Democratic Ticket.

For Congress from the First Congressional District:

HON. THOMAS A. SMITH,

of Caroline County.

RICHARD PEARSON HOBSON, the hero of the Merrimac, is coming to Maryland to help the Democratic Gongressmen to win their seats in Congress. Women sometimes play an important part in politics, and if Messrs. Smith, Gill, Wolf, Talbott, Spressard and Smith want to go to Congress, we advise them to get all the women out when "Hobson comes to town." They have not forgot the Chicago episode, and Mr. Hobson is not only a charming speaker, but he can win the votes of the men, by his "appeals" to the ladies.

JUDGE WILLIAM H ADKINS, who was appointed by Governor Warfield to succeed Associate Judge Wm. R. Martin, has been presiding at the October term of court here with Judge Crothers during the week. Judge Adkins has made the acquaintance of many of the people, and has shown by his manner upon the bench that he is fully able to discharge the responsible duties of the high office. He is young and possesses such a knowledge of the law as enables him to render a prompt decision upon matters pertaining to the various cases. He is also very affable in manner, and he has won the esteem of every one by his pleasing sociability. He will, we are sure, prove a worthy successor to his distinguished predecessor.

CONGRESSMAN THOS. A. SMITH, candidate for re-election to Congress, was in Chestertown last Saturday conferring with the leaders of the party in reference to the situation in Kent. He was very sanguine of his election, and stated that the party is united throughout the District, and the voters are manifesting much interest in the approaching election. He says there are rumors everywhere of a big Republican campaign fund, and indeed the Republicans are basing their hopes of electing Mr. Jackson upon the size of his "bar'l," but he thinks the voters have pretty generally made up their minds to beat "money" in this election. He went from here to Rock Hall, where he met many of the tried and true voters of the old Fifth, who will give him a comfortable majority on November 6.

THE Grand Jury of the present session of Court is certainly to be commended in the highest terms for the effort it is making to stamp out the damnable speakeasies and gambling dens in this county. If there is one thing that is doing more to destroy the lives and characters of young men and to make the ignorant colored man more harmful than he would otherwise be, it is the speakeasy, which thrives in almost open defiance of the law. It is a great pity that the penalty for such offences is not much more severe than it is at present, and it is much to be regretted that the law is so framed as to make it so difficult to secure a conviction against the man who defies the law. State's Attorney Beck should receive the thanks of all upwright citizens for his effort to wipe out this great evil.

UNCLE BILL JACKSON has begun to sing his little song, and as usual, it is to the young men to stay at home. The Sunday American quotes him in full, and his advice might be taken seriously if it were not for the well-known fact that every time any one wanted to find Mr. Jackson in his seat in Congress he was not "at home." He was always somewhere else attending to some other business than that of his constituents. Nobody ever heard his voice on the floor of Congress in the interest of the people, nor did he ever lend his aid to the passage of any measure that is for the good of the young or old. He simply wants to go to Congress for glory, and he is willing to debauch the voters of the District with his campaign boodle, for what—for glory. Mr. Jackson is not the proper sort of person to give young men advice, especially about staying at home. It would have been equally as foolish for him to talk about the purity of the ballot.

CHURCH NOTES.

Chestertown M. E. Church.—Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday school at 2.15 P. M. Epworth League meeting at 6.45 P. M. All are cordially invited.

Rev. W. G. Harris, of Piney Neck Church, delivered an interesting sermon on Sunday night to the Knights of Pythias.

Father Ott, of Newark, Del., formerly pastor at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Chestertown, visited Father McKenna, the pastor, at his old charge last week. He held services to large congregations Sunday at Chestertown and Rock Hall Churches, and delighted his audiences with splendid sermons.

Maryland Day was observed by the Junior C. E. Society of Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening at the early service. The meeting was in charge of Miss Josephine Wheatley, president of the society, and spirited songs and excellent recitations composed the programme. Little Miss Ida Smith rendered a beautiful solo, and Master Randolph Waddell gave a very pleasing recitation. Several little juniors also recited nicely and Miss Lewis read the scripture lesson.

The Maryland State Christian Endeavor Convention has been in session at Salisbury during the week. It has proven one of the best conventions in the history of the organization, and will serve as a great incentive to those who are doing so much for the good of the church and the spread of the gospel. The delegates from Christ M. P. Society were, Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, who delivered a stirring address, Mrs. Chas. J. Reiche, Misses Clara Usilton and Fannie Baker. From St. James were, Rev. J. M. Sheridan, Mrs. Jesse H. Usilton, Mrs. John Gale, Miss Parsons, and Miss Bessie Nicholson. From Kenedyville was Miss Emma Shafer.

Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield will preach the night sermon at the reopening services at Rhode Island, Washington, M. P. Church, on Sunday week. Rev. J. M. Gill is the popular and energetic pastor of this Church.

Revival services will begin at St. James M. P. Church on Sunday. Preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7 P. M. Services continued during the week. Revs. G. J. Hooker and E. D. Stone are expected to assist in the services. Public cordially invited.

Rev. Eben N. Baldwin, who preached in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening week, has a most interesting letter in the Methodist Protestant discriptive of his trip to Kent. He speaks in the highest terms of Chestertown church and of the people of all the charges where he visited. It is well worth reading, and is so appropriate that it is none too long, Bro. Tagg, for the columns of your paper. Kent county people appreciate such notices, and they appreciated Bro. Baldwin's visit.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church 9.30 A. M. Experience Meeting. Public Worship at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Themes: "The Sermon of the Fading Leaf" and "The Session of the Final Court." Sunday School at 2.30 P. M. Junior Endeavor at 6 P. M. Christian Workers' Song Hour 6.45 P. M. Special music by the Choir and Young Peoples' Chorus. Come bring another.

