in presentments against John Washington, Lewis Davis, Benj. Kennard and Henry Young.

Upon motion of Wm. W. Beck, Esq., Messrs. S. Scott Beck and Lawrence McCleary were admitted to practice at the Kent bar.

TUESDAY.

Court convened with judges Crothers and Adkins on the bench. Case of McNatt vs. Commissioners resumed and concluded at the afternoon session. Jury rendered verdict for McNatt for $40.

The appeal case of Ralph Smoot, son of Rev. T. C. Smoot, of Galena, who was arrested and fined for disturbing the public peace in the street of Galena, was called.—Court trial, young Smoot was honorably acquitted by the court with costs above and below.

Case No. 2—Mrs. Lydia Shaw vs. R. Groom Parks, suit for Commissions. Court trial, verdict rendered for Parks, for $10 for services. H. W. Vickers, Jr., for Parks, Herbert E. Perkins for Mrs. Shaw.

WEDNESDAY.

Case No. 3—State vs. Henry Smith violation of local option law, 3 counts. Court trial, verdict not guilty, Beck for State, Hynson for defense. In rendering his decision Judge Crothers stated that he regretted that there is no provision in the present law for the punishment of those filling orders from Baltimore. He warned the party and all others to stop the practice, or they may overstep the limitation of the statutes.

Case No. 4—Rawleigh vs. Second National Bank, judgment on note, Court trial. Judgment in favor of Second National Bank. Barroll for Bank, Parks for Rawleigh.

The case of Wm. T. Crow vs. the Board of County Commissioners was removed by consent of the counsel to Talbot county.

Parks for permitting gambling.

Grand Jury brought in true bills against Joseph Downs for rape; Geo. W. Parks, 3 cases, for violation of local option law, J. Thos. Lamb (5 cases) for same. Presentments were brought in against Wm. E. Knight for obtaining money under false pretenses; Mrs. J. P. Thompson for violation of local option law.

THURSDAY.

Court convened at 9.30 Judges Crothers and Adkins on the bench. Argument was heard for the removal of the case of David Blake vs. the Diamond State Telephone and the Chestertown Electric Light Companies. Decision reserved.

In the trial on Wednesday before the court in the case of N. Lieberman vs. Walter L. Fowler, attachment on note the court rendered a dicision for Lieberman for $19.50. Wickes for Lieberman, H. W. Vickers, Jr., for Fowler. Suit was for $65.

The case of Benjamin Kramer, a cattle dealer, who buys and sells stock, sheep etc., was heard by the Court. The verdict was that under the laws of the State it was Kramer's duty to take out a license, but as no other stock dealer in the county had ever been licensed or willingly disregarded the law, sentence was suspended for one year. This is a general notice to the public. All persons interested in stock, livery-men who keep exchanges and buy and sell, must take out license and thus avoid trouble with the State authorities.

Case of Hester V. Stoops vs. L. Bates Russell was begun before a jury and consumed the day. Messrs. Smith and Urie represented Russell and Messrs. Beck and Wickes represented Mrs. Stoops.

FRIDAY.

Court convened at 9.30 o'clock. Cases of Hester V. Stoops vs. L. B. Russell resumed and was on trial before a jury at the hour of going to press.

Grand Jury will likely finish its labor today.

Family Laundry.

The Family Steam Laundry, of Chestertown, which was incorporated some weeks ago, as reported in the TRANSCRIPT, was formally organized last week, and officers elected as follows: President, Col. Wm. J. Vannort; vice-president, John C. Davis; secretary, S. P. Townshend; treasurer, Jas. T. Anthony. The company has a capital stock of $5,000, which is being subscribed by residents of Chestertown. Arrangements have been made to take over the plant of the Chestertown Laundry, conducted by Mr. Wm. H. McKee, and negotiations are in progress for the purchase of additional new machinery to make the plant complete and up-to-date in every particular. The stock is being taken rapidly and the indications are that Chestertown will shortly have a long felt need supplied.

THE STRIKE ENDED.

The Captains and Mates of Bay Steamers Win Fight Against Companies.

The strike between the masters and pilots and the B., C. & A. and the Md., Del. & Va. railway companies, which had continued for nearly two weeks, causing thousands of dollors loss to the shippers, and untold inconvenience, was ended last Friday night at eleven o'clock at a conference between the strikers and Capt. Willard Thomson, vice-president of the lines affected. The terms of settlement are as follows:

The men are granted an increase in salary at about the rate they asked. The same percentage of increase will apply to the mates and second officers.

No request to leave the associaton to which the captains and mates was made by the company.

All steamers left their wharves on Saturday on schedule time. The steamer Love Point left at 2 P. M. for Rock Hall and Chester river points. She reached her landing at Chestertown at 10 o'clock P. M. The strike began Oct. 1, and since that time the bay trade has been crippled, many of our shippers having resorted to Tolchester, and packet lines to do their freighting during the tieup. Capt. Clarke and his officers received many congratulations upon their arrival at Chestertown on Saturday night. Had the hour not been so late it is probable that a large crowd would have been at the wharf to welcome the steamer.

KENT BOY HONORED.

Mr. John P. Dugan is Appointed General Baggage Agent of the B. & O. Railroad in Baltimore.

Mr. John P. Dugan, a former Chestertown boy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert I. Dugan, of Baltimore, has been appointed general baggage agent of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, with headquarters in Baltimore, to succeed the late B. E. Peddicord, who gave John his first job with the company. Mr. Dugan accepted a position in the post-office department of the company shortly after leaving Chestertown, and by close application to business and affable manner he was promoted from time to time until he was made traveling baggage agent about two years ago. Mr. Peddicord died last week, and Mr. Dugan was promoted to fill the position of the man who had taken him in as an apprentice and fathered his promotion step by step. The promotion is not only a merited one, but is a natural one, as Mr. Dugan has proven his ability as a railroad man since he became an employe of the road, and has made himself affable in manner and willing to work hard for the interests of his company. We congratulate our fellow-townsman upon his promotion, and wish him success in his new field. Mr. Dugan is not only a credit to his parents, but he is an honor to the community in which he was born.

"Wallen's Late."

Col. Samuel A. Wallen, the well known veteran of the Spanish-American War, of Double Creek, in Queen Annes County, brought to Chestertown on Saturday morning a basket of peaches of his own invention. The Colonel, after years of effort and labor in the peach field, has at last succeeded in propagating a peach which matures to perfection the early part of October. The peaches he brought to town on Saturday are the finest, so several gentlemen who tasted them pronounced, that have ever been offered in Chestertown at this late season. The tree is a great discovery. The Colonel proposes setting out a nursery and placing the stock on the market. His test he says has been thorough, and besides its firmness the beauty of the peach was remarked by all. He intends to call it "Wallens Late" and we think it will in a short time be the most renowned peach that has ever been known on the Eastern Shore. It is white, a free stone, with finely tinted pink lines—the color of the Colonel's cheeks. It has never been affected with the yellows and the Col. claims it is yellow amure. Even if this be not correct the value of the peach as an October fruit is at once manifested.
