JEFFERSON.

THE LADIES STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Ellegance and Excellence.

OUR

WOMEN'S

SEOES

Madam, we ask you to take a look at our new FALL Shoes, all new stock.

You can't help but notice how different they are from the kind of shoes most stores sell. They have a handsome

"MADE FOR YOU ALONE APPEARANCE."

We claim our Women's Shoes to be the perfection of shoe making and we assume all risks.

Patent Kid, Patent Calf, Vici and Gun Metal Calf are some of the good leathers. Straight or swing lasts, medium or narrow toes. Aebau or regular heels, low, button or blucher.

We have taken great care in selecting our line of Children's Shoes, and we feel assured that you will be delighted with the line displayed. Bring the children along and get them fitted up with a pair of dependable school shoes.

WOMEN'S COATS--Unusual Values

The news is of long coats, the coats that amid a hundred or more beautiful styles carried the day. When we re-order, as we'll have to, these very styles and qualities will be a third more in price. Mid-summer's buying of cloth at savings accounts partly. We are fairly supplied for early purchasers.

$7.50 coats at $5.00; up to $30.00 coats at $25.00; $5.00, value $7.50, double breasted, back or mixed cloth, flat collars, 52 inches long, extra values.

$7.50, values $10.00; double breasted black cheviot coats with braid trimmings.

$12.50, values $15.00; double breasted black or fancy mixed, 50 inches long, flat velvet collars and cuffs.

$25.00, values $30.00; black broadcloth, 52 inches long flat collar, reversed cuffs, and trimmed over shoulder of velvet and braid, graduated boxpleat down center of back from collar to hem lined throughout with satin.

DRESS GOODS.

Never before in the history of Chestertown merchandising has the public had such an assortment as will be found at our emporium. The prices, too, tell with conviction their own stories. The shades are somewhat varied, with blue, a keen favorite, closely second with the numerous greys, while browns are exceptionally good. We are headquarters for black dress goods, Wool, Taffeta, Panamas, Broadcloths and Voils, at from 50c to $20 the yard.

MILLINERY.

Autumn Brown--The Open Note in Millinery.

Autumn brown is one of the most charming shades of the popular color, a rich, full brown. Combined with which the effect is splendid.

In fact, we feel that the group of hats carrying out this scheme are worthy a special exhibition day, will you come to-day.

Blue, green and grey is very good this season and all will be found in the LADIES STORES where you will receive a cordial welcome to inspect our work and pattern hats.

TAILORED SUITS.

Tailored Suits of brown; beautiful blue, too. Plenty of black at every price.

These have the Pony Coats shaped backs and loose in front. We have them from $10 up. Come in and look them over.

General Thomas Dead.

Gen. Richard Thomas, Cashier of the Eastern National Bank, and probably the oldest bank cashier in the United States, died on Sunday morning at his home in Easton. He would have been 91 years old on Dec. 18, next. Gen. Thomas had held the position of bank cashier longer than any other man in the United States, having been elected Aug. 29, 1849. No man took greater pride in his labors than did Gen. Thomas. He was borne in Wye Neck, Queen Anne county, Dec. 15, 1815, and was a member of that branch of the family which came to the United States in 1660. He was educated at the Centreville Academy, and at the age of 20 started in business for himself in Centreville, August 29, 1849 he was elected cashier of the Easton Bank and with a devotion that was remarkable he attended to business and was at his desk in season and out of season. General Thomas was one of the oldest members in age and service of the Methodist Protestant Church in the world, and the church at Easton owes much to his activity and interest in its behalf. He was also a Royal Arch Mason. During the war he was a strong Union man, but after the war he become an ardent Democrat. He was lieutenant colonel of the Fourth Regiment of the State Milita, under Gov. Philip Thomas, and Gov. Hicks promoted him to brigadier general in 1861. His funeral took place from Calvary Methodist Protestant Church on Thursday, conducted by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham.

Letter to W. W. Hubbard.

Chestertown, Md.

Dear Sir: Here's the difference between two pure paints; one strong; the other weak.

C. P. Hanger, Staunton, Va., painted two new houses, the houses exactly alike: one another pure paint, the other Devoe. Devoe cost a quarter less for paint and labor.

People generally are paying twice-over for paint.

Yours truly

9 F W DEVOE & CO.

P. S.—John Bartley sells our paints.

Rev. Sam Jones Dead.

Rev. Sam Jones, the noted evangalist, died early Tuesday of Heart failure, near Perry, Ark., while enroute from Oklahoma City, I. T., to his home in Cartersville, Ga.

Samuel Porter Jones, familiarly known as Sam Jones, was a world-renowned evangelist.

He was born in Chambers county, Alabama, October 16, 1847.

He studied under private tutors and at boarding schools, and was admitted to the Georgia bar in 1869.

He began his professional life under bright prospects of success, but broke down in health. He then began to drink and this soon ended his professional career as a lawyer.

He professed religion and in 1872 became a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Mr. Jones has held revival meetings in almost every city in the United States, including Baltimore. He had many friends all over the world.