Invented Self-Horse Feeder.

Mr. James Temple, of Ridgely, Caroline county, has invented an automatic horse feeder. The arrangement is a very simple and useful device. The horse can be fed at any hour during the day or night. The feeder consists of an alarm clock, a three-pound weight and two trap doors. The weight rests on a shelf about two feet below the clock. A piece of heavy wire having an "L" at the top end which hooks over the key of the clock. When the clock alarms, which can be set at any hour or minute during the day or night, it releases the wire connected to the key, dropping the weight from the shelf. The weight is attached to two pulleys, one from the corn shoot and one from the hay shoot. These pulleys are fastened to two trap doors and when the clock alarms the weight falls from the shelf, raising the trap doors, letting the feed contained in the shoots into the horses' manger.

It Pays to Advertise.

An exchange contains the following tn reference to the business man who does not advertise: "Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow; it strayed away one day, where lambs should never go. And Mary sat her quickly down and tears streamed from her eyes; she never found the lamb because she did not advertise. And Mary had a brother John, who kept a villiage store; he sat him down and smoked a pipe and watched the open door. And as the people passed along and did not stop to buy, John still sat and smoked his pipe and blinked his sleepy eyes. And so the sheriff closed him out, but still he lingered near, and Mary came to drop with him a sympathetic tear. How is it sister can you tell, why other merchants here, sell all their goods so readily and thrive from year to year? Remembering her own bad luck the little maid replies: "These other fellows got there, John, because they advertise."

Instructions to Voters.

How to Proceed to Cast a Ballot Under the Election Law.

Attorney-General William S. Bryan, Jr., has prepared the following instructions to voters as directed by Article 33, Code of Public General Laws, and amendments thereto:

1. TO VOTE. Enter room, step up to guard-rail, give name and registered residence to the judges. Wait until your name is found upon the registers, then get Ballot from the judge in charge of the ballots. See that he has written your name and number on the coupon attached to the ballot and his own name or initials on the back of the ballot itself.

2. Upon receiving your ballot, retire to one of the booths or compartments and prepare your ballot by marking with an indelible pencil after the name of every person, or persons for whom you wish to vote, and to the right thereof in the blank space provided therefor, a cross-mark, for example (X); and in case of a question submitted to a vote of the people, by marking likewise in the appropriate space a cross-mark (X) against the answer you desire to give. If you wish to vote for some one whose name is not printed on the Official Ballot, you can write the name of such person in the blank space upon the ballot provided for that purpose.

3. In marking the ballot you may take with you into the polling place any written or printed memorandum or paper to assist you in preparing your ballot, except a fac-simile of the ballot to be voted. You must prepare and deposit your ballot without undue delay. Before coming from behind the curtain in front of your compartment you must fold your ballot in the same way as it was folded when you received it, so that the marks you have made upon it shall be entirely concealed. You then hand your folded ballot to the judge at the ballot box, give him your name and registered address, and wait until he tears off a coupon containing your name and number, and strings it, and deposits your ballot in the ballot box. You must then leave the polling room and cannot again go behind the guard-rail during the day.

4. A voter must not go into any compartment occupied by another or converse with any other voter while engaged in a compartment, nor can he occupy a compartment more than seven minutes if others are waiting.

5. You must not take any ballot outside the guard-rail. If you spoil a ballot you must deliver the spoiled ballot to the judge in charge of the ballots and you can receive another from him. IF YOU SPOIL THREE BALLOTS YOU LOSE YOUR VOTE.

6. A voter who is physically disabled from marking his ballot, must make an affidavit to that effect if he desires assistance. The two polling clerks after such affidavit has been made, can accompany him into one of the compartments and there mark his ballot as he instructs them, marking only the names of the candidates whom he shall name. The clerks are not allowed to read the ballot to him.

7. Any voter who shall allow his ballot to be seen by any person with the apparent intention of letting it be known how he is about to vote, or place any distinguishing mark upon his ballot, or who shall make a false statement as to his inability to mark his ballot, or who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with any voter when inside the enclosed space in the polling room, or when marking his ballot, or who shall endeavor to induce any voter before voting to show how he marks or has marked his ballot, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five ($5) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100) dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for a period not exceeding sixty days, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

Forbidding the Sale of or Giving Away Liquor on Election Day.

For the information of all persons concerned, the following Act of the Legislature passed March 24th, 1895, is published:

AN ACT

Prohibiting the sale of Spirituous or Fermented Liquors in the counties in the State on the day of Election.

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment or any other place where liquor is sold, or for any person or persons, directly or indirectly, to sell, barter, give or dispose of any spirituous or fermented liquors, ale or beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, on the day of election hereafter to be held in the several counties of the State.

SECTION 2.—And be it enacted, That any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be liable to indictment by the Grand Jury of the county where such offence is committed, and shall, upon conviction before any judge of any of the Circuit Court of this State, be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars for each and every offence; one-half the fine is paid the informer and the other half to the County Commissioners for the use of the public roads.

Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws as amended by the Acts of 1900 and 1901, says:

"Whoever, during the hours of registration, or revision of registration, or during the hours of election or canvas of votes, or of making returns thereof in any precinct, shall bring, take, order or send into, shall or attempt to bring or take or send into, any place of registration or of election any distilled or spirituous liquors, wine, ale or beer or shall at any such time or place, drink or partake of such liquor, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than $100.
